Dr. A. M. Smith, late of the Merchant's Bank of Halifax, at St. John's, is in the city on his way to Pictou, his future home.

Anderson Bros., of Kensington, loaded two carloads of potatoes on Friday at 15 cents per bushel. The potatoes came in with a rush.

The first notice of a public tea for the season is to hand. It is at Hunter River on the 23rd of June. Advertisement will appear tomorrow.

The water pipes were laid across Great George street, yesterday, to connect with the new livery stable under course of erection by Mr. A. Newman.

The farm of Alexander Gillis, situated at Rose Valley, was sold by C. I. Miron at the Law Court on Wednesday, 1st inst., for the sum of $1070.

In our issue of Wednesday the case of Angus McDonald vs Ronald McDonald and others, in the County Court, should have read John Angus McDonald.

The flower beds in the front of Queen Square have been tastefully set with blooming flowers. This will enhance the attractions of this already popular resort.

KENSINGTON HALL.—To-night the popular hour service will be on "Arnold's Light of Asia." Strangers welcomed and made to feel at home. Meeting from 8 sharp to 9.

Messrs. J. M. McLeod & Co's boot and shoe store, in Sprague's old stand, on Queen Street, is having a new plate glass window put in. This will give purchasers better facilities for seeing the fine stock they keep on hand.

G. J. Wright of this city purchased a lot of fat cattle some days ago from Mr. W. J. Simpson, Cavendish. The herd, consisting of seven, mostly young cattle, came in on Wednesday last inst. They are for the Nova Scotia market.

PRINCE OF WALES College closes its classes on Friday, 10th inst. The examination for teacher's licenses will be held in college building on the following Monday. School districts throughout the Island will hold their annual school meetings on the 11th inst.

Who is SHE?—A Boston correspondent writing to the Halifax Herald under date of May 28th, says: Miss Jessie MacDonald, 19 years old, a native of P. E. Island, stepped from the train in front of another at Quincey Adams, on the Old Colony road, last night, and was instantly killed.

The case of John Angus MacDonald, was resumed Wednesday in the Court of Chancery before the Master of the Rolls. The court allowed the application of Mr. MacDonald, for the defendant, asking a postponement of the further hearing, in order to obtain the evidence of Mr. R. Mackay, who was unable to be present through illness and the case stands over till the 27th of June, 1892.

The Steamer Fastnet, Capt Hopkins, arrived from Halifax at ten o'clock yesterday morning with a general cargo and one passenger—Mrs. Emory. She left for Summerside about two o'clock with four passengers, among whom were Mrs. Horace Beer and Mrs. Reid. She will return to Charlottetown about daylight this morning, and will sail from here for Halifax at four o'clock in the afternoon.

MR. DUNCAN MACLAUGHLIN, a native of P. E. Island, a tanner and carrier by trade, died very suddenly at Sackville on Saturday last, from congestion. News of his sudden illness was sent to his sister, Mrs. Donald Duff, at Scotch Settlement, but before any of them reached his bedside he had expired. He was in the employ of Mr. Abner Smith, tanner and shoe manufacturer of Sackville. He was highly respected. He was about 60 years of age and unmarried.—Transcript, June 1st.

The closing exercises in connection with the Mount Allison educational institution on the 29th to 31st ult., were of more than usual interest. During the year there were 77 students in attendance at the academy. The year was crowned out a class of 13, whose examination is accepted for matriculation into the university. The graduates in this department are Fred C. Bent, G. Fred Dayton, Clarence Grace, C. Percy Humphrey, Elbridge D. King, Elms S. Livingston, Walton B. Mills, Ira A. McLean, Danson Robertson, William T. Robertson, Frank Read, James Read. The Convocation was largely attended by visitors from the province. During the year there have been 100 students in attendance at the university. The graduating class numbered six, while the freshmen class comprised 31 students. In the Annual Gymnasium Competition Mr. Edgar Beer of this city, carried off a silver medal. Miss Amy Moore is among the lady graduates in music. Mr. Edgar Beer, Miss Mary Large and Miss Minnie Mellish returned home to this city, last evening.

Local and Other Notes.

THE Union Teachers' Bible class meets at 8 o'clock this evening in the vestry of the Baptist Church.

I. O. G. T.—Charlottetown Lodge, No. 1, meets this evening at 8 sharp. Members are requested to be present at opening.

JUNEAU, May 10th, 1888—"Opeleka" cured me by using two doses.

LOUIS L. WILLIAMS, U. S. Commissioner for Alaska. Who would think it? But dull times do not effect the trade at the Dominion Boot & Shoe Store. Always busy,—good boots and low prices, do it. Go there, if you want satisfaction.

THE treasury of the Police Court has been enriched this week to the extent of $75 in fees for breach of Sunday Observance Law by Mrs. Irsel Thorpe, liquor seller of Richmond Street.

