

ELVIS PARTING GESTURE

NEW YORK. — Elvis Presley, singing idol of Rock 'N' Roll fans, signs autograph with his arms around WAF specialist Mary Davis, of Albany, N.Y., at army base in Brooklyn Monday.

THOUGHTS FOR OUR TIME

BY HIS EMINENCE CARDINAL McGUIGAN

WISDOM BORN OF LOVE VALUED MOST

A society which values intellectual contemplation above other value, cannot be a democratic society. Few people have the talent for this kind of life and no society can support more than a few in the leisure this life demands.

Nevertheless, if this kind of life is the highest value of a people, the majority will be quite willing to serve the few people who cannot attain the ideal themselves will help others who can, just as parents will deny themselves in order to find some fulfillment in the careers of their children.

Now the kind of society we are discussing is a very peaceful society. It requires the peace of a library and it looks upon any restlessness as uncivilized. It has its disturbance but it looks upon them as barbarian intrusions.

Such a society could never tolerate an industrial revolution. It sees little value in what we call the standard of living and certainly no value which would justify the unrest and social upheavals that occur when new inventions put honest craftsmen out of work, when new factories deprive whole towns of their livelihoods and create the need for whole new cities, thus making useless the work of generations and at the same time requiring us to duplicate it elsewhere in a few years.

The industrial revolution belongs to a society which finds its deepest values in love rather than in intellectual contemplation. Our society has some respect for the scholar and the philosopher but it values most of all the wisdom which is born of love. This wisdom is open to everyone. We believe and hope that the majority of the people possess it to some extent.

We see no reason why most men should be doomed to find fulfillment in the lives of the few. For us it is evident that all men are born with an equal right to happiness and that they can find it in the midst of their everyday occupations. All are first-class citizens and for this reason we think that it is quite worthwhile to sacrifice the present comfort and quiet of a few for the sake of long range improvements in the general standard of living.

men should be doomed to find fulfillment in the lives of the few. For us it is evident that all men are born with an equal right to happiness and that they can find it in the midst of their everyday occupations. All are first-class citizens and for this reason we think that it is quite worthwhile to sacrifice the present comfort and quiet of a few for the sake of long range improvements in the general standard of living.

Nevertheless, if this kind of life is the highest value of a people, the majority will be quite willing to serve the few people who cannot attain the ideal themselves will help others who can, just as parents will deny themselves in order to find some fulfillment in the careers of their children.

Now the kind of society we are discussing is a very peaceful society. It requires the peace of a library and it looks upon any restlessness as uncivilized. It has its disturbance but it looks upon them as barbarian intrusions.

Such a society could never tolerate an industrial revolution. It sees little value in what we call the standard of living and certainly no value which would justify the unrest and social upheavals that occur when new inventions put honest craftsmen out of work, when new factories deprive whole towns of their livelihoods and create the need for whole new cities, thus making useless the work of generations and at the same time requiring us to duplicate it elsewhere in a few years.

The industrial revolution belongs to a society which finds its deepest values in love rather than in intellectual contemplation. Our society has some respect for the scholar and the philosopher but it values most of all the wisdom which is born of love. This wisdom is open to everyone. We believe and hope that the majority of the people possess it to some extent.

We see no reason why most men should be doomed to find fulfillment in the lives of the few. For us it is evident that all men are born with an equal right to happiness and that they can find it in the midst of their everyday occupations. All are first-class citizens and for this reason we think that it is quite worthwhile to sacrifice the present comfort and quiet of a few for the sake of long range improvements in the general standard of living.

Nevertheless, if this kind of life is the highest value of a people, the majority will be quite willing to serve the few people who cannot attain the ideal themselves will help others who can, just as parents will deny themselves in order to find some fulfillment in the careers of their children.

HOWLAN

Master Dale, four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gallant, was a patient in O'Leary Hospital for a brief period.

