The Civil Service.

To the Editor of the Examiner.
SIR,—Interested by some statements made in the newspapers of this city, respecting the Dominion Civil Service of this Province, I turned my attention to the Blue Books, wherein I find a very unfair discrimination against the officials of this Island.

On page 191 of the Report of the Postmaster-General for the year ending 30th June, 1878, there is a statement showing that the officials in the St. John P. O. were paid salaries for that year, as follows:—

Postmaster	$2,400
Ass't do.	1,400
1st Class Clerk	1,200
2nd do. do.	940
3rd do. do.	800

and a number of the 3rd and 4th class from $737 to $480.

On page 212 I find the Postmaster and clerks in the Charlottetown Office paid as follows:—

Postmaster	$1,500
3rd Class Clerk	800
4th do. do.	520
4th do. do.	520

and three others at $440 each. You will observe that the Postmaster in St. John receives $900 a year more than the P. M. in Charlottetown, and that there is a 1st and 2nd class clerk in that office, while in the Charlottetown office there is no clerk above the 3rd class. This is, certainly, very singular, because it appears to me the work must necessarily be of the same character in both offices. This being true, the inevitable conclusion is, that the 4th and 3rd class clerks in the Charlottetown office only receive $520 to $800 for the same description of work as is done by the 2nd and 1st-class clerks in the St. John office, for which they receive $940 to $1,200.

Now, Mr. Editor, there can be no reason or excuse given for such discrimination against the officers of the Postal Department in this Province.

MORE ANON.

Among the Tombs.

To the Editor of the Examiner.
SIR,—The last of May found me in the Irish Montague burying ground. Though the day was warm, the breeze was refreshing, and I enjoyed it. The views of the surrounding country is very picturesque, and indicative of good and extensive cultivation. The Church and Parish House are plain, and with an air of neatness and order about them that bespeak a comfortably circumstanced congregation. The same may be said of the cemetery. I am not sure, but I think this section is under the charge of the Rev. Mr. Whelan, of Montague. Many monuments there are, and many old people rest here, awaiting the sound of the last trumpet. We give the names and figures for

Vernon River was one of the central stations where the late venerable and esteemed Bishop McEachern officiated at stated intervals, and whither the people brought their children from far and near, for baptism and confirmation. I do not know who was the first settled parish cure, but Father James Brady, who was 24 years in holy orders, had charge for a good long time. The present incumbent is the Rev. Mr. Phelan—a great advocate of the temperance cause. Father Brady was a quiet, easy-going gentleman, and confined himself pretty much to his parish duties. He was born in Lapinbawn, Ireland; and rests among his people, whose esteem and affection for him are displayed in the handsome monument—a large cross—which they erected over his grave. The present chapel—one of the handsomest on the Island—and the parish house (which is not very ornamental) are far ahead of what Mr. Brady lived to see. The improvements bespeak the liberality and well-to-do character of the farmers and business-men of this fair section of the Island. And here it may be noted that in Vernon River, Irish Montague and Belfast the death-rate gives the greater "length of days" to the "Old Country born."

In this burying place there is an old defaced stone which could not be read. Owen Winters has erected a beautiful marble monument to the memory of his late wife. It is really handsome. The late Martin O'Halloran, a merchant well known in Charlottetown and Summerside, has a fine headstone and an iron railing round his grave. Patrick Stephens, of Galway, Ireland, who died suddenly on the Steamboat Wharf, Charlottetown, at the age of 56, his requiescat in pace. Mr. R. J. Clark and his wife are tenants of the same acre, as is also Capt. A. Stephens, Galway, aged 46. Many of your readers are familiar with the names, character and business honor of Messrs. Stephens & Clark. Could I add to the high esteem in which they were held while living, and the good-will which accompanied them to the tomb, my pen would readily contribute its mite. Among their neighbors, friends and customers their memory is as green as their native Irish sod.

Yours, etc.,

The Death-rate of

Our country is getting to be fearfully alarming, the average of life being lessened every year, without any reasonable cause, death resulting generally from the most insignificant origin. At this season of the year, especially, a cold is such a common thing that in the hurry of every day life we are apt to overlook the dangers attending it and often find, too late, that a Fever or Lung trouble has already set in. Thousands lose their lives in this way every winter, while had Boshee's German Syrup been taken, a cure would have resulted, and a large bill from a doctor been avoided. For all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Boshee's German Syrup has proven itself to be the greatest discovery of its kind in medicine. Every Druggist in this country will tell you of its wonderful effect. Over 950,000 bottles sold last year without a single failure known.
