

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THE HEADQUARTERS OF THE CENTRAL COMMITTEE in the interests of Mr. POPE, is the Market Hall, Charlottetown. The Hall is open every day and evening...

A READING ROOM will, it is hoped, soon be established in Georgetown. WHERE HE WAS BORN.—It was at Pownal that Mr. Welsh said he was "born in Lot 43," etc.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.—To-morrow will witness the election of a President of the United States. A BRANCH BANK for Alberton is one of the suggestions of our lively contemporary—the Pioneer.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.—Our friends throughout the country will greatly oblige by prompt remittances of the amounts of their subscriptions through the Post Office. REV. THEOPHILUS RICHY has been appointed Rector of St. E. de la Croix, P. E. I., in place of Rev. T. B. McLean, who succeeds Rev. J. R. Campbell, in the Curacy of Yarmouth.

ACCIDENT.—One of the Brakesmen of our Railway was severely injured while coupling cars at Hunter's River on Wednesday last. His life was, we understand, endangered for "economy's sake."

ACCEPTED THE CALL.—We regret to learn that the Rev. Thomas Dunham has accepted the call of St. Andrew's Church in Halifax. Mr. Dunham has long been one of our most popular and influential clergymen.

A FRANK AVOWAL.—Mr. Welsh frankly admitted at Pownal that he felt he was not as good a man to represent Belfast at the Council Board as Mr. Robertson. Is he then as good a man to represent the whole of Queen's County in the Commons as Mr. Pope?

A HALOUSIAN KNIGHT.—The English mail brought the announcement that Mr. Henry Schofield, her Majesty's Consul at Guatemala, has received the honor of Knighthood. Mr. Schofield is a native of London, but was for a long time a resident of Halifax.

FAREWELL SERMON.—On Sunday evening last Rev. T. B. McLean preached his farewell sermon in St. Mary's Episcopal Church. The sermon is spoken of as an eloquent and instructive effort. The Episcopal Church found in Mr. McLean an able and faithful worker, and his many friends in Summerside and St. Eleanor's regret very much his departure from their midst.—Journal.

ACCIDENT ON THE RAILWAY.—A boy named McDonald, better known as "Santa Claus," who was hanging on the platform of the last car of a train, which was coming pretty rapidly off the Railway Wharf, on Friday evening, got seriously hurt. He was swinging himself backward and forward to show his smartness, and, while in the act of swinging forward, the car came in contact with him from the platform and parting three of his ribs from his breast bone. He is recovering slowly. This should be a sufficient warning to other boys again to playing around moving trains.—Summerside Journal.

THE ETHERAL FITNESS OF THINGS.—The Toronto Mail remarks that "M. Laflamme is certainly the man who ought to get the portfolio, and we are not surprised to learn that the first offer was made to him. He is Mr. Huntington's partner, and may be supposed to have had intimate association with that highly respected and respectable gentleman in his Copper Mine speculations. But even were he free of complicity in those memorable transactions, the prominent part which he took in the Lachine canal job would amply qualify him for a seat in the Cabinet. Mr. Mackenzie paid a just tribute to the eternal fitness of things when he sent his firstmissive to the membership for Jacques Cartier."

In the speech from the Throne the Emperor of Germany said his constant endeavor was to preserve peace on earth, and that Germany would go to war only for the protection of her own honor and interests. A general war in Europe appears to have been averted for the present—only perhaps to give the aggressive powers time to make better preparation for the struggle that must eventually ensue. In the meantime, secretly and openly, the manufacture of new means for the destruction of human life will go on in the work-shops of those Christian nations. So that when the crash comes it will probably be more terrific than any that the world has ever seen—and all for the name of religion.

A Belgrade despatch says Tchernayeff's army, after a crushing defeat, being cut in two and completely demoralized, was driven from Djunis on Sunday. News of this defeat produced quite a panic in Belgrade. Reports as to the armistice negotiations are still indefinite. The Porte is now said to have accepted a two months' armistice, with two successive extensions, if needful, of six weeks each. Prince Milan is, moreover, also reported to have telegraphed to Livadia, for Russia to give a six weeks' armistice and for Kossig, in view of the fact that the satisfactory settlement of terms within that period. M. Ristic is at Deligrado, duly empowered to make terms either for peace or armistice, but how long he will remain there is doubtful, as the Turks are shelling the town from Djunis, compelling the Servians to retire to safer quarters.

