

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

Masters a specialty—Beer Bros. Don't forget the concert in St. Patrick's Hall tonight. Telephone—Geo. Lightner's store, Kent Street, is connected by telephone. Choir Practices—Practice of the First Methodist Church choir tonight at 8.30. Hot—It was 91 in the shade in New York at 7 p.m.—the hottest May 10 in record. Dominion Savings Banks—The balance in the Dominion Savings banks on April 30 was $17,055,944. A Tricky Question—The Cathedral clock has not moved a hand since the Bishop left. Why? The Polino—The steamer Polino from Montreal arrived in Summerside today and will be due here to-night. Police Courts—This forenoon the Scott Act summary against John Carroll was dismissed. The case against John Joy was adjourned until Monday. St. Patrick's Hall—Don't fail to attend the concert this evening. The programme is an excellent one, and the object most worthy. Admission only 25 cents. Special attention is directed to the sale of that nicely situated house and premises on School Street, which takes place tomorrow, May 16, at noon. See adv.—A. McNeill, Auctioneer. Fire—The alarm about three o'clock this morning was for a slight fire in the Charlottetown Club, Queen Street. The damage did not amount to very much. The firemen were promptly on the scene. Presbytery—The Presbytery of Prince Edward Island will meet in the church at St. Peter's Hall, on Tuesday, the 21st inst., at 7.30 p.m.; and in the church at Tyne Valley on Thursday the 23rd inst., at 7 p.m.—T. F. Fullerton, Clerk of Presbytery. The Bonaventure—The steamer Bonaventure, with Capt. France in command, arrived from Montreal last evening, bringing a large general cargo and two passengers for this port. She left at noon today for St. John's, Nfld., taking a large freight of cattle, sheep, oats, hides, hay, &c. Mr. and Mrs. Boyle went as passengers. Home News From Abroad—The Mayflower goes on the Pictou-Charlottetown route for a few weeks until the regular steamer has undergone repairs. After that the Mayflower will run between Cape Tormentine and Summerside—Halifax Herald. On enquiry at the Steam Navigation Co's office THE EXAMINER was informed they knew nothing of the intended change for repairs. The Scribble—The steamer Sunrise which sailed from Liverpool on April 29th, arrived here at 6 o'clock this morning. She brought a general cargo of salt, tin, etc. The Sunrise is 1100 tons, and is commanded by Captain Judd. She has been chartered by the Dominion Coal Company for the coal trade between Sydney, Halifax and St. John's, and will enter upon the service as soon as discharged here. Real Estate Sale—The auction sale of the Threemile estate took place on Tuesday at 12 o'clock, day, pursuant to advertisement. After Mr. McNeill, the energetic and well-known auctioneer, had enlarged on and explained the advantages of the property, the bidding commenced and was continued with much briskness until it reached $1040, at which figure the auctioneer gave the final and last caution, and dropped the property to Mr. Lawrence C. Worthing.

PERSONAL. His Honor the Master of the Rolls is visiting Summerside. Registered at the Queen Hotel this forenoon: W. C. Kennedy, City; Mrs. E. H. Head, Craignap, John A. Collins, Summerside. The Prince of Wales has accepted the chancellorship of the newly formed Welsh University. A wealthy Englishman, says a Chicago report, will wed Miss Frances Willard in the autumn. Alexander Beaton, Esq., of East Point, has been in town for the past day or two. He leaves this afternoon for his home. Capt. Charles Hansen, who was pilot on the Florida last season, will be pilot on the Olivette until the Florida resumes work on the P. E. Island route when he will take his old position on that steamer. There were 1400 guests at the Hotel Davy this forenoon: L. N. Lussier, W. H. Hynes, E. P. Romeril, Montreal; W. H. Stewart, Toronto; J. Sinclair, H. J. Massey, Mrs. W. A. Brennan, S. Side; Mrs. W. J. P. Murray, Summerside. Mr. H. D. McEwen, of St. Peter's Bay, left here this morning for Halifax, to take the position of the medical staff of the Victoria General Hospital, which he won at the recent competitive examination. James Craikbank is said to be one of the oldest business men in New York. He is 92 years of age and goes regularly to his office every day, keeping strictly backing his ears. His mind is as clear and he carries on his business affairs with a vim and snap of a young man. Revere Hotel arrivals. Mr. J. L. Houghton, City; L. Houghton, Vernon River; two Houston, New Glasgow; David Potter, Pictou, N. S.; Neil McDonald, Hampton; Geo. A. Woods, Mt. Allison; A. Buchanan, Pictou; W. S. N. Crane, Chatham; W. H. Hynes, W. H. Hynes, Frank Haldiday, Haldiday's Wharf; J. B. Trowsdale, A. P. Trowsdale, Craignap. We learn from the Boston Herald that Miss J. J. Walsh, who has for some time been chief steward of the steamship Gate City, has resigned that position to accept a similar one with Fred H. Sawyer, proprietor of the Surfside Hotel, Gloucester. When Mr. Sawyer was purchaser of the old steamers Carrol and Worcester, running between Boston and Charlottetown, Mr. Walsh was the steward, so that the two shipmates in signing articles on land are no strangers to one another. On board the Savannah steamer, a few days ago, Mr. Walsh was presented with an address, accompanied by an expensive marble clock, as a testimonial of the esteem in which he was held by the officers and crew.

The fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla, once fairly tried, becomes the favorite spring medicine, speaks a volume for its excellence and merit.

Pretty Curtains! Dainty Patterns at Popular Prices. Few things add so largely to the beauty of a room as tasteful draperies. Perhaps you want SOMETHING DIFFERENT from the ordinary curtain?
