THE RED FLAG

Sometimes a red flag means anarchy, sometimes an auction. It is usually a sign of excitement of one kind or another. What I am doing in my store seems to have stirred up as much commotion as if I had hung out a red flag, but it is only the bargains inside. My competitors don't like it a bit. No wonder, look at these prices—

Men's Stockings 4 pairs for 25 cents
Men's Shirts worth 60c, for 49c each
Men's Underwear worth 76c, for 49 cents

THE FROST DRAMATIC COMPANY.

The Frost Dramatic Company after four teen successful, continuous weeks in Quebec City, and performances at River De Loupe, Campbellton and Bathurst arrived here last Monday. The first evening, "Passion's Slave" was presented in excellent fashion before a small, but appreciative audience, at the conclusion of which a farce entitled "The Irish Doctor" was played, bringing from the spectators many outbursts of laughter. Tuesday evening the "Little Duchess" was ably enacted, and those present pronounced it a grand effort. Wednesday night, "Kathleen Mavourneen" was scheduled and every minute of the time was thoroughly enjoyed by the on-lookers. When the curtain fell on the last act of this, another laughable farce was added to the programme and when the people left the Masonic Hall they expressed themselves as well pleased with the company's efforts. Friday, "Lady Audley's Secret" was given before the largest house during the week and every scene, act and feature of this thrilling play were watched with intense interest mingled with delight. Saturday afternoon a matinee was given, which was largely attended by the children of the town, who were highly amused at the different farces and comical characters as personified. The little ones' hearts were further made glad when leaving the hall by being the recipients of a bag of candy. The last and most ludicrous play of all to conclude the engagement of the company was the well known "Peck's Bad Boy," the presentation of which caused many demonstrations of applause from those present. —Newcastle Advocate.

The above company open at the Opera House this Monday night.

Sir Louis Davies, a few days ago, actually celebrated his 54th birthday, though but for his whitening locks he might be taken for a young fellow in the thirties. And he has been one of the hardest workers in his party and has borne more than his fair share in the debating and committee work of Parliament, as well as outside campaigning. Sir Louis is deskmate of Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the Commons and one of his closest friends. The maritime leader's father is still enjoying a green and robust old age in P. E. Island. —Maritime Truth.

POLICE CHANGES.—Some changes have lately been made on the police force. Sergeant Bradley has been detailed for special service in connection with several laws and bylaws in force in the city which, for some time past, have been violated. Bernard Kiggins has been appointed to do general police duty.

DIED IN NEW YORK.—By a telegram received this morning by Mr. James D. Taylor, we learn of the death of Mr. A. D. Taylor at the Post Graduate Hospital, New York. Death was caused by cancer in the eye. Mr. Taylor was visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Taylor, of this city, last fall, and left here apparently in the best of health and with the intention of going to the Klondike. But while visiting his brother in Newmarket, N. H., the disease which caused his death manifested itself. All that the best medical skill in Boston and New York could do for him was done, but his life could not be saved. His body will be interred beside that of his wife who died some time ago. One little child left behind. To the family and friends of the deceased we extend our sympathy.

A KISSLY ACT.—The Summerside correspondent of the Guardian says: The schooner Speedwell while entering this harbor Saturday morning with a cargo of coal missed her course and grounded on the bar just inside the lighthouse. Cameron, of the Northumberland, while en route for Pt. du Chene, generously handed the schooner a line and towed her into deep water accepting for remuneration only thanks which was generously bestowed.

FORE.—The Pioneer reports that the residence of Mr. Albert Ramsay, of Port Hill, was badly damaged by fire on Wednesday last, which originated from the flue catching fire. The roof was almost completely demolished before the flames could be extinguished. By the prompt and timely assistance of Mr. Ramsay's neighbors the remainder of the building, as well as the furniture, was saved, but the interior of the residence is considerably damaged by water.

GOVEN UP SELLING.—The principal Woodstock, N. B. hotels have given up selling liquor and they will be run on strictly temperance principles. This will be bad news for a number of informers and leasers who were making a living out of the fines paid by hotel men. Commercial men and travellers will now carry their own flasks with them, if they want a drink. Farmers and temperance persons with cramps, or expected cramps, will get their supplies from St. John or outlying districts.—Railway News.

ROCKAWAY.—A livery stable horse ran away on Saturday afternoon, and was not overtaken until it had travelled some seven miles beyond the city limits. It seems that the horse was one that had just been purchased by the livery stable keeper, and was hired out to two strangers. As the team was being driven out of the stable the axle broke, and the wagon upsetting the occupants were thrown to the ground. A few minutes later the horse got clear of the carriage and made for the rural districts, followed by the owner on horseback.