Mrs. A.S. Gallant and daughter Maureen, of Charlottetown, recently spent a few days with relatives at Woodstock. They were joined by Mr. Gallant with whom they returned to their home in town.

Congratulations and best wishes now go to Minnie Burke, formerly of Lot 7, and Clair Gallantson of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gallant, of Howlan, who were married in Montreal on Saturday, September 6. Mr. Gallant is a member of the R.C.A.F. Miss Burke had been employed in Montreal during the past year.

Olive Dawson recently visited at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. H.F. Pineau at Bloomfield. Mr. and Mrs. F.C. Gallant and daughters, were in Lot 7 recently.

The Misses Jeanette Gaudet of Woodstock, Elaine and Betty Arsenault of Howlan, are new students in Marrian Convent, Miscouche.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gaudet and granddaughter Yvonne of Kensington, motored to Howlan on Saturday, September 6, accompanied by Mrs. Dominick Arsenault of Charlottetown. Mrs. Arsenault will spend a week visiting relatives and friends here. The Gaudets returned home on Sunday.

The teachers of Howlan school, Miss Eileen Saunders, attended the Teachers Convention held in O'Leary on Monday and Tuesday September 8 and 9, giving their pupils two days holiday.

Congratulations to Edward MacMillan of Howlan, who won first honors in the ploughing match held at Knutsford recently. Miss Sandra Arsenault is spending ing a day or two with her cousins in O'Leary.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Gallant and family, of Piusville, were in Howlan on Sunday evening.

Rev. Father Petre of St. Anthony's, assisted at the Forty Hours devotion at Palmer Road, on Sunday, September 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Perry and family were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Blanchard at Brocton.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Arthur DesRoches on her illness in Community Hospital, O'Leary. Oclave Blanchard of Duvar is now a patient in Community Hospital. All wish him a speedy and complete recovery.

Alma and Allan Arsenault of O'Leary, spent Tuesday, September 9 in Howlan.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Peters, of O'Leary, were in Howlan on Sunday, visiting with Edmund's folks.

Mrs. Leo Arsenault was hostess to the Ladies of St. Ann Church for their September meeting on September 9. Mrs. Ray Noonan of O'Leary is to be October hostess.

From Tuesday, a wide range of domestic goods, trucks, farm machinery and other things may be bought on installments without the large cash down payment previously required by law. Most of the items previously required a down payment of 20 per cent. The new order applies to motorcycles, bicycles, furniture, carpets, kitchen ranges and many other things.

Congratulations to Edward MacMillan of Howlan, who won first honors in the ploughing match held at Knutsford recently. Miss Sandra Arsenault is spending

Saint Stephen's J. A. Stage An Entertainment

The members of St. Stephen's Junior Auxiliary, under the leadership of Mrs. Leigh Paynter and her assistant, Mrs. Borden Campbell staged an entertainment on Friday evening, September 5th in Irishtown Hall before an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Paynter presided and announced that the program would be along missionary lines with emphases on Japan. Mrs. H.B. MacLeod was organist for the evening.

Special guests were Mrs. Champion, diocesan president, Mrs. Coles and Miss Hazard of the diocesan board, and Mrs. Currie, diocesan J.A. secretary treasurer. Mrs. Champion and Mrs. Currie each spoke briefly and commended the children and their leaders on their efforts and attainments.

Following the program put on by the children, films were shown, and there was a sale of hand work done by the members. Mr. Keith Harrington introduced this part of the program.

The following is the program: Theme song: In Christ There is No East or West; Recitation: A Japanese Home; Mildred Evans; Only a Boy; Bruce Cole, William MacLeod, Dale Paynter.

Exercise: All the Year Around in Japan; 12 Juniors in Costume; Trio; Swift Let the Message go over the Water; Julie Campbell, Irene Evans, Joan Simmonds; Peach Boy, in Japanese and English, by group; An Introduction to next number, by William MacLeod; Kamishibai; We Are Juniors; Group; Closing Prayer; Gwendy Campbell; Group of Camp Songs; Igloo Dance, Northern Lights.

