You don't want soap or soda, or the common washing powder any more, when you use the Lessive Phenix. Every woman who has used it—and their names is legion in France, England and Canada—say it is the greatest household blessing. For it washes and cleans everything, from the costly dress goods to the common tinware dish. The misery of the wash is gone. No more chapped hands. Hard water becomes soft. Just think—Lessive Phenix is so comprehensive in its work that it makes all kinds of white-clothing like snow, but it will make dirty zinc to shine again! Ask your grocer.

The Commission at Work.

WHERE THE MONEY WENT.

QUEBEC, Jan. 19. The Royal Commission commenced hearing evidence yesterday in the numerous charges of booting laid against Mercier government. M at of the evidence taken in the morning was that of government officials, but things brightened up when the cashier of the Union Bank took the stand, and some startling revelations were made. His evidence went to show that of the $56,000 obtained from the treasury under false pretences, $24,000 went to Pascaud, and $25,000 to Premier Mercier.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.

The public temperance meeting held in McLeod's Hall last evening under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. was very well attended. S. F. Hodgson, Esq., presided. After singing, prayer and Scripture reading, the Rev. J. A. Gordon, pastor of the Baptist Church, came forward and delivered an address on "The Duty of the Hour." He referred to the great importance of the temperance question, and to the necessity there was for electing good and capable men as our representatives. He strongly urged every elector to vote as he prayed, and if this were done he thought the best men would be placed at the head of affairs. Rev. Mr. Brewer followed, endorsing the remarks of Rev. Mr. Gordon and reminding voters of their great responsibility in the forthcoming election. After solos by Mrs. Ritchie and Miss Davidson, the meeting was brought to a close by singing "Praise God from whom all blessings flow."

A Successful Congregation.

The annual meeting of St. James Church was held last evening, J. W. Morrison, Esq., in the chair. The various statements submitted to the congregation showed a total of $4,800 raised during the past year. $845 were contributed to the Mission Schemes of the Presbyterian Church, $768 to other religious and benevolent objects, while the Sabbath collections amounted to $2,500. The trustees were able to meet all liabilities and show a small balance on hand. A statement of the debt was submitted, showing that in 1886 the bonded debt was $10,100. Since that date there have been expended on what may be called capital account, about $3,000. On the first of next February, after covering this outlay of $3,000 and providing meantime for the ordinary running expenses of the congregation, the total debt will be $7,200. During this period, i. e., from 1886 to 1891, inclusive, the congregation raised a little over $30,000, out of which they gave over $5,000 to the mission schemes of the Presbyterian Church, and over $3,000 to other religious and benevolent objects.

The Lecture Last Night.

The Rev. Father Gillis lectured in St. Patrick's Hall last night, under the auspices of the League of the Cross, to a large and attentive audience. His subject was "A Trip from the Atlantic to the Pacific and Back." Rev. Father McAulay occupied the chair. The lecturer described his trip on the Canadian Pacific Railway across the continent to British Columbia, dwelling on the various points of interest on the route. His description of the scenery of the Rocky Mountains was grand, and was fully appreciated by the audience, who paid the greatest attention to all that he said. He gave a short account of many of the cities which he visited, and told of many Islanders he met, all of whom were prospering and many of whom were wealthy. He advised the young men to stay at home, if possible; but if they were bound to leave the island, there was no better place for them than the Canadian North-west. At the close, a hearty vote of thanks to the lecturer was moved by Judge Reddin and seconded by Mr. P. F. Dwyer.