It is stated that Mr. Geoffrion's chief reason for sending a letter of resignation to the Premier was in consequence of a misunderstanding between the former and Messrs. Mackenzie and Scott. Mr. Laflamme, it is further said, has already refused the portfolio, but will visit Ottawa soon to confer with the Government. He desires a Judgeship. Should he refuse to enter the Cabinet the choice will rest between Messrs. Pelletier and Laurier, probably the former, if sectional considerations are to prevail.

GRAND MILITIA PARADE!

To the Editor of the Examiner. DEAR SIR.—My patriotic soul was fired to its utmost depths by the display of military splendour on Monday last. A muster of the forces was held at Rochford Square, where all the pomp and circumstance of glorious war were carried out on a gigantic scale. Field officers, including Brigadier Generals, Orderlies, Colonels, Majors, and the Rank and File, were there. A distinguished and brilliant assemblage of spectators also adorned the scene. All religions, sexes and colors, were present. The golden-haired Anglo-Saxon and the spartan inhabitant of the b—no, Rochford Square—greatly pressed forward to witness the great military pageant. Flat and Popeye were there. Dusky damsels of different shades, in graceful attitudes, gazed admiringly on the many forms on which many of them had so often gazed rapturously before. After a variety of evolutions, which were performed to the extreme satisfaction of the field officers and spectators, the men were arranged in line; and the illustrious head warrior addressed them something as follows:—

"Fellow-soldiers and compatriots! Your proficiency in drill and soldierly bearing to-day has convinced me that when your country is in danger you will be in danger. And, indeed, it is in danger! The great military movements that have been going on throughout the Island for the past few months have not been without a purpose. It is quite untrue, however, of the rumored fight of the Indians under Joe Louis. Of this I am assured on the authority of T. S. So the intended occupation of Rocky Point will be abandoned—also the projected siege of Lennox Island. A far greater task awaits us—the support of the British Empire. The European Question is now the question of the day. All Europe is looking towards us. Our decision will be seen at once. Shall we see our Fatherland dismembered when we can save it?"

The enthusiasm was tremendous. They all swore that they were anxious to wade in the gore of their country's enemies at a moment's notice. The order then being given to march, they proceeded up Queen Street, accompanied by the war-inspiring strains of Gall-trait's Band. After marching a distance along the street, a number debouched off to the Major's, where they were regaled with solids and liquids. The remainder continued their march; but, suddenly when having arrived about opposite the Farmer's Arms the order was given, "Right wheel!" Symptoms of insubordination here appeared among a few; but discipline triumphed. The last I saw of them was their disappearance down an alley-way.

I regret that age and decrepitude has incapacitated me from mingling in the coming strife personally, but I shall watch the results of the course taken by the army with intense interest, involving, as it may, the destinies of the world. CITIZEN. Ch'town, Oct. 4, 1876.

The negotiations on the Eastern question are progressing more favorably, and there are strong hopes now of a satisfactory termination at last on the armistice point. Russia has already consented to a prolongation of the term to a second six weeks, which Germany has endorsed, advising other powers to do likewise. The liberal press of Germany has been expressing very decided opinions against the conduct of the Turkish reforms being under Russian supervision, and urging that England should undertake their direction. Austria has reiterated her policy of peace. The state of affairs in Serbia, though no actual fighting has taken place within the past few days, is anything but encouraging. A serious crisis has appeared in the Cabinet, caused by the resignation of the War Minister, and the troops in the field are suffering the most severe privations; out of this is reported to have grown another appeal to the powers for their intervention in behalf of peace, though contradicted by a latter telegram.

Lot of Blankets, SLIGHTLY DAMAGED IN THE MAKING, BUT UNBROKEN UNDER VALUE AT THE LONDON HOUSE. Oct. 9, 1876.—1m

To the Electors of Queen's Co.

GENTLEMEN.—You will soon be called upon to elect a Representative to fill the vacant seat in the Dominion House of Commons, caused by the acceptance by your late member, the Hon. David Laird, of the Governorship of Keewatin. And having been requested by many influential Electors, from various parts of the County, to offer myself as a candidate, I have consented to do so, and now beg to solicit your suffrages.

When Mr. Laird and his associates agreed to support Mr. Mackenzie, it was on the distinct understanding that Prince Edward Island should have a seat in the Cabinet. That seat has been given to Ontario, and this Province is now deprived of it. In this our people have been most unjustly treated. If returned I will endeavor to re-establish that legitimate influence in the Councils of the Dominion, to which this Province, from its number, wealth and intelligence of its people is unquestionably entitled, and I will not support any Administration which will refuse to Prince Edward Island a voice in the Councils of the Country.