Irene Evans having a J.A. pin as an award for receiving a missed only one meeting since the J.A. was organized three years ago. Mildred and Elizabeth Evans received awards for perfect attendance at J.A. meetings since May 1956. Awards went to Blair Evans and Julie Campbell for perfect attendance for one year.

The following received the Star Memory certificate: — Joan Simmonds, Kathryn Campbell, William MacLeod, Julie Campbell Gwendy Campbell, Myrna Harrington, Dale Paynter, Blair Evans, Elizabeth Evans, Irene Evans, Mildred Evans. Still working for their certificates are Norma Harrington, Cordelia Harrington and Eleanor Harrington. Carlyle Casely and Bruce Cole are Beginners. Alan MacLeod assisted with the program.

The program closed with the J.A. Closing Song and the National Anthem.

Mr. and Mrs. J. William Profit of Summerside, left Friday, September 3th for two weeks vacation in Boston and Montreal. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Crouse of Brookline, Mass., who are returning to their home.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Coffin, nee Florence Dunbar, R.N. whose marriage took place in the United Church O'Leary, on Thursday, August 21.

Congratulations are also extended to Mr. and Mrs. George Obee, nee Irene Kinch, R.N., whose marriage took place in Halifax. Mrs. Obee is the daughter of Mr. Frank Kinch and the late Mrs. Kinch. Alma. The groom is serving with the R.C.N. and is a petty officer on destroyer, "Hilda."

On Friday evening August 15, a reception was held at the home of the bride's father where supper was served to 60 guests. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kinch, Halifax, N.S. Miss Joyce Kinch, Charlottetown, Mr. and Mrs. John Kinch, Dartmouth, N.S. Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Brown and Miss Nettie Kinch, Reading, Mass., and Mrs. Mary MacNally, New York.

Miss Nettie Kinch, Reading, Mass., has returned to her home. She was accompanied by her nephew, Mr. Omer Kinch.

Mr. and Mrs. George Green and children, Eleanor, Billy and Richard, Everett, Mass., returned to their home after visiting relatives in Alma for the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Clark and family of Saint John, N.B. has returned to their home after visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Clark, for a few weeks.

Mrs. Hattie Cunningham of Brookline, Mass., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Millie Mountain, Alma, and Mrs. Hammond Crockett, Woodvale.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smith and children, Dominion, N.S. were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Duggan and family for a few days.

Disatisfaction with a proposed premium method of financing the national hospital insurance plan in New Brunswick was expressed Wednesday at the union of New Brunswick Municipalities Convention.

An Edmundston resolution that funds be provided by boosting the present three per cent sales tax will be considered today.

The six cities association favored the hospital plan but disapproved the premium system.

Health Minister J. F. McInerney, speaking prior to a panel discussion, said some premiums must be collected by municipalities.

ALMA

WISDOM BORN OF LOVE VALUED MOST

A society which values intellectual contemplation above other value, cannot be a democratic society. Few people have the talent for this kind of life and no society can support more than a few in the leisure this life demands.

Nevertheless, if this kind of life is the highest value of a people, the majority will be quite willing to serve the few people who cannot attain the ideal themselves will help others who can, just as parents will deny themselves in order to find some fulfillment in the careers of their children.

Now the kind of society we are discussing is a very peaceful society. It requires the peace of a library and it looks upon any restlessness as uncivilized. It has its disturbance but it looks upon them as barbarian intrusions.

Such a society could never tolerate an industrial revolution. It sees little value in what we call the standard of living and certainly no value which would justify the unrest and social upheavals that occur when new inventions put honest craftsmen out of work, when new factories deprive whole towns of their livelihoods and create the need for whole new cities, thus making useless the work of generations and at the same time requiring us to duplicate it elsewhere in a few years.

The industrial revolution belongs to a society which finds its deepest values in love rather than in intellectual contemplation. Our society has some respect for the scholar and the philosopher but it values most of all the wisdom which is born of love. This wisdom is open to everyone. We believe and hope that the majority of the people possess it to some extent.

