IN MEMORIAM

HUGH AND FRANCIS MOAN

The relatives and many friends of Hugh Moan, aged 80 years, and Francis Moan of Kinkora Parish, were shocked and deeply grieved on learning of their untimely death which occurred at an early hour on Tuesday, December 23rd. A fire starting upstairs, presumably from a defective flue, had gained such headway that rescuers were unable to reach them while living.

Their parish priest was at once notified and Rev. Father Shea administered the last rites to them. Their remains were transferred to Mr. Monaghan's funeral parlour and from there, their funeral was held and Requiem Mass said for their souls.

The pallbearers, life-long friends of the deceased, were Joseph Hughes, Aeneas Hughes, Emmett Trainor, Everett McCarville, Alfred Kelly, and G. R. McKenna.

Left to mourn and cherish the memory of loving brothers are three sisters (Ida) Mrs. Thomas DesRoches, Saint John; Margaret and Minnie, Summerside. Three brothers predeceased them, Michael, Patrick, and John H. May their souls rest in peace.

"HONG KONG" AT CAPITOL, SUMMERSIDE

—Paramount's "Hong Kong", a topical drama laid in the wartorn China of today, will open today at the Capitol Theatre, Summerside. Filmed in colour by Technicolor, this William Pine-William Thomas production stars Ronald Reagan and Rhonda Fleming, and introduces a sensational Chinese boy, four-year-old Danny Chang.

With some of the footage actually shot in Hong Kong, the fast-paced drama uses the unique color of the Orient's most exciting city as a backdrop for the story of an American adventurer roaming the East in search of a fast, and not necessarily honest, dollar. He almost accomplishes this when he gets his hands on a priceless jeweled idol. But in a short time the
