"MESSENGER BOY" AT MOOSEFATH.—The St. John News says of Mr. S. W. Radd's stallion "Messenger Boy": "Messenger Boy" is the wildest horse ever seen in a sulky on this track. One night last month he went down to the Lyceum Theatre in a hansom, and as he alighted he handed the cabby his exact fare—one shilling, omitting the customary gratuity of thruppence or sixpence. The cabby very solemnly took the coin, looked at it cross-eyed, and said:—"Beg pardon, Mister Irving, but do you play Shylock?" "Why, faw!" asked Irving in his sub-cellar voice. "Cause, sir," said the cabby, "if you're as good a Jew hon the stage has you har haff, you must be a great hacter." And the cabby rolled away.
