

CITY SCHOOLS.

Midsummer Examinations.

UPPER PRINCE STREET SCHOOL.

The classes in Upper Prince Street School were publicly examined to-day. Among the visitors present were His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Macdonald, Captain Penny, H. M. S. Canada, Hon. David Laird and Mrs. Laird, Hon. T. H. Haviland, Hon. Donald Ferguson, Rev. F. W. Moore, Dr. McLeod, John Ings, W. E. Dawson, Thomas Foley, Donald Farquharson, T. A. LePage—besides many others. Those who took part in the examination speak in glowing terms of the correctness, quickness and intelligence with which the answers were given in the various classes. The staff of this school could not easily be improved; and marked progress has been made in the past year by the pupils. After the examination the school was as usual massed in the Upper Hall, where an unique and most pleasing entertainment was given the visitors—according to the following programme:

- 1. Chorus—"All Hail" School
2. Dialogue—"Babylonia" Four Girls from School
3. Kindergarten Song—"This is the Way" School
4. Recitation—"A Wee Bit Lassie" Elsie LePage
5. Chorus—"Beautiful Moonlight" High School
6. Recitation—"A Grow-up Boy" School
7. Solo and Chorus—"Hark, I Hear the Organ Play" School
8. Recitation—"The Home Beside the Thames" Ethel Stanton
9. Song—"My Island Home" School
10. Recitation—"The Difference" Isabel Cameron
11. Solo and Chorus—"A Wake, O Happy Nation" Fannie Shenton and Classes
12. Recitation—"Change of Residence" School
13. Reading of English Compositions, by Bessie Brown, Edith Higgins, Fannie Lawson
14. Chorus—"A Bisy Crow" School
15. Recitation—"Uncle Ben" School
16. Solo and Quartet—"Slowly and Softly" Florence E. Findley
17. Kindergarten Song—"The Working Man" School
18. Song—"Star of the Twilight" School
19. Reading—"Christie MacIsaac" School
20. Class Farewell—"God Save the Queen" School

The music of the young voices was very sweet and harmonious, and, having consideration for the ages of the reciters, the recitations were exceedingly well given. At the conclusion of the entertainment the best of the prizes were distributed by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor who, in a short speech, complimented teachers and pupils on the good discipline and tone of the school and the marked improvement evident. Hon. Donald Ferguson and His Worship the Mayor each made a few remarks. The Chairman (Mr. Dawson) then announced that the school would open again on the 29th August.

The Mikado.

The Mikado and his suite had a reception at the Lyceum last evening. The attendance was large, fashionable and appreciative, fully enjoying the fun, satire, comicities, and delightful harmonies afforded by His Majesty, the Heir Apparent Ko-ko, Poo Bah, Pish Tush, Yum Yum, Pitti-Sing, Peep-Bo, and last, but not least, Katisha, Mr. Alfred Whelan's impersonation of Ko-ko, the Lord High Executioner, was exceedingly funny. His acting was splendid and his way of singing a song so taking that almost every soul was enraptured. Mr. Douglas Flint, as Poo-Bah, Lord High everything else, was a very good conception, and his singing and acting, came in for a good share of applause. Nanki-Poo, the son of the Mikado, was made the most of by Mr. Travener, who is the fortunate possessor of a rich tenor voice and knows how to use it. Mr. Harris as the Mikado, was certainly a formidable looking personage, and enacted his role in a very creditable manner. The Pish-Tush of Mr. Burton was also favorably received. Yum-Yum, Pitti-Sing and Peep-Bo, the three wards of Ko-ko, were charmingly impersonated by Miss Lulu Stevens, Miss Hattie Starr and Miss Hermine Palacio, their singing and acting being very good. The prettiest features of the entertainment, Miss Augusta Roche made a splendid Katisha, and was warmly commended, her singing and acting being very good. The chorus singing were excellent. The costumes and scenery were excellent. The company would, however, have appeared to much better advantage were the stage larger. The orchestra furnished appropriate music; at times, however, the cornet was so loud as to interfere materially with the hearing of those in the rear of the hall and in the gallery. This evening the Mascotte will be produced, with the entire company in the cast. Don't fail to attend. The Queen is reported to be very happy over the brilliant success of the Jubilee celebration.
