

On motion of the Hon. Edward Palmer, seconded by C. Stewart, Esq., Rosebank—

3. Resolved, That the thanks of this Meeting are due, and are hereby given, to John Lawson, Esq., for his Lecture on the Progress of Agricultural Improvement in this Island.

On the motion of Thomas Owen, Esq., seconded by Samuel Nelson, Esq.—

4. Resolved, That the following Gentlemen do form the Committee for the ensuing year:—

Hon. J. S. Macdonald, President. William Douse, Esq., Vice President.

COMMITTEE—Charles Stewart, Charles Hazard, Henry Longworth, Alexander Laird, George Beer, sen., William Swabey, George Coles, James Duncan, Stephen Rice.

Mr. Peter Macgowan, Secretary and Treasurer.

On motion of Captain Swabey, seconded by Samuel Nelson, Esq.—

5. Resolved, That the thanks of this Meeting are due to His Excellency Sir Henry Vere Huntley, the Patron of the Society, for having taken the Chair at this Anniversary Meeting, and for the exertions His Excellency continues to evince in promoting the cause of Agriculture.

On the passing of the last Resolution, His Excellency the Patron rose, and addressed the Meeting at considerable length, in a plain, practical speech, in the course of which he touched upon a great variety of topics intimately connected with the Agricultural prosperity of the Colony. His Excellency's speech was listened to with great attention, and elicited repeated bursts of applause.

PUBLIC MEETING.

On the first day of January inst., a Public Meeting of a number of Electors of the Eastern Section of the 2d District of Queen's County, was held, at Tracadie Cross Roads, for the purpose of nominating a Candidate to represent the Electors of the District in the Legislative Assembly. Mr. Anthony Dougan was called to the Chair, and the following Resolutions were then severally put and unanimously adopted:—

Moved by Mr. Robert Mooney, seconded by Mr. Francis McQuaid, 1. Resolved, That as the Agriculturists of this District are the offspring of freemen, they are determined to submit no longer to arbitrary misrule, to exercise their elective franchise in future as becomes Britons, and not to repose confidence in any man who is opposed to the rights of the Agriculturists of the Colony.

Moved by Mr. James Connolly, seconded by Mr. John Mooney, 2. Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Meeting, that their late Representative, the Hon. J. S. Macdonald, has forfeited all claims to their support, by his general conduct in the Legislature, which appears, on reference to the Journals of the House of Assembly, to be in direct opposition to the best interests of the Agriculturists generally, and especially to the rent paying portion of them; that for the last four years he has invariably sided with the enemies of the people in the Legislature, which is evident from the following extracts taken from the Journals of that period: Journal of 1839, Page 63, motion for elective Councils, voted against by less: March 18, 1839, he opposed the second reading of the Bill for the forfeiture of lands; and also the third reading of the same and the settlement of the Inhabitants of this Island. Journals of 1840, Page 20, motion to prepare an address to the Imperial Parliament—against it, Hon. J. S. Macdonald. Journals of 1841, Page 29, Bill for the settlement of the Agriculturists of the Island—against it, J. S. Macdonald. March 13, 1841, Page 62, the third reading of a Bill for the regulation of the Fishery Reserves of this Colony—he voted against; 22d April, 1841, he voted against the passing of 18 Resolutions on the land question, and the improper construction of the Legislative Council; April 15, 1842, he voted against the Petition to the Imperial Parliament on the land question and popular grievances; 13th April, 1842, he opposed an address to Her Majesty, praying her to prosecute the Land claimants for and on account of the Fishery Reserves of the Colony; April 15, same year, he voted against the transmission of the Petitions of the House to Joseph Hume, Esq., M. P. for the purpose of being presented to the Imperial Parliament; that on a certain occasion in the House he evinced an anxiety to saddle the country with an addition to the late Lieutenant Governor's salary, by submitting a Resolution suggesting the propriety of so oppressive a tax as that must have proceeded, had the intention of the Head of the Government been carried out, which he represented in his place as an Executive Councillor. That the Executive of this Colony have held office without admitting their responsibility to the people, and are opposed to our rights as Britons, and our prosperity as Agriculturists, and have ever acted so towards the country; and as Mr. Macdonald is one of that body, he is therefore, on this account alone, unfit to be our Representative; that he, as one of that body, was instrumental in sending the armed Constabulary and Military force to the East Point last winter, to quell an imaginary riot, or subdue the spirit of liberty of agitation, which transaction has cost over £300 or £1000, as this meeting believes, and which will have to be borne by the people, if our Representatives are to be the dupes of an obnoxious Government; that he lately assisted, in re-electing Messrs. J. Pope, Thornton, and Boivisto, to seats in the Assembly, although he was disqualified from taking or holding his seat in the House; which measure this meeting most strongly repudiates, as subversive of their rights and privileges; that under all these circumstances this meeting unanimously reject the Hon. J. S. Macdonald, as a person unfit to become their Candidate or Representative at the coming Election.

