

HIGH POSITION

OSHAWA, Ont. —(CP)—Leslie Loucks, an employee of the public utilities commission, had the task of painting the city's 70 metal lamp posts, using a none-too-steady 20-foot ladder. He said the height didn't bother him; only the thought that he might spill paint on some husky pedestrian.

BUSY SUMMER

MONTREAL—(CP)—While McGill University professors and students are away for the summer, Registrar T. H. Matthews stays on the job coping with hundreds of applications from prospective students in 50 countries. He hopes to get his vacation in November or January.