We see no reason why most men should be doomed to find fulfillment in the lives of the few. For us it is evident that all men are born with an equal right to happiness and that they can find it in the midst of their everyday occupations. All are first-class citizens and for this reason we think that it is quite worthwhile to sacrifice the present comfort and quiet of a few for the sake of long range improvements in the general standard of living.

HOWLAN

Master Dale, four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gallant, was a patient in O'Leary Hospital for a brief period.

Mrs. A.S. Gallant and daughter Maureen, of Charlottetown, recently spent a few days with relatives at Woodstock. They were joined by Mr. Gallant with whom they returned to their home in town.

Congratulations and best wishes now go to Minnie Burke, formerly of Lot 7, and Clair Gallantson of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gallant, of Howlan, who were married in Montreal on Saturday, September 6. Mr. Gallant is a member of the R.C.A.F. Miss Burke had been employed in Montreal during the past year.

Olive Dawson recently visited at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. H.F. Pineau at Bloomfield. Mr. and Mrs. F.C. Gallant and daughters, were in Lot 7 recently.

The Misses Jeanette Gaudet of Woodstock, Elaine and Betty Arsenault of Howlan, are new students in Marrian Convent, Miscouche.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gaudet and granddaughter Yvonne of Kensington, motored to Howlan on Saturday, September 6, accompanied by Mrs. Dominick Arsenault of Charlottetown. Mrs. Arsenault will spend a week visiting relatives and friends here. The Gaudets returned home on Sunday.

The teachers of Howlan school, Miss Eileen Saunders, attended the Teachers Convention held in O'Leary on Monday and Tuesday September 8 and 9, giving their pupils two days holiday.

Congratulations to Edward MacMillan of Howlan, who won first honors in the ploughing match held at Knutsford recently. Miss Sandra Arsenault is spending ing a day or two with her cousins in O'Leary.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Gallant and family, of Piusville, were in Howlan on Sunday evening.

Rev. Father Petre of St. Anthony's, assisted at the Forty Hours devotion at Palmer Road, on Sunday, September 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Perry and family were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Blanchard at Brocton.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Arthur DesRoches on her illness in Community Hospital, O'Leary. Oclave Blanchard of Duvar is now a patient in Community Hospital. All wish him a speedy and complete recovery.

Alma and Allan Arsenault of O'Leary, spent Tuesday, September 9 in Howlan.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Peters, of O'Leary, were in Howlan on Sunday, visiting with Edmund's folks.

Mrs. Leo Arsenault was hostess to the Ladies of St. Ann Church for their September meeting on September 9. Mrs. Ray Noonan of O'Leary is to be October hostess.

From Tuesday, a wide range of domestic goods, trucks, farm machinery and other things may be bought on installments without the large cash down payment previously required by law. Most of the items previously required a down payment of 20 per cent. The new order applies to motorcycles, bicycles, furniture, carpets, kitchen ranges and many other things.

Congratulations to Edward MacMillan of Howlan, who won first honors in the ploughing match held at Knutsford recently. Miss Sandra Arsenault is spending

BEDEQUE

Mr. and Mrs. Elliot Wright, Middleton, have returned to Chicago, where they will spend the winter with their son, Dr. Thompson Wright.

Rev. George K. Ward, Saint John, N.B. paid a brief visit to this village on Monday last. He was the guest speaker at the annual United Church on September 14th. Mr. Ward was pastor of the Bedeque Charge a few years ago.

Miss Edith Wetmore, Sackville, N.B. and Mrs. Mary Hyde, Bedfordshire, England, were guests of Mrs. Wetmore's sister, Mrs. Arthur Murray and Mr. Murray, over the weekend. Miss Hyde has recently come out from England and is on the staff of one of the Sackville schools.

Mrs. Thomas Watts and Mrs. Frederick McLaughlin, St. Thomas, Ontario, were guests of Mrs. A.A. McInnis over the weekend.

