

National Energy Board Asks Gas Export Delay

OTTAWA (CP) — The national energy board has asked, in effect, to further delay the export of natural gas from Canada.

The request comes from the Saskatchewan Power Corporation one of 13 organizations listed by the board Wednesday as intervenors in the gas export hearings scheduled to open in Ottawa Jan. 5.

The provincial Crown corporation urged the board not to export gas until it has decided that the minimum proven reserves required to meet Canadian needs for the next 30 years have been exceeded.

At the moment, it said, proven reserves in Canada are "not much more than adequate" to meet this 30-year requirement.

Players, Loop Co-operate

NEW HAVEN (AP) — Player representatives and directors of the New Haven Blades of the Eastern Hockey League said Wednesday that they had settled grievances which had threatened to send the team out on strike.

The differences between the players and management stemmed from the firing of Coach Ed (Chirp) Brenchley last week. The players said he was not given adequate notice and was not notified until the news was made public.

The players were reported to have pledged full cooperation to the club and the new coach, Wally Kullman, formerly of Washington, at a meeting Wednesday morning.

The club has a total of 6,683,000,000 cubic feet of natural gas.

White Sox Tops Afield

BOSTON (AP) — The popular theory that a stalwart defence carried Chicago White Sox to their first pennant in 40 years was given further impetus Wednesday with the release of the final American League fielding figures for 1959.

The White Sox won the team fielding title with a .979 average. This was one point higher than New York, Boston, Cleveland and Detroit.

Chicago also had two individual leaders — second baseman Nellie Fox, the circuit's most valuable player, and his sparkling double-play slickstick, shortstop Luis Aparicio. Fox, in leading at his position for the fourth time, made only 10 errors in 827 total chances for a .988 average. Aparicio fielded .970 to finish well ahead of the .962 mark posted by Woody Held of Cleveland.

TOPS TWICE IN ROW
Vic Power of Cleveland, at first base, and Eddie Yost of Detroit, at third, rounded out the top fielding infielders. Power showed a .995 slate to set the pace for the second time. Yost was No. 1 at third for the second straight year with .992.

Mickey Mantle of New York Yankees was the leader among the outfielders with .995 on only two miscues in 375 chances. He was followed by Jim Landis of the White Sox, .993, and Al Kaline, Detroit, .989.

Yogi Berra of the Yanks edged Chicago's Sherman Lollar for catching honors. Yogi made only two errors and wound up with a .997 average. Lollar erred five times and finished at .993.

CONTRACT BRIDGE

FAMOUS HANDS

The French pair went down 300, losing three spades right away and two trump tricks later.

When the same hand was played at the other table, Ghestem, the French South, also opened with three diamonds. Field doubled, Bacherich passed, and Stayman decided to leave the double in.

The king of hearts was led. Ghestem could count three club losers and had to avoid losing two trump tricks to make the hand. He played the hand perfectly and made the contract by means of a trump coup.

He started to shorten himself in trumps by winning the ace of hearts and ruffing a heart. Next Ghestem entered dummy with a spade and ruffed another heart. He now had only one trump more than Stayman instead of the three more he had started with. He was aiming to equalize his trump length with Stayman's.

This he accomplished by leading another spade and ruffing the fourth round of hearts. Then he exited with a low diamond and West took the ace.

By this time Ghestem had only the K-J-9 of diamonds and Q-9-5 of clubs left. He could not stop trump from making three trump tricks. Field did as well as he could by underleading the ace of clubs. Stayman won the kind and returned a club to cash two more club tricks.

But Field was now forced to lead a spade or a club, and Stayman's 10-8-5 of diamonds were gobbled up by declarer's K-J-9. So Ghestem made three diamonds doubled for a score of 470 points.
