

Rain; Cold; Snow Wipe Out Most Ball Games

(By The Associated Press)

Rain, cold and snow wiped all but three games off the major league baseball schedule Wednesday.

The world champion New York Yankees recovered from their first opening day shutout in 17 years and defeated Philadelphia Athletics 4-1 at Yankee Stadium in the only American League contest.

Brooklyn edged Pittsburgh 4-2 and Philadelphia Phillies battered New York Giants 8-1 in the National League encounter.

Pitching Debut Ruined

The Brooklyn victory ruined the National League pitching debut of Johnny Lindell, 36-year-old "rookie" who played the outfield for the Yankees 10 years ago. Lindell scattered eight hits but gave up 10 walks. He homered into the left field stands in the third, scoring startstop Dick Cole ahead of him, for the Pirates' only runs.

Brooklyn's winning margin came in the eighth when Peeewe Reese singled through the box with the bases loaded to bring home two runs. Russ Meyer, making his first start for Brooklyn, was the winner.

The Phils opened up on four Giant pitchers for 14 hits including a two-run homer by Del Ennis in the first inning off Rober Al Corwin. Lefty Curt Simmons gave up five hits, one of them Bobby Thomson's second home run of the season.

Bobby Shantz Starts

Bobby Shantz, a 24-game winner last season, started his first regular game for the Athletics since his wrist was broken last September but the Yankees ruined his bid for success with a pair of runs in the seventh inning.

With Mickey Mantle on second, Gene Woodling doubled for the second time in the game and came on home when shortstop Eddie Joost threw wild on a relay from outfielder Dave Philley.

Rain washed out St. Louis at Milwaukee and Cincinnati at Chicago in the National League. The field was wet and it was too cold in St. Louis for the Browns' game with Detroit. Boston Red Sox called off their game with Washington at Boston when snow fell Tuesday. Chicago and Cleveland in the American League weren't scheduled.

Other games had no effect on league standings.