Moved by Mr. James Brogan, seconded by Mr. Thomas Dougan, 3. Resolved, That as this District has now an opportunity of emancipating itself from conservative misrepresentation, and is determined to support only a staunch and well-tryed individual, we therefore invite J. W. Le Lachour, Esq. to become a Candidate for our suffrages in the ensuing election for this District, and we pledge ourselves to vote for him exclusively, and to use our exertions throughout the District to secure his return.

Moved by Mr. John Moynagh, seconded by Mr. William Murphy, That a copy of the foregoing Resolutions be furnished to Mr. Le Lachour by the Chairman, and also published in the Palladium and Colonial Herald, Newspapers.

Mr. Dougan then left the Chair, and the same was taken by Mr. F. McQuaid. The thanks of the meeting were then given to Mr. Dougan, for his conduct while in the Chair.

By order of the Meeting, ANTHONY DOUGAN, Chairman.

Tracadie Cross Roads, 1st January, 1844.

SUPREME COURT.—The Hilary Term of the Supreme Court for Queen's County was opened on Tuesday last. True Bills have been found by the Grand Jury against the following persons:—William Parry, for Larceny; Samuel Holmes, for do.; Richard Naddy, for Assault; and John and Thomas Wilson, for Murder. William Parry pleaded guilty. Samuel Holmes was tried and found guilty on Thursday. An Attachment was also issued against Edward Christopher, of Lot 1, for speaking contemptuously of the Court, and obstructing the Sheriff of Prince County, while in the execution of his duty. The contemptuous language employed by Christopher, as sworn to in Court, was as follows:—"What is the use of going to law with the devil, when the Court is held in hell?" The trial of John and Thomas Wilson for the murder of John Macpherson, commenced yesterday. The examination of the witnesses, on the part of the prosecution, having terminated, the trial was adjourned until to-day (Saturday), and is now being proceeded with. A true Bill has been found against James Cahill, for keeping a disorderly house.

MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT.—Mr. H. W. Lobban's Band gave another Musical entertainment at Masonic Hall, on Tuesday evening last. The attendance, though highly respectable, was, we understand, rather thin, but the Musical performances were most successful.

MECHANICS' INSTITUTE.—On last Wednesday evening, a Report of the proceedings of the Institute for the past year was read, and, on motion, adopted.

The following Resolutions were then passed: I. Moved by Mr. John Pidwell, seconded by Mr. C. C. Davison—

II. Moved by Mr. George Beer, seconded by Mr. Jabez Rowe—

That the thanks of the Institute be given to those persons who have subscribed towards the purchasing of Apparatus, for the use of this Institute.

III. Moved by Mr. Henry Found, seconded by C. C. Davison—

That the thanks of the Institute be given to the Office-bearers for the past year.

IV. Moved by Mr. C. C. Davison, seconded by Mr. Jabez Rowe—

That the thanks of the Institute be given to His Excellency the Lt. Governor, for the use of the Hall in which the meetings of the Institute were held last winter, and for his handsome donation of £10 towards the funds of the Institute.

The following gentlemen were then elected Office-bearers for the present year:—

The Hon. Charles Young, President. Mr. Martin Dougherty, 1st Vice President.

