

Campus Comment Confession

We (The Gem staff) request that you (the student population of UPEI), submit ideas on THE topics we (The Gem staff), cover in Campus Comment. We also beg your participation in the actual question answering which is involved in the making of Campus Comment.

We've heard them all....

"No picture"

"I look a mess..... I just couldn't"

"I'll get in to much trouble"

"No way, the Engineers will find where I live and..."

"I don't know what to say"

"No speaka de anglais"

"Can't..... PMS"

"Get lost"

"#@-(("

And frankly after the "begging totals" are tallied, we find that it is a one in nineteen ratio of students, that will graciously participate in the exciting and controversial entertainment of "Campus Comment". This is not enough student response to a harmless little question. All we ask, is a response to our single question and a picture. You don't have to sign over your mother, and her car, (although if your willing, and she drives anything over $25,000, we might strike a deal). Simple cooperation is all we ask. We do it for your entertainment, so, next time your asked for a response please, give something we can publish, and all can enjoy.

So for the excuse people....

"Too bad"

"You always look a mess... yes you could"

"Trouble is just a word that starts with 'T'"

"If you don't, I'll tell them where you live anyway"

"Tete le marde"

"Three weeks of PMS is enough, don't you think"

"Too late"

"Oh Yeah...? Well *#@-&'$CLICK"

Leadership Awards

1. Students eligible for a leadership award must be full-time students who have satisfied the entrance requirements to the University or who have passed at least eight three-semester hour courses in the previous year of study. A student who has enrolled in fewer than eight courses in the previous year will normally be expected to complete all of the courses in which he/she was enrolled.

2. Awards will be given to students who have made, are making, or have demonstrated the potential for making a significant leadership contribution to University life.

3. An Award may be given to a student participating in University athletic activities but only if the student demonstrates significant leadership ability through his/her participation.

4. Nominations for awards may be made by students, faculty or staff of the University.

5. Recipients for the awards will be chosen by a committee appointed by the President of the University.

Please send letters of nomination to:

Mike Read

Do You Have An Instrument?

We are looking for talented, semi talented and untalented but enthusiastic people to create excitement and some sort of music at sporting events. Our teams may have the opportunity to play in the new field house and the hockey team moves to the new (warn) rink this semester sporting events provide an exciting alternative to the monotonous weekends. Calenders can be picked up at the Student Union, Bookstore, info desk, watch for special events connected with upcoming sporting events. Again if you are willing to play any kind of an instrument at our athletic games give us a call 566-0670.

In Search of the Green

By

Laurie Murphy

The next few months will be rough ones financially for most of us. It can get gloomy at times. Often small annoyances can blow up into very big problems. If you find yourself in hot water, or if you anticipate financial problems, then I am available to help you sort it all out. Sometimes just telling another person is enough to see the mess clearly yourself. Also, if you need information on busary appeals, then I've got numerous files or I can advise you in a personal, and confidential atmosphere. Simply drop by Student Services. My offices hours are M,W,F - 1:30-4:30.

Many of you have applied to some of the current awards like the Merit Meed Awards, the Bernardine Hall Bursary, the Terry Fox Humanitarian Award Programme, or the Part-Time Student Bursaries. There are more, and most of them are decided by, or referred by, committees made up of people just like yourselves. My point is to help alleviate any undue apprehension that I know some of you experience when filling out any of the required applications. These committees are made up of UPEI Faculty, Students, and Staff who participate (voluntarily) because of their own commitment to our university. My advice is to apply, and to do so with confidence in the possibility of winning.

Remember the Search for the Green begins with you.

Debating Society

The UPEI Debating Society met last Wednesday and debated, "all animals should be tethered." The government was formed by Peter Foley and Jason Corsi (the Prime Minister) and the opposition was composed of Valerie George-Heustis and Bob Smith. After a spirited debate, some constructive criticism from Judge David Sims and Speaker Brian Pirkey helped our debaters to improve their style and content. The Debating Society is preparing to send a team to the McGill University in Montreal the first weekend of February to compete and represent UPEI in the McGill Invitational Tournament. Good Luck!

If you're interested in learning how to debate and do public speaking, you are invited to check out our next meeting, which will be held Wednesday at 3:30 in Main 311. Everyone interested is welcome. If you can't make it at that time call Bob Smith at 892-1646.

Our staff of educated professionals are pleased to do their utmost for you.