Mr. Leonard Ellis, Malden, Mass., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Ernest Weeks, also his brother, Mr. George Ellis, and family, Tyne Valley, and his sister, Mrs. Leo Lecky, and Mr. Lecky, Summerside, as well as other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Craig were recent visitors to the Mainland. Her many friends and relatives regret to learn that Mrs. Carrie Leard, this village, is confined to her home through illness.

PIUSVILLE

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Corcoran, on Monday evening, September 8, when a few friends gathered to honour

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Walker of Toronto, and celebrate their 5th wedding anniversary. Music was supplied by Jerry Peters. Mrs. Walker is the former Lorraine Corcoran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Corcoran.

Piusville school has been closed for two days due to the installation of new oil furnaces which was purchased recently.

Forty hours was celebrated at St. Anthony's church beginning Friday morning with a large attendance. Several priests were in assistance with Rev. Fr. Pitre, Pastor, officiating.

Miss Sandra Gallant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Desmond Gallant, Duvar, is spending a few days with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Corcoran.

ITALIAN SEAPORT

Ancona, Italian seaport on the Adriatic, was a settlement as early as 390 B.C.

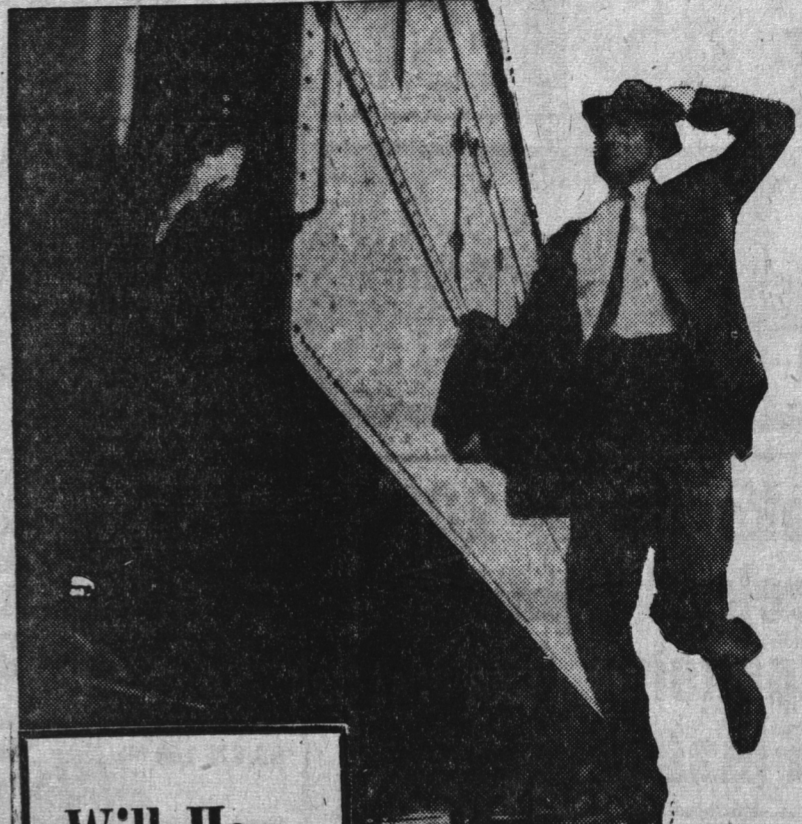

Eaton Heads For London

VIENNA (Reuters)—Industrialist Cyrus Eaton said Monday industrial and financial leaders will lose the most "if the folly of statesmen gets us into another war."

Eaton, 74, spoke to reporters as he left for London after attending last week's conference of atomic scientists.

Eaton is one of the financial supporters of the conference. The first was held at his summer home in Pughwash, N.S.

Eaton said he will spend about a week in London where he plans to meet the business, banking, railway and steel people "and of course Britain's brilliant scientists."

