Strange But True

By F. H. MacArthur In June, 1762, vessels with eighty colonists from Sandwich, Mass., arrived in Nova Scotia. They endured many hardships during the first winter.

FORMAL OPENING

(Continued from Page 1) result in legislation and discussion which will benefit the Province and the nation of which we are a loyal member.

Around The Armouries

It was a real martial week for the boys in uniform with the big day being yesterday when the Legislature opened. One of the largest Guards of Honour in many years was drawn up to the left of the historic Legislative Chamber.

County championship. They were without the services of their regular goalie Sgt. W. E. Pierce who was on a fisheries course in Halifax. He was replaced by Gnr. P. Whitty.

Incidentally one of the really hardworking members of the team there is Major Danny McCormack who commands the battery. Danny has missed few games and is keenly interested in his team. He will be remembered by boxing fans of a decade ago as one of the hardest hitters in Island fight circles.

Dorothy Dix Says

Continued from page 2 bid, self-pitying and hard to get along with is your trouble instead of your lameness. A bad disposition is a far greater handicap than a bad leg.

There is a strong possibility that some of the Old Guard of the First Great War will hold a reunion dinner here this summer.

There is a strong possibility that some of the Old Guard of the First Great War will hold a reunion dinner here this summer. Like the famous 'Old Contemptibles of Britain in the early days of that 'first big conflict' their fighting days are over and their ranks are thinning here.

IN MEMORIAM

JOHN ERNEST STEWART

There passed away in the Prince Edward Island Hospital on February 27th, Mr. John Ernest Stewart in his seventeenth year.

Mr. Stewart entered the hospital early in the New Year and for a time it was felt that he was on the way to recovery but in spite of human effort, God willed otherwise and called him Home on the above date.

There are left to mourn his passing, his widow, Alfreda (Jordan) Stewart, seven sons, Elmer, Truman, Simon, Montreal, Bruce, Scouris, Milburn, Raymond, Elliott and Lorne, Murray Harbour; also three daughters, Cora (Mrs. John Jacobson, Jamaica Plain, U. S. A.), Claire (Mrs. William Butler, Fort Nelson, B. C.), Florence, (Mrs. Leroy B. White, Montague); twenty-one grandchildren and two great grandchildren, one brother George at Murray Harbour and three sisters Mrs. P. Prowse and Mrs. F. Bennett, Charlottetown and Mrs. Elliott Roberts, Oxford, N. S.

The largely attended funeral was held from the Presbyterian Church, Murray Harbour on Friday, March second, conducted by Rev. Paul Richardson, Montague, assisted by Rev. D. Wallace MacPherson of Murray Harbour.

Favourite hymns sung were "The Lord Is My Shepherd," "Take Thou My Hand," and "Safe In The Arms of Jesus."

The many floral tributes were tokens of esteem in which the departed was held.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Henry Richards, John Livingston, Kimball MacKay, Spencer Sharam, Joseph Buell and Earnest Penny. Service at the grave was conducted by Rev. Paul Richardson.

Card Of Thanks
