The Soul.

Did ever on painter's canvas live
  The power of his fancy's dream?
Did ever a poet's pen achieve
  Fruition of his theme?
Did marble ever take the life
  That the sculptor's soul conceived?
Or ambition win in passion's strife
  What its glowing hopes believed?
Did ever racer's eager feet
  Rest as they reached the goal,
Finding the prize achieved was meet
  To satisfy the soul?
—Sir Daniel Wilson.

Common Sense Marriages.

Modern society has welcomed common sense shoes and common sense forms of dress, writes John Lambert Payne in an attempt to solve the question "Why Young Men Defer Marriage" in the Ladies' Home Journal. It would seem that the time is opportune for a widespread outbreak of common sense marriages. At all events, if a change from the present situation is to be affected, three things seem to me necessary: First, there must be a popular knowledge of the facts; second, the people at large must think; and third, there must be action.

In the new Maine town of Rumford Falls, where not even a log hut stood a year ago, a $10,000 residence is building and 700 men are at work upon mills and other structures.

The Telephone Company

—OF—

P. E. ISLAND.

Parties using the Telephones would find talking much more satisfactory if they would observe the following rules:—

1st. Speak with the mouth about four inches from the transmitter.

2nd. Speak in a moderate tone of voice, not too loud, and distinctly.

3rd. Place the telephone so as to cover the ear, just as if you wished to shut out all other sounds. Do not press too hard on the ear.

It is possible to talk and be heard when standing back two or three feet from the transmitter, if you shout loud enough, but it is not a pleasant mode of conversation, is entirely unnecessary, and is a useless waste of wind and lungs, besides being very annoying to all within range of your voice.