The children must be looked after; give McLean's Vegetable Worm Syrup when required.

ADVICE just received from several country druggists are to the effect that of all the pills they sell Everybody's are the most popular. They are only twenty-five cents a box.

THE two intoxicated gentlemen, who carried on the comic dialogue in the police keep last night, will have an opportunity of trying their wit before His Honor the Stipendiary, this morning.

THE Premier, Captain Kelly, arrived here at 9.30 last evening with three passengers and a full freight for the different ports. She was delayed five hours at Canso in unloading, and also by the fog encountered in the evening.

McLean's Vegetable Worm Syrup is as pleasant as sugar and a safe and effectual remedy.

THE Officers of the law captured two cows yesterday, grazing on King's Square. They were removed to the pound for safe keeping, etc., etc. If on our farms are to be kept in a tidy condition, the law must be enforced in this respect.

MR. PAUL LEE's factory, in Moncton, which was destroyed by fire last March, has been replaced by a new structure. With a more suitable building and new and improved machinery, Mr. Lee will no doubt give even better satisfaction to his patrons than ever before.

CRESCENTS ATTENTION!—The members of both the first and second teams of the Crescent foot-ball club are requested to meet at Victoria Park grounds this evening, at 7 o'clock, to prepare for the coming match on Monday, J. P. Randle, Capt.

THE Moncton Times is responsible for the following: A freak of nature is to be seen in a bush on the corner of Cornhill street. The stand is kept in the house, and two live branches are growing from the legs, which are made of willow wood. The branches are now about four or five inches long, and one of them is leafing out.

THE following officers of the Charlottetown Athletic Association, for the incoming year, were elected at the annual meeting held on Tuesday evening: President, A. E. Ings; Vice-President, Dr. S. R. Jenkins; Treasurer, J. B. Dawson; Secretary, W. J. Swain; Executive Committee, Dr. H. D. Johnson, Lt.-Col. J. D. Irving, J. McCarty, W. A. Weeks, jr., L. McDonald.

J. B. MACDONALD'S GREAT CLOTHING STORE.—It is quite unnecessary for us to occupy as large a space in your paper as some of our competitors to tell about our stock of men's and boys' clothing. Our customers are so well pleased with the cheap and low prices of our goods that they do more to advertise us than any newspaper advertising will do. If you want the best value for your money always go there.

THE steamer Coban, Capt. FRASER, arrived here from Montreal about 6 o'clock yesterday morning with a general cargo and the following passengers: Robert Mills, Mrs. Mills, Miss Mills, Alex. McLean, Mrs. McLean, Mrs. W. W. Barber, Mr. R. A. Robertson and G. M. Hayland. She sailed yesterday afternoon with a general cargo and horses and cattle and sheep on deck. The cargo included 8 head of cattle, shipped by Geo. Wheatley; 14 sheep, shipped by Barrett; 2 calves, shipped by John Smith; 2 horses, shipped by Captain Aylward; one each shipped by C. C. Gardiner, city, B. Rogers, Alberton, and Captain Fraser.

C. P. R. EXCURSIONS.—Arrangements have been made for four cheap excursions from the Maritime Provinces to the Northwest, via the C. P. R., on June 13th, 20th, 27th, and July 18th. The tickets will be from any point on the Ingersoll, and E. I. Windsor & Annapolis or C. P. Railways in the Maritime Provinces, and to Deloraine, Orbow, Moosomin, Nesbitt and Binscarth the fare will be $28; to Moosejaw, Regina and Yorkton, $30; to Calgary and Prince Albert, $36; and to Edmonton $40. They will be valid to return within six weeks of the date of issue. A sale of C. P. R. lands at Edmonton is to be held on July 6th, and can be reached by leaving here on June 27th, while those wanting to visit the great western exposition at Winnipeg on July 25th to 30th should go by the last excursion.

METHODIST SUNDAY SCHOOL ANNIVERSARY.—The anniversary of the Methodist brick church Sunday School was held last evening in the basement, Col. F. S. Moore in the chair. The reports from the officers showed a gratifying increase in attendance and a growing interest in the work under the present superintendent, Mr. R. K. Jost. From Kensington Hall the words were greeted with their interesting report showed good work being done and an increased attendance. The report from the Wesley Mission was also of great interest and gave a short history of the growth of this enterprising Society. The singing throughout was good and was greatly appreciated, and the selections by the infant class were as usual heartily applauded. The instrumental quartette by members of Mr. Boswall's bible class was well rendered and was one of the best pieces on the program. When Rev. Mr. Brewer rose to address the meeting he was greeted with vigorous applause by all the scholars who gave great attention to his interesting and instructive remarks on the place children may occupy in the Mission Field. A most pleasant evening was brought to a close by the singing of Crown Him Lord of all by the school and Glee Club and the Benediction by the Pastor.