You will hear much about Free Trade versus Protection. I am a Free Trader on the broad principle, and will render my best assistance in endeavoring to establish reciprocal Free Trade with the United States, which would do much to promote the best interests of this agricultural country. Our Island Railway has not been productive of that general benefit to us which I intended it should be. In my opinion, it is entirely owing to the present management. I would endeavor to see its necessary expenditure to be reduced. A Tariff as would make of more extended advantage to all classes.

I claim for this Province a fair participation in the expenditure of the public means for the opening up of more extended communication with such portions of the colony as are now destitute of the necessary facilities for the transit of its productions, and for such other objects of public improvement as will conduce to the furtherance of its best interests.

With reference to matters of General Policy, my best endeavors shall be at all times to be directed to the development of the vast resources of our Great Dominion, and to have the honor to be, Your Obedt. Serv't, JAMES C. POPE. October 30, 1876.

To the Electors of Queen's Co. GENTLEMEN.—The appointment of the Hon. David Laird as the Lieutenant Governor of the North-West Territories having caused a vacancy in the Dominion House of Commons, which you will shortly be called upon to fill, I have been solicited by a great number of electors from different parts of the County, to offer myself as a candidate, and I take this early opportunity of informing you of my determination to do so, and of soliciting your support.

The general policy of the McKenzie Administration, based, as I believe it to be, upon principles of honesty and justice, meets with my cordial approval. I recognize in that policy a determination to govern this great Dominion on sound political and constitutional principles—a course which necessarily avoids the demoralizing effects which invariably follow from collision between Governments and wealthy contractors or speculators.

I am a free trader, and I am glad to know that free trade is a plank of the McKenzie platform. To us in these Maritime Provinces the scheme of Protection cautiously advanced by John A. Macdonald during the last session of the House of Commons, and now so earnestly advocated by him in his public speeches, is merely a scheme to protect a certain amount of money from the pockets of the farmers and other consumers, and hand it over to the manufacturers. It is unjust in the extreme, and will bear with peculiar hardship upon the people of this Island. Sir John A. Macdonald calls this Protective Policy of his a "live issue," and urges his friends to rally round him in support of it. We free traders of these Maritime Provinces must also recognize the importance of this living question, and be prepared to meet it. Our merchants and traders find it hard enough to pay the present high tariffs. If our present revenue is raised by a more protective one, it will mean simply so much extra taxation placed upon our farmers, not to carry on the Government of the country or to develop its resources, but to enrich the bodies of a few manufacturers. This live issue affects, and will affect, the welfare of every man who desires to support Sir John A. Macdonald's scheme, and who knows that his separate schools—unpopular in this Island, and it will be gilded over with such phrases as "national policy," much as the separate school question was attempted to be gilded over by a child's declaration of "payment for results." I ask you to be on your guard on this question.

The course adopted by Mr. McKenzie on the Pacific Railway question seems to me to be just and statesmanlike. The engagement to build that road was entered into by its opponents while in office, and as I understand—terribly as it may stain our records—it cannot be properly repudiated. By extending the time for its completion, and having the road carefully and accurately surveyed before any part of it is let to contract, we may hope to feel the burden very much less, and have the assurance that we are getting the best that can be got for the outlay.

While, however, I agree with the general policy of the Government on the great questions I am not satisfied to give that government an unqualified support. I shall contend strenuously and do all in my power to obtain for that Island which I believe to be its rights, viz.: a representation in the Cabinet. I believe this will be more easily and surely attained by a firm and dignified stand being taken by our representatives than by a child's declaration that we will unconditionally oppose any government that will not concede the demand.

I am also strongly opposed to any interference by the Dominion Government or House of Commons with the question of Education; and while in justice I feel compelled to remember that the famous Section XI of the North-West Act was introduced into the Bill by the Government, but was an amendment carried unanimously in the House of Commons, still I cannot, as one who abhors the Government from all blame, I shall oppose, if elected by you, any such interference or legislation in the future, and shall insist that the Constitution of our country which gives the local legislature the exclusive right to legislate upon the important question of education be preserved intact in spirit as well as in letter.

I shall do all in my power to obtain our just rights in the distribution of government patronage and public moneys, and shall specially urge upon the government the great importance of carrying on in a liberal spirit, the improvement of our harbors, dredging and breakwaters; but I will not insult the intelligence of this large County by promising to obtain from the General Government grants in aid of local objects only, and with which you are all I know the General Government have nothing to do.

I am, gentlemen, Your obedient servant, WILLIAM WELSH. Charlottetown, Oct. 30, 1876.
