Anglican Vicar Says Atomic War Would Do Good

MARTHALL, England (Reuters)—Rev. Philip Francis, sincerely believed that what this world needs is an atomic war.
 "Yes, it would be the best thing that could happen," the 55-year-old Anglican vicar told reporters who besieged him with questions Sunday night about a provocative article he wrote in his parish magazine.
 In the article he said: "We need not bother two pence about the dire warnings of eminent people who hate changing from the gunpowder age to the atomic age." And he went on to assert that "an atomic war would do the world good."
 "An atomic war will come," he said. "Nothing can stop it. It is the only thing which could clear away present evils, and bring about world government."
 Asked about the death and suffering nuclear warfare would wreak upon mankind, the vicar said: "There is a law controlling the place where devastation shall fall. We shall just have to trust in God."

OPEN NEW HOSPITAL

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Richard Cahill, who passed away August 16, 1955.
 Sweet are the memories that never fade,
 Of one we loved, but could not save;
 Always so true, unselfish and kind
 Few in the world her equal, u'll find.
 Beautiful life that came to an end,
 She died as she lived, everyone's friend.
 Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by her family.
 In fond memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Michael McCaughey died August 16, 1941.
 Time glides along with its many changes
 Leaving joys and sorrows, smiles and tears
 Sacred memories of you will linger
 With the passing of the years.
 Bless'd hope our Saviour has given,
 In our sorrow to cheer and sustain.
 Oh! the glory that waits us in Heaven
 When we meet with our loved ones again.
 Your sons and daughters.
 In loving memory of my dear husband Bruce Somers, Breadalbane, who passed away Aug. 23, 1946.
 Some sweet day we'll meet again
 Beyond the veil and strife,
 And clasp each other's hand once more
 In Heaven, that happy life.
 Always remembered by his wife.

Minister Dies From Snake Bite

FORT PAYNE, Ala. (AP)—A minister died Sunday from a rattlesnake bite suffered while conducting services at the Old Straight Creek Holiness church Saturday night.
 Spurring medical aid during a night of agony, Rev. Lee Valentine, 50, of Pineville, Ky., died about 10 hours after he was bitten behind the left ear.
 Sheriff V. R. Evans said he planned an immediate investigation. Snake handling, he added, is in violation of Alabama law.
 Valentine and two other Kentucky preachers had been leading a revival at the rural church for several days. It was reported that snakes had been handled on several occasions before Valentine brought the rattler out of his cage and wrapped it around his neck and head.

"POINT" BLANKETS
 3 1/2 Point and 4 Point

Here are interesting facts about Hudson Bay "Point" blankets which dates back to the year 1779. Indian natives traded furs for goods and for a 3 1/2 Point blanket they would trade three large beaver and one small beaver skin and 4 large beaver skins for a four point blanket. Today "Points" denotes the size of the blankets.

3 1/2 Point — 63" x 81" — Per Pr. . . 41.50
 4 Point 72 x 90 — Per Pr. . . . . 49.50

All 100% Pure Wool
