Father McKenna, P.P., here states he has received a number of good donations from people living away from here for the new cemetery fund. This fund was started to bring the two burial places back from their unkept state to be a picture and an example for others. A letter written by Archbishop Sinnott asking for donations to this fund was sent out to scores of people with relatives dear to them resting here and many nice donations were received headed by one from Archbishop Sinnott, of Winnipeg, whose father and mother are buried here. But sad to say many of the letters were ignored by those who were in a position to donate to this worthy fund.
