The New Hebrides Question.

[LONDON, August 9.

Sir J. Ferguson, Parliamentary Secretary of the Foreign Office, stated in the Commons this afternoon that England never acquiesced in the presence of French troops in the New Hebrides. The English Government was unwilling to believe that French occupation of the New Hebrides would long continue. He declared that the Government would in no wise consent that the withdrawal of French from the New Hebrides be postponed until an agreement respecting the neutralization of the Suez Canal was reached.

The Anglican Bishopric.

HALIFAX, Aug. 9.

The Anglican Synod meets to-day. Both the High and Low Church party had caucuses last night, and were in session until midnight. From present indications Archdeacon Gilpin, of this city, is the favorite. The Low Church party still support Dr. Sullivan, but the attendance of lay delegates appear to be very small, consequently Mr. Sullivan's support in the convention is weak. There is no dark horse in sight.

Diplomatic Advances.

PARIS, Aug. 9.

Le Paris announces that the English Government requested of M. Flourens, Minister of Foreign Affairs, that France name a date for the evacuation of the New Hebrides, and M Flourens in reply declined to do so until France was informed of the nature of England's policy in regard to Egypt, and neutralization of the Suez Canal.

HALIFAX, Aug. 9.

The American schooners Frank Butler, out seven weeks, and Hattie E. Linnell, out eight weeks, have arrived in Arichat, the former with 120 barrels of mackerel, the latter with 45 barrels. The Captain reports mackerel unsafe outside the prohibited limit.

Railway Boycotted.

DUBLIN, Aug 9.