William Cundall, Esq., 2d Vice do. Mr. P. F. Little, Secretary, Treasurer and Librarian.

COMMITTEE.—Hon. George Dalrymple, Mr. Watson Duchemin, Mr. John Pidwell, J. D. Hazard, Esq., Dr. Cooke, George Coles, Esq., Mr. George Beer, jun., Dr. Tremain, John Longworth, Esq.

The Institute then adjourned.

Dr. Hobkirk has tendered his gratuitous professional services, together with medicines, and every necessary, to the indigent Poor, who may be considered proper objects for relief by the Ladies' Benevolent Society.—Islr.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE COLONIAL HERALD.

SIR:—I have been much surprised—and I believe I only share that feeling with many others—at the silent indifference with which the people have regarded the little Drama exhibited in the short Session of the House of Assembly which has just terminated. The whole thing has been dashed off with such singular effrontery—such a bold assumption of right—that the (would-be) leaders of the people seem to have been dumbfounded by the imposing tone of their antagonists.

Although, by the course adopted by the majority, they have gained their object—the preservation of certain seats, which had been rendered insecure by a previous blunder; yet, in pursuing that course, they appear to me to have committed a far greater, as it is one of a deliberate character, and for which they must, at all times, be held responsible.

The House of Assembly is said to be the interpreter of its own Acts; but if, in the exercise of this privilege, it ventures upon a line of conduct offensive to truth and justice, it will very justly suffer in public opinion.

Party spirit sometimes induces men to trifle with principles which, if suffered to be trampled upon, may result in consequences too grave and important to the state to be passed by without observation. Indeed, the first departure from a strictly upright and direct course should be marked by our disapprobation, lest it should be indexed as a precedent, and be used as an introduction to other evil encroachments.

It is now acknowledged that at the meeting of the House of Assembly three Gentlemen took their seats who had notoriously forfeited them by acceptance of offices of emolument. Indeed, if I am rightly informed, it has been confessed by themselves, and also by those who helped to maintain them in the possession of their forfeited seats for the time, that they never entertained a doubt of their having vacated them.

I think it must be plain to every man's understanding, that the first business of the House, and the first duty of the Speaker, was to ascertain that the House was rightly and legally constituted; because, if illegally, then its proceedings must become of very doubtful authority. This was not done; and the consequence has been, that three Gentlemen who, by a vote of the House, have since been declared to have accepted offices of emolument, disqualifying them from sitting and voting in the House until re-elected, have sat and voted, notwithstanding their disqualification, without reference to their several constituencies, as the Act requires.

If it was right to keep them in the House until a troublesome question had been conveniently disposed of, there could be no justice in dismissing them afterwards. Nothing occurred between the time of their vote upon this question, and the vote of their extrusion, to alter their position with regard to their constituents, and this manifest inconsistency is abundant proof of the impropriety of the whole proceeding.

I shall content myself with these few (I trust) temperate observations upon this extraordinary proceeding, and shall be very glad to hear whatever can be said in palliation of it.

I am, Sir, Yours, &c., CIVIS.

FRAUD.—A new species of artifice has just come to our knowledge, against which we feel it our duty to put the public on their guard. The high reputation which "ROWLAND'S MACASSAR OIL" has acquired throughout the world, has excited the cupidity of some unprincipled imitators who have endeavoured to introduce, into the East and West Indies, America, &c. &c., their highly noxious imitations, for the real article—the wrappers and labels of which so closely resemble those of Messrs. Rowland's, as to require a somewhat careful observation to detect the imposition. The only mode for the purchaser to avoid the imposition, and escape the baneful effects of their vile counterfeits, is to inspect, with great care, the wrappers and labels, and follow the directions attached to the word "CAUTION" in Messrs. Rowland's Advertisement, which frequently appears in our paper.—See Advertisement.

