DUBLIN, Oct. 15.

Now that the Government has begun the suppression of the League, that body seems doomed. All the usual meetings announced for Sunday are proclaimed. "Boycotting" is declared illegal by special proclamation, and all who practice it are threatened with arrest. It is stated the League rooms and property are to be seized to-day.

Mr. Sexton, M. P., was arrested yesterday afternoon at his lodgings. Mr. Sexton was ill in bed, from which he had risen the night before to attend the League meeting. He refused to ask any consideration on account of his health, although Supt. Mallon offered to refer the matter to his superiors if Sexton thought the removal would endanger his health. He dressed and immediately was taken to Kilmainham in a cab.

The charge against him is the same as against Parnell.

LONDON, Oct. 15.

A telegram from Carlisle announces the arrival there of Arthur O'Connor. O'Connor and Healy will take charge of the Land League interests in London. Large reinforcements of police and military are going to Limerick.

The Dublin League executive have decided on a general strike against paying any rent whatever. It is important phase of the arrests that all of the later ones are made on warrants charging treason.

It is belived that a certain, not an unimportant member, of the League, now in Kilmainham jail, has divulged all the workings of the organization. It is on this information that treasonable practices are charged. The informer is the man who was previously suspected of speculating with the League funds. Parnell was rigidly investigating this matter when he was arrested.

LONDON, Oct. 16.

The meeting of Democrats at Clarkenwell Green, on Sunday, was rather riotous. Several free fights occurred. Gladstone was strongly denounced. Parnell's sympathisers endeavored to lynch the gentleman who moved an amendment. Caricatures of the Cabinet Ministers were burned.

LONDON, Oct. 15.

Andrew and Patrick Gallagher, secretaries of Bally Buttes and Killinane Leagues, respectively, have been arrested on suspicion of shooting at a cart in Maryborough when six persons were wounded.

DUBLIN, Oct. 16.

A mob here attacked the Congregational Church on York street and smashed the windows. The service was stopped and the congregation dispersed.

DUBLIN, Oct. 15.

General quiet prevails here this evening. Disorders are exceptional.

Sir Thomas Street, commander of the forces, received telegrams to-night, reporting all parts of Ireland quiet.

LONDON, Oct. 16.

On Saturday night the police frequently charged crowds of people on Castle Bridge and in Sackville street, Dublin. The mob shouted "To h— with buckshot," and cheered Dilion, Parnell and other leaders of the League. Many persons were seriously injured.

The population of Liverpool is in a state of great ferment. All the officers of regiments quartered in Ireland have been ordered to return to duty immediately.

LONDON, Oct. 16.

At meetings held to-day, at Grong, Enniskillishen and Kittishen it was resolved to pay no rents until Parnell was released.

LIMERICK, Oct. 16.

In attempting to disperse a meetiug here to-day the troops charged the mob. The latter closed with the soldiers who were ordered to load. The soldiers charged several times, but subsequently entered their barracks. The Scots Greys and police afterwards charged the mob down George street, causing it to flee in all directions. The police in Denmark street fired upon the mob and several persons were wounded and twenty arrests made. Numerous houses were wrecked.

After the riot the Clubhouze was attacked; windows were smashed and street lamps extinguished.

A man named Casey who was wounded in the abdomen by a bullet, during the rioting today, is dying.

LONDON, Oct. 15.

Arthur O'Connor, M. P., has been arrested.

DUBLIN, Oct. 15.

Mr. Healy, M. P., for whom a warrant is out, has been intercepted by special messenger at Holyhead.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.

A reception was tendered by the Irish citizens to-night, in Steinway Hall, to T. P. O'Connor, M. P., and delegates to the Land League of America. There was an immense attendance. P. A. Collins, president of the American Land League, presided. Mr. O'Connor addressed the meeting. He said it was true they had imprisoned Parnell, their leader and advocate. A man who had entered into the fight, though a landlord himself, for the simple purpose of seeing justice done an oppressed people. It is true that he is imprisoned, but the British Government if they wish to confine every leader and supporter of the movemennt would need every jail in the world, and would not then have room enough in which to confine thair prisoners. Neither could the present action of the Government stamp out the strong feeling that emanated from the hearts of old Ireland's sons. And the movement was even strong enough to defy all the power and authority of England itself. Addresses were also made by Messrs. Dillon, Eagan, and Mrs. Parnell.

UNITED STATES.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.

The wires in England are still down and communication with London is slow and uncertain. There is only one direct wire from Valencia to London, and most of the land wires connecting with the cables between England and the Continent are broken. It will take considerable time to repair; meantime messages for transmission are accumulating.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.

Capt. Edward P. McRae, U. S. Navy, commanding the flagship Tennessee, died suddenly yesterday on the U. S. steamer Despatch, while making an official call upon Admiral Porter.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 15

The sculling match between Trickett and Plaisted for $500 a side, three miles with turn, which came off this afternoon on Chevecoen Lake, near this city, was won by Trickett by a little less than a length. Time 20½ minutes.

YORKTOWN, Oct. 16.

Religious services were held in the Pavilion, conducted by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Keane, of the Catholic Diocese of Virginia, assisted by Archbishop Gibbons, of Maryland, and in the afternoon by Rev. John Hall, of New York. The meetings were largely attended.

We Want an Agricultural College.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—I am one of the many, who have been greatly delighted with the success of the late Exhibition at Charlottetown, the ample and complete accommodation for the live stock of all kinds, and the provision made for the general comfort of the Exhibitors, the superior quality of every article exhibited, and the spirit of enterprise which seems to pervade the whole farming population.

Our recent success at Halifax and Montreal, seems to have imparted a healthful stimulus to the agricultural interests of this Province. As our Island is a thoroughly agricultural country, and will continue to be so, it is high time that our youth, and those who are not above learning a little more, should commence to qualify themselves both in the theory and practice of agriculture in its broadest accepted meaning. Every young farmer ought to be as well acquainted with the chemical qualities of manures, and their applicability to the proper soils, as he is with the letters of the alphabet, the rotations of crops, their adaptation to soils, etc. He should be well acquainted with the frame of the horse, and the structure of his foot—how he should be used, fed, and shod, as well as the Blacksmith; he should well understand the breeding and raising of all kinds of stock, and the mysteries of the farm yard, in short to be competent to rescue his stock from the hands of those who call themselves Veterinary Surgeons.

All this can only be satisfactorily acquired by a course of study and lectures, but much more efficiently by a course of attendance at a practical Agricultural College.

Near the city of Guelph, in Upper Canada, there is a College of this description. It is well supported, and has been productive of much benefit to the country, and to the numerous students who attend it. A young friend of the writer having decided to adopt farming as his profession, went through a course of study at that College—went into it with heart and soul, theoretically and practically, and became master of every department belonging to a farm. He graduated, and when he left, was complimented by the Principal for his proficiency in his studies, who handed him a handsome donation for his general usefulness on the farm! The same young man is now proprietor of a tract of the finest wheat land in Manitoba; and in a short time will be as independent as any aristocrat on this continent.

What we want is a source of reliable information in our great provincial pursuit, that our farmers old and young may follow it up with both credit and profit to themselves. My object in sending these few lines is to call the attention of our agricultural Society to the subject, and to solicit the influence and patronage of the Government.

I would suggest that in the approaching winter, a course of agricultural lectures be delivered in this city by a lecturer, whose heart is in the science, who will deal out valuable hints to our farmers on their life-long profession, and be a powerful means of raising the progressive character of our Province, and show to many of our farmers how little they really understand.

We have shown our neighbors what we can do, and how we have done it; and now there is nothing to prevent them from following our footsteps, or very possibly showing us its way to follow theirs! In one word, let us make a beginning, and that in the right direction. We have many advantages in our favor, and the excellent Stock Farm will be a practical appendage to our College.

Truly yours,

AGRICULTOR.
