MR. JOHN ROBERTS, representing T. Evans & Son, wholesale druggists, Montreal, is making his regular tour of the Provinces. He is staying at the Levere.

THE TERM.—A despatch received by J. J. Davis of the Rankin, last evening, states that Mr. George Essory's horse won the race at Pictou yesterday, beating Agitator and Beach in three straight heats.

The members of Prince Albert Lodge, I. O. F. T., are requested to meet in their Room, Scott's Hall, this evening, at eight o'clock. Business of importance to be transacted.

CORONER McLEOD on Tuesday evening held an inquest in view of the body of the infant found in the cellar of Mr. E. Love, Bayfield Street. The jury after hearing evidence, returned a verdict to the effect "that the said infant came to its death in a manner unknown to the jury—and that the mother, Jane Roper, concealed its birth."

ALL tobaccos except the finest Virginia have a pungent effect upon the tongue and will smart if the smoking is long continued. Some of them even will blister it, or at least destroy its outer skin at the point where the smoke impinges upon it. The "Myrtle Navy" is entirely free from this defect, which, together with its fine full flavor makes it a great favorite with smokers.

We are pleased to hear that the prospects of good mackerel fishing this season are excellent. We learn that yesterday John McLean, Esq., M. P. F., ably assisted by Capt. Dorr in Costello, succeeded in securing about 100 barrels close off Souris. The whole operation of capturing the fish was observable from the village, and the energy and skill displayed by Mr. McLean in handling the seine drew forth many exclamations of praise. So pleased were the people that the ladies on the spot clubbed together and presented him with a handsome seining cap.

The steamer Bonavista, Capt. Anderson, of the Black Diamond Line, arrived from Montreal last evening with a large freight and the following passengers for Charlottetown and St. John's, N.B.: Miss Pope, Mr. McDonald, Miss Jarvis, Miss McDonald, Miss Steele, Mr. Peck, Mr. Stewart Munn, Mr. E. Irving, Miss Munn, Mr. H. Irving, Master S. Munn, Mr. McKinnon, Miss Munn, Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Warrington, Mrs. Gurylin, Mr. McLennan, Mr. Tobin, Mrs. Woolley, Mrs. Hayward, Mr. McKay, Miss McKay and two steerage. The Bonavista sailed for St. John's this morning at 9 o'clock, and took as freight from this port 264 bags of potatoes, 162 bales of hay, 211 bags of oats, 58 sheep, 6 cattle, 6 tubs of butter, 2 cases of fowl, etc. Mrs. William Boyle was a passenger to St. John's.

MARKET HALL was crowded to excess last night by an audience which showed its total appreciation of Prof. Zora Simon and the Royal Marionettes. The entertainment was divided into four parts, and the programme was carried through without a hitch. It was much more than advertised, and few who attended anticipated seeing the wonderful performance of the negro minstrels, which is a leading feature of the Marionette Entertainment. We advise all who wish to spend an enjoyable time to attend this evening. At the close of last evening's entertainment, one hundred and ten presents were given to lucky ticket-holders. J. A. Smallwood, 78, Richmond Street, received the silver watch; Owen Trainer, Union House, received china tea set, 44 pieces and Mrs. P. Hand, Long Street, received chamber set, 10 pieces.

DOMINION DAY passed off quietly in Charlottetown and throughout the Province. Needless rains fell from an early hour until evening refreshing the crops but destroying the comfort and pleasure of excursionists. Notwithstanding the excursion to Pictou was liberally patronized, and those who attended, returned home well pleased with the treatment they received from Capt. Evans and the officers of the St. Lawrence. The excursion from Summerside to Point du Chene on board the Princess of Wales was also largely patronized, and we learn an enjoyable time was spent. The weather was against tea parties and open air enjoyment. Those who went to Baldwin's Station or Lot 65 must have spent a disagreeable day. In the city the observance of Dominion Day was general. The leading stores was closed, and a salute of twenty-one guns was fired from Fort Edward by No. 1 Battery under Capt. Passmore.

An Amusing Scene.

The Montreal Gazette's Montreal correspondent writes:—"An amusing scene occurred in the House this afternoon. After the discussion on the amendment to the C. P. R. resolutions, and when the house was in the committee, Sir John advanced to the table to look at some paper bearing on the subject. The leader of the Opposition also approached and affectionately leaning over the shoulder of the leader of the Government, also attentively scrutinized the paper. The scene was noticed by the House, and considerable merriment ensued, which was increased when Hon. Peter Mitchell, the leader of the "Third party," advanced to complete the trio. Mr. Blake got "sacred" when he saw the Hon. Peter approaching, and he hurriedly retreated to his seat amidst the laughter of the members."