EXTRAORDINARY LETTER FROM THE YOUNG KING OF GREECE.—The following letter, received by the last mail, exhibits King Otho in a very amiable light; it is addressed to a mercantile firm in London, and begins thus:—

"Athens, Palais du Pantheon, 1842. "Gentlemen,—I am committude where with you executed the orders for 'Holloway's Ointment,' and 'Holloway's Pills.' The tonic and alterative properties of the latter, as an auxiliary to the former, are duly appreciated, and their conjoint effects are indeed truly surprising. You will please present the gold medal, sent through the courier, to Mr. Holloway, as a token of his Majesty's high sense of his services in the branch of curative medicine. I have the honour to be, &c.

"GERARD, Min. Sec., des Aff. Etran." "Gentlemen, of the above, to state, that it becomes our duty, in confirmation of the above, to state, that in all external disorders these preparations are univalued.

FOR SALE OR TO LET,

THAT pleasantly situated Dwelling House and Premises, now in the occupation of Mr. T. B. Tremain, in Water Street. For further particulars apply to D. WILSON.

Richmond Street, August 8th, 1843.

House of Assembly, 23d December, 1843.

RESOLVED, That no Petition praying aid for Roads and Bridges, or for any object of a local or private nature, be received after Thursday, the Eighth day of February next.

ORDERED, That the above Resolution be inserted in each of the Newspapers published in Charlottetown. W. CULLEN, Clerk.

To the Electors of the Second Electoral District of Queen's County.

GENTLEMEN; THE House of Assembly having, on Saturday last, declared the office of Commissioner for the Recovery of Small Debts to be an office of emolument under the Crown, consequently my seat, as one of your Representatives, has been vacated; and as I do not consider my integrity or principles fettered in the slightest degree by holding the office of Commissioner for the Recovery of Small Debts (although I do receive the large emolument of £5000 for every Summons issued, and twopenny for every Judgment given by the Small Debt Court in Charlottetown, and that not from either the Crown or the Public Treasury.) I feel that it would be a great dereliction of duty, on my part, were I to decline coming forward again as a candidate at the approaching Election, to fill up the said vacancy, particularly so when I reflect that when you did me the high honor of returning me with such a large majority, at the head of the Poll, at the last General Election, it was your impression, as well as my own, that I should continue one of your Representatives during the existence of the present House of Assembly; therefore I shall make it a point (if my health permit), to attend at the opening of the Poll, at Crosby's Mills, Lot 30, on Friday, the 19th of January next, and then give you such an explanation of the circumstances which induced me to accept the office of Commissioner, as I trust, will prove satisfactory; and should you still deem me worthy of a continuance of that confidence which you have invariably placed in me, during the last thirteen years, you may rely that I shall, at all times, to the utmost of my humble abilities, endeavour to promote the general interests of the Colony, with a due regard to your local wants.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen, Your very obt. humble Servt., JOHN S. MACDONALD.

Charlottetown, Dec. 26th, 1843.

To the Independent Electors of the Second District of Queen's County.

GENTLEMEN; I am complying with a Public invitation given me, by a respectable number of you, to become a Candidate for your suffrages at the approaching election, I would state, that in doing so, I have been actuated by a sense of that duty, which I, as a Colonist, owe to my Country, and that if I hesitated in coming forward, at the present important crisis—when every one is imperatively called upon to use his privileges with judgment and independence—I should be deservedly branded as a traitor to the popular cause. Your liberties are at stake, and, in fact, the issue of the election for this District is to confirm or weaken the unparalleled administration of Sir Henry. If his measures are to prevail, what will our lot be ere long? Independent Subjects? Nay, but crouching slaves, unworthy of the name of Britons. But have we it not in our power to ally this degradation and sacrifice of our just rights? And who so base as to forge chains for his own thraldom?

As to my principles, I presume they were fully tested during the eight years for which I occupied a Seat in the Colonial Legislature. Knowing these, it is for you to say, whether I am again worthy of the responsible trust which I then held and—I feel conscious—discharged of the Colony. If the Liberals were not at once successful in obtaining an amelioration of my suffering fellow Colonists' condition, their efforts were not devoid of some beneficial results to the Colony. And it is only for the people to persevere, in order to gain their constitutional rights.

To the advocacy of these rights my best energies and humble talents will be devoted