Networks Battle Over Grey Cup Telecast

OTTAWA (CP)—The question of whether eight Canadian cities or 58 will get the Dec. 1 Grey Cup telecast appeared to rest Sunday with either the justice department or private negotiations among the game sponsors and Canada's two television networks. Both proposals remained in doubt after a four-hour public hearing Saturday of the Board of Broadcast Governors, a proposal to allow every TV private network in Canada to carry the private city TV network's sponsored production of the football classic. The hearing saw one of the great broadcasting battles in Canadian history.
