BATTLE WITH A BEAR.—On the Monday before Christmas, near John Whalen's camp, North branch, John Hogan and Jos. Kiddle came across a bear, and attacked him with knives. Neither of the men sustained any injury.—Chatham World.

A WARNING TO TRAVELLERS.—We are informed that as Messrs. Kenneth R. Morrison and McE. Smith, of Eldon, Belfast, were coming to this city on Saturday, their horse broke through the ice, midway between Gallops Point and Howard's. They had great difficulty in getting the animal out, and had their hands badly frozen. They say the ice is bushed about two miles in the middle of Pownal Bay, and there are no bushes at either ends.

DEATH OF CUSTOMS INSPECTOR KERR.—Mr. J. J. Kerr, customs inspector for Nova Scotia, died at Halifax Wednesday evening of typhoid fever, after an illness of only a few days. He was about 69 years of age, and leaves a family of grown up sons and daughters.

MORE THAN A CENTENARIAN.—A correspondent of the Chignecto Post writes: Cape Bald has the oldest woman living in the County and I think in the Province, in the person of Mrs. Angelique Comeau. She attained one hundred and five years this last new year. She is now living with her son, Francis Comeau, Esq., where she is well taken care of. She has lost the use of her legs and is also blind. She is not to say deaf and has a fair memory and will tell incidents and happenings of ninety years ago.

The ordination of Mr. Francis Gallant, as a priest of the Roman Catholic Church, took place yesterday in St. Dunstan's Cathedral, His Lordship Bishop McIntyre, assisted by His Lordship McPhee, of Rustico, Carroll, Corbett, and McIntyre, of Charlottetown, performed the ceremony. The Cathedral was uncomfortably filled, and among those present were a large number from Rustico—the native parish of Father Gallant—who came to assist at the ordination. Rev. Angus McDonald preached a sound and eloquent sermon, taking for his text the first verse in the fourth chapter of Paul to the Corinthians: "Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God."
