Non-Red Press Is Critical Of Oswald Case Handling

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. Europe's non-Communist press has turned from eulogies of John F. Kennedy to criticism of the way police handled the case of the slain Lee H. Oswald, the president's alleged assassin.

The Soviet press blamed both Oswald and the Russians for the slaying, saying it was a Jew. They hinted that Arab nations' favorite target, Soviet Zionism, was mixed up in the events in Dallas.

Reflecting European opinion expressed in their editorials, Vienna's independent Neue Oesterreich declared: "Oswald was no longer alive, even if he wanted to, even if he was forced to. Was this the purpose of his death?"

"WAS KILLING ODERBERG?" Asked the newspaper, "Is Oswald's shooting political or emotional? Was ordered by a political group or a criminal organization?" The Soviet government newspaper Izvestia asserted there apparently was a reluctance to find the real killers of President Kennedy.

More than 2,000 Britons attended a requiem mass in the Roman Catholic Westminster Cathedral.

In Brussels, the Belgian Senate recessed out of respect for Kennedy after hearing eulogies to the late president.

Masses for Kennedy were celebrated in Roman Catholic churches in Jaffa, Israel, and across the border in Amman, capital of Jordan.

Shaw Has Praise For Ont. Premier

OTTAWA (CP) - Canada's smallest province had a bouquet for Canada's richest at the federal-provincial conference.

Premier Shaw of Prince Edward Island praised Premier Robarts of Ontario for his "logical and reasonable" approach to federal-provincial relations.

"I think Mr. Robarts has expressed a fine attitude," Mr. Shaw said. He referred to the Ontario premier's comment Wednesday night that his province is prepared to make sacrifices for the good of Canada.

PRIMEY'S BELIEVE IT OR NOT

Prime Minister Keith Holyoak said he believed it or not that the assassination of John F. Kennedy was a "miraculous event."
