

Lost flesh lately?
Does your brain tire?
Losing control over your nerves?
 Are your muscles becoming exhausted?
 You certainly know the remedy. It is nothing new; just the same remedy that has been curing these cases of thinness and paleness for twenty-five years. Scott's Emulsion. The cod-liver oil in it is the food that makes the flesh, and the hypophosphites give tone to the nerves.

FOR THE WOMEN

Idle Discontent.
 A young wife stood with her hand on her broom,
 And looked all around her dull little room.
 "Nothing but toil forever," she said,
 "From early morn till the light has fled.
 If you were only a merchant now,
 We need not live by the sweat of our brow."
 Pegging away spoke shoemaker John
 "We ne'er see well what we're standing on."

A lady stood by her husband's chair,
 And quietly passed her hand o'er his hair.
 "You never have time for me now she said,
 And a teardrop fell on her low tent head.
 "If we were only rich my dear,
 With nothing to do from year to year
 But amuse each other—oh, dear me!
 What a happy woman I should be."
 Looking up from his ledger, spoke merchant John.
 "We ne'er see well what we're standing on."

A stately form in velvet dressed,
 A diamond gleaming on her breast.
 "Nothing but toil for fashion," she said,
 "Till I sometimes wish that I were dead.
 If I might but cast this wealth aside,
 And be once again the poor man's bride!"
 From his easy chair spoke gentleman John,
 "We ne'er see well what we're standing on."

Wrinkles.
 Wrinkles are caused naturally by age, by the gradual absorption of the little cushion of fat under the skin. They are caused prematurely by loss of sleep, by worry, by ill nature, by the very ugly contortions of the features which so many people indulge in while talking. Look in your mirror, laugh violently, scowl, etc., and see where the wrinkles form. If women would only learn to let their words express their meanings instead of aiding them by tying their brows, eyes and mouth into knots, if they would put expression into their eyes instead of vainly trying to make expressions out of lines about the eyes, if they would laugh lightly and pleasantly instead of with the loud guffaw "that speaks the vacant mind," if they would not scold or fret and would sleep enough, they could escape wrinkles, which may be "honorable," but surely are not attractive, for years longer than they now do.
 Wrinkles can be helped by feeding the skin. They can be removed by skin specialists, who take off the skin of the face and charge goodly sums for doing so. They can be prevented to a large extent by judicious care of the skin. Prevention is easier and cheaper than cure.—Gentlewoman.

The Old Time "Help."
 There are some of the "old things" that we should be glad to welcome again into the life of those "modern" high pressure times. In some instances it may not be possible to do so. But who can recall without a feeling of actual loss the disappearance of the old time servant girl? She was never spoken of or thought of as a servant, but her familiar title was the "help"—and never truer name was given. As a writer has well remarked: She is gone. She belonged to the past and was a feature of it. She remained often for years with the same family, and their interests were hers also. Very often the old time servant girls married the sons of the families they served. In many cases these were farmer's sons. She was often a farmer's daughter herself who, not being needed at home, did not think she lowered her dignity by serving the family of some neighbor, although her father was well to do. She was deft handed, being taught from earliest childhood to be helpful and industrious. When not engaged in active housework, she was to be found beside her wheel, instead of on the street, or busy with her patchwork. She was modest and honest and treated those she served with respect.—Good Housekeeping.

All baths should be of short duration. No bath unless for some special reason, need last longer than ten minutes. In cases of insomnia, the hot bath has been known to produce sleep when nothing else would. It should be taken very quietly, and with as little effort as possible, and the bather should remain in the water just long enough to get the body heated.—Ex.

MR. HOUSE OF BERLIN
Pills.

Cured of Lumbago by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

BERLIN, Feb. 13.—Everyone in Berlin knows Andrew House. He is a respected and prosperous resident, who numbers his friends by hundreds.
 For over a year past, Mr. House was tormented by severe pains in his back, which increased in severity in spite of doctors and their medicines.
 He was advised to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. He did so. That night he felt less pain. Daily the pains abated, and in less than two weeks, Dodd's Kidney Pills had cured him thoroughly.
 There is only one sure and unfailing cure for Back-ache. That cure is Dodd's Kidney Pills. Experience has provided this thousands of times.
