

Address.

The following address was presented to Rev. C. C. Burgess, by the North River Baptist Church, on his resignation of the Pastorate, to remove to Hopewell, N. B., July 26th, 1882:—

REV. AND DEAR SIR,—As duty now calls you to resign the Pastorate of the North River Church, we wish to express the regret we feel that a connection, which has been so filled with true pleasure to us, and which has proved so advantageous to the cause of religion here, should thus suddenly terminate.

During your charge of this Church seventy-two have been added to the ranks of Christ's disciples; and, under the blessing of God, the active strength and efficiency of the Church for the Master's work have been eminently increased.

Your urgent, faithful appeals will long be remembered in this community, and your kind, brotherly admonitions will still breathe like balm to our remembering hearts when you are far away.

In you we felt that we had a true brother, one who sympathized with our joys and sorrows; and yet whose devoted heart forever strove to upward lead our souls where true joys alone are found.

We deeply appreciate the interest which you have taken in all the institutions connected with the Church. Our Sabbath School felt your encouragement; the Prayer Meeting was ever animated by your earnest spirit; and the "Service of Song" owes much of its culture and excellence to the assistance which you afforded.

We have also realized that your able expositions of our denominational tenets and principles have done much for the confirmation of truth in our midst.

We part, Dear Brother, but rest assured that the recollection of you and your beloved partner will ever remain with us, as the sweet fragrance of memory's fairest blossoms; and that our hearts' best wishes and most fervent pleadings at a Father's throne will be for your welfare, wherever you may be called to renewed and faithful labors for the Redeemer's cause.

Signed in behalf of the Church. DEA. JAMES WARREN, DEA. A. MCKINLAY, CHAS. WARREN, JACOB BAIN, ALLAN McPHEE, JOHN MCKINLAY, WILLIAM WARREN, CHAS. DOCKENDORFF, WILLIAM CEMMINGS, DONALD SCOTT, DANIEL HOWARD, JAMES DOCKENDORFF, ROBINSON WARREN, FRANCIS BAIN.

REPLY.

BELOVED BRETHREN,—It affords me much pleasure to know that my labor among you has proved both agreeable and advantageous. Of this I have been forcibly reminded, not only by your kind and loving address, but in your words of encouragement and deeds of benevolence throughout my ministry in this place. Gratitude to Almighty God fills my heart, that it ever was my privilege to labor where talent and devotion to the work of Jesus Christ were so evident. The success which has attended my ministry has, under the blessing of God, been largely due to the faithfulness with which you have upheld the pastor's hands.

My aim has been to lead the flock of God into the green pastures of eternal truth, and by that truth to arrest the careless.

The tenets and principles to which you refer are dear to me, because taught by the Word of God; and it has been very satisfactory to know that to you they are precious.

The days of my ministry have been of happiness—deep and never to be forgotten. I shall cherish the fondest recollections of the church, and in me you shall still have a brother whose love will never cease in time for you.

I thank you for the interest you have taken in me, and for the assurance that at the throne of heavenly mercy I shall still be remembered. In you I shall feel an undying interest, and it will always be a source of comfort to hear of your prosperity.

I also thank you for your kindly reference to Mrs. Burgess, who joins me in the prayer that God will always lift upon you the light of his countenance, and at last that we may all enter upon the long, sweet rest of heaven.

Yours sincerely,

C. C. BURGESS.
