JOHN M. MACLEOD,

Presbytery Clerk.

Onward, Victoria.

A musical and literary entertainment, under the auspices of Onward Division, Sons of Temperance, took place at Victoria Reading-room, on Monday evening, the 28th ult. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather and the exceeding bad travelling, the building, which is capable of accommodating upwards of 200 persons, was crowded.

The entertainment was opened by an address from the Rev. T. W. Johnston, rector of St. John's Church, Crapaud, who kindly acted as President.

The programme for the evening consisted of choruses, readings, solos, dialogues, etc., all of which were exceedingly well rendered as shown by the applause from the audience. It is needless to say that all were highly satisfied with their evening's amusement. The handsome sum of $16.25 was realized, thus making it also a success financially.

The members of this division of the order take this opportunity of extending to the Rev. Mr. Johnston their sincere thanks for his indispensable assistance as President and also for his generous kindness in placing his building at their disposal; also their desire to extend their heartfelt thanks to Miss Hunter, Miss Webster, Mr. H. P. Palufer, Miss Wright and Mr. Nelder for their very kind assistance on that evening.—COM.

A Gigantic Farm.

OPERATIONS OF THE QU'APPELLE VALLEY FARMING COMPANY.—SEEDING ALREADY COMPLETED.

A few days ago a representative of the Montreal Gazette waited upon Mr. H. J. Eberts, secretary-treasurer of the Qu'Appelle Farming Company, whose property is known as the Bell farm, to learn some particulars of their operations. The farm, which comprises 54,000 acres, is situated on the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway, being intersected by that road, 312 miles west of Winnipeg and 54 miles east of Regina, the shipping point being known as Indian Head. The company enjoyed a prosperous year in 1883, their wheat having escaped the frost which caused so much damage to the crops generally. The company began harrowing operations as early as March 26th, and seeding on March 31st, or about two weeks earlier than last year, and on April 12th the wheat-sowing had been completed from five to six thousand acres being put under crop. This week fifteen hundred acres of oats and about five hundred acres of flax will be sown. The latter is a new crop, but the soil is favorable to its culture, and profitable returns from it are expected. Indeed, the product has already been contracted for. During the summer, ground will be broken to an extent that will permit of the seeding of 14,000 acres of land in 1885. A large quantity of machinery is required in connection with the farm, and there will be forty-eight self-binders, seven steam thrashers and fifty ploughs at work this year. Ploughing with horses costs a shade under $2 per acre, one man with horses and plough breaking about two acres per day. The price of agricultural implements under the operation of the present tariff has steadily declined. Up to last year American manufacturers enjoyed a monopoly of the market in the Northwest, Canadian manufacturers not turning out the class of implements best adapted to the country, but in 1883 Canadian machines came into more general use, and this season they are likely to be universally adopted. Seeders can be purchased 13 per cent. cheaper than last year, and Canadian self-reapers and binders have been so materially improved in quality that the Qu'Appelle company are buying them in preference to the Chicago machines formerly employed, and have just ordered twenty-six from Messrs. A. Harris, Son & Co., of Brantford. The American binders are being offered $45 below last year's price in order if possible to hold the market, but even at this reduction purchases can be made more advantageously in Canada. The company erect substantial cottages on the property for the farm hands, and at the end of five years give the option of purchase at a fair valuation to the occupants. Mr. Eberts expects that operations this season will be most successful; the seeding has been completed remarkably early, and the harvest promises to be bountiful, an average of 25 bushels of wheat to the acre being counted upon.

Affairs in the Dominion.

THE GOVERNMENT'S ADVANCE TO THE CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY.

Mr. Thomas White, member of Parliament, of Canada, who went to New York as a delegate from the Montreal Board of Trade to the opening exercises of the new Produce Exchange building, speaking to a Times reporter, in reference to Canadian affairs, said:—

"The main topic of interest politically in Canada, at the present time, is the Canadian Pacific Railway, chiefly in consequence of the policy of the Government at the last session of parliament in making an advance to the company of $22,000,000, in order that the road may be completed without putting more stock upon the market. Since that time there have been reported changes in the board of directors, which lead those opposed to the Government and the enterprise to suggest that the company being thus relieved of its current liabilities, they are withdrawing from the enterprise altogether. The better opinion, however, is against this view. It derived some force from the suggestion that Mr. Kennedy, of your city, and Mr. Hill, of St. Paul, two of the original directors had withdrawn. It is generally understood that they withdrew some months ago, and have both been in practical hostility to their old co-directors for many months. Both have large interests in the St. Paul & Manitoba Railway, and it is now generally believed that when the contract was given for the building of the Canadian Pacific they never contemplated building that portion of the road north of Lake Superior, connecting northwestern Canada with the Canadian system of railroads in Ontario and Quebec. Had this portion of the road been abandoned, the result of what is called the monopoly clause of the Canadian Pacific Railway charter, the clause which prevents the granting of a charter to any road proposing to cross within fifteen miles of the Canadian boundary line for twenty years, would have been to have poured the whole traffic of the northwestern territories over the St. Paul & Manitoba road.

"The determination of the Canadian directors to carry out in its entirety their contract," continued Mr. White, "caused Messrs. Kennedy and Hill to withdraw from the board, and it is generally believed that they have since been exerting all their influence in financial circles to prevent the success of the enterprise. It was this conviction which secured support to the Government policy of placing the company in a position independent of the 'bulls' and 'bears' of Lombard and Wall streets. The president and two of the directors of the road are now in England in connection with the enterprise, and the work is being rapidly pushed forward with the same energy as in the past. It is confidently expected that the line will be completed north of Lake Superior in about a year. The anticipation of the company is that when the road is finished, instead of the traffic of Northwestern Canada going over the St. Paul & Manitoba Road and other American lines, much of the traffic of the Western American States will seek the Canadian Pacific as furnishing the shortest line to the seaboard in the hands of one company."