Hero In Grey Flannel

Symbol of suburbia; unsung hero of the 8.18. The commuter lives in a world of his own. In our Weekend Magazine Section, read about the lively antics of the popular figure of modern suburban living. He could be you!

Will He Live Up To Tradition?

Nineteen princes in 674 years have created a turbulent history for a noble title. Nine-year-old Prince Charles is still too young to understand why the recent proclamation set off a wave of time-honored emotion in every town and village in Wales. Read about the illustrious lives of the 18 before him who made the title Prince of Wales so rich in meaning and encrusted with tradition.

New Life for an Old Quarry

A swimming pool that took a century to build. Originally dug as a limestone quarry, now an 800-foot visitors' haven in St. Mary's, Ontario. Read about this popular, but unusual, bathing spot in our Weekend Magazine.

Sweet Strains

Music making in the European manner is causing a commotion in Canada. At the Toronto Royal Conservatory of Music, Doreen Hall teaches children first by making them aware of a natural feeling for rhythm in movement and sound. Read how children make music — and enjoy it, in our Magazine Section this week-end.

Take a break from serious front page reading. Have a little family fun with Canada's best comic section. Read the color comics in the Weekend Edition of your newspaper.

Country Doctor with City Attitude

That's Dr. Ken Norris of Quebec's Eastern Townships. Typical of the changing times, Dr. Norris employs the latest conveniences in equipment and the newest drugs in treating his patients. Bill Trent and Bert Beaver bring a photostory of Country Doctor 1958 to readers in our Weekend Magazine.

All Steamed Up

Minds and muscles are eased in the traditional manner in the large Finnish communities around the Lakehead. The peculiar manner in which these people relax is via a Sauna or steam bath. Weekend Staff Writer and Photographer Russell Spurr and Bert Beaver tell of their exhausting-exhilarating experiences with the Finns who get steamed up to relax.

TV's Popular Joyce Davidson

She's lovely. She's talented. She's TV's Joyce Davidson, interviewer on the popular early evening program 'Tabloid' and commercial pitch lady on Jack Kanes Music Makers 59 show. How has public admiration, flattery and $20,000 a year affected this charming young woman? You'll read the answers, and see Joyce on the cover, in our magazine section this weekend.

Bugman 'Breaks Barriers'

An equipping Edmonton entomologist is exploding myths about mosquitoes. Dr. Brian Hocking of the University of Alberta has won recognition as the English-speaking world's foremost authority on biting insects. Weekend readers are given pointers on how to combat these hexapoda and a professional opinion regarding that current fad — eating insects.

FALL DISCOUNT DAYS

BIG SAVINGS! GREAT VALUES! WHAT BARGAINS!

SUITS TAKE YOUR PICK OF ENTIRE RANGE

- English worsteds
- Satin faced venetians
- Gabardines
- Charcoals
- Greys & Browns

20% off

Suburban COATS Extra Special — Buy Now!

SPECIAL $15.95

Black and Charcoal Window Pane Check. All sizes 34 - 44

HARRIS TWEED SPORT COATS Reg. 35.00

SPECIAL $28.95

All models 36 - 46

Balance of Summer SPORT JACKETS 25% OFF

Gabardines, Corduroys and English Wool Tweeds. Sizes 34 - 44.

Plains and Plaids WORK SHIRTS Reg. 3.00

FOR $2.00

Sizes 14 1/2 - 16 1/2

Entire Range PANTS 25% OFF

- Wash and Wear
- Worsteds and Gabs
- All Shades
- Sizes 30 - 44

SPORT SHIRTS Reg. 4.95

FOR $2.50

Stripes and Checks Broken Range

Balbriggan UNDERWEAR 20% OFF

- Combinations
- Shirts and Longs
- All Sizes

COME IN - SEE - AND BUY OUR MANY OTHER SPECIALS

KELLY & MacINNIS

135 Great George Street Phone 3636

ALL THIS AND MORE IN SATURDAY'S EVENING PATRIOT