WESTERN GUARDIAN

—POULTRY—Buying Live Fowl, Chicken and Capons daily, Except Saturday. Fred Wadman, Kensington, P. E. I.

—DR. MORESIDE will be absent from his offices in Bedeque and Borden from November 22nd to November 27th, inclusive.

—CLERGYMAN MAKES VISIT—Reverend John Murchison, formerly pastor of Kier Memorial Church, Malpeque, was a recent visitor to his former parish and friends in Malpeque, Kensington and Long River. Mr. Murchison is at present residing in Charlottetown. He also with Mrs. Murchison was a guest of his brother-in-law, Allan Campbell of Long River. The Rev. Mr. Murchison, during his pastorate in Malpeque was a very popular man with all classes and creeds, he radiated sympathy and understanding to all, bias to none. Many people have fond recollections of basking in the effulgence of his benign and unaffected smile.—K.

—NOTICE OF MEETING—An important meeting of all Farmers, Shippers and others interested will be held in the King George Hall, Kensington, at 2 P. M. Friday, November 24th, to consider ways and means of installing a scale to weigh live stock at the new C. N. S. Stock pen in Kensington. This pen is now completed and up to the present the railway refuses to put in a scale. A full attendance is needed at this meeting to discuss and deal with this urgent matter. This meeting is sponsored by the P. E. I. Federation of Agriculture and will start promptly on time. If day very stormy and roads impassable meeting will be held on following day. Louis J. Connor, President.
