STRUCK BY A TORPEDO.

Auxilliary Cruiser Sunk

BY A SPANISH TORPEDO WHILE ENTERING SANTIAGO.

Americans Made Prisoners by the Spaniards.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

CAPE HAYTIAN, Hayti, June 4.—The American fleet according to advices received by cable from Santiago, the cable being under Spanish control, opened fire again at 3 o'clock yesterday morning. Friday, on the fortifications and warships.

A United States auxiliary cruiser, well armed, attempted to force the passage into the harbor.

The Spaniard's allowed the cruiser to cross the first line of torpedoes but before she arrived at the second line they discharged a torpedo which broke a great hole through her side, and caused her to sink immediately, bow first. The name of the vessel is not known, nor is the number of victims reported. One officer, one engineer and six sailors were made prisoners by the Spaniards.

LATER.

CAPE HAYTIAN, June 4.

A later despatch from Santiago says that the vessel that sunk at Santiago is understood to be the Merrimac.

Only the extremities of her funnel and two masts are visible above the water.

Santiago advices to Cape Haytian, in referring to the sunken vessel as an auxiliary cruiser, probably mistook her character.

The Merrimac is a collier and always has been a collier.

Tarte at Daggers Drawn

WITH THE MONTREAL DAILY WITNESS.

Government Forced to Back Down in the Ballot Box Enquiry.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

OTTAWA, June 4.—In the House of Commons, yesterday, Tarte attacked the Montreal Witness, saying that that paper had shamefully abused him.

The Witness charged that the Montreal harbor loan was managed by Tarte for the benefit of some of Tarte's friends.

The Ottawa Government was brought up with a round turn yesterday morning, when the majority tried to force through the Public Accounts Committee report commending the action of the Government in spending some $19,000 in the alleged ballot box prosecutions. The enquiry is not yet completed. Some witnesses called have not appeared, and the man who did come with a contradictory story of Conservative fraud did not bring his papers.

Sir Hibbert Tupper stated that the enquiry would be resumed next session, and proposed, in the meantime, that the evidence so far taken would be reported without comment.

Mulock, Sifton, Davies and Fielding were present, and it was insisted by them that the report vindicating the Government should be brought in.

Then there was real confusion, but Tupper was supported by Wood, Clancy, Sproule and others in the demand that judgment should not be passed by a majority of the committee without hearing any evidence except that of the man who pocketed most of the money.

As the minority were determined to shout down and vote down, opposition, Sir Hibbert assumed the offensive, withdrew his motion to report evidence, and proposed to reopen the case, asking for a summons for Sir Oliver Mowat and several others, and informing Mr. Mulock that the Government would not get their business through the House until this investigation was concluded if the Ministers persisted in their determination.

This defiance backed Mulock down, and the Ministers agreed to drop their proposed whitewashing report and accept Sir Hibbert's motion, the latter stating that he would reopen the enquiry next year.

In the Senate, replying to Ferguson, Miller stated that Collector Brennan, of Alberton, had been dismissed May 25th, and J. F. White appointed in his place.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—General Alger yesterday morning asked for an appropriation of $53,000,000 for the equipment and maintenance for the remainder of the year of the second call of volunteers.
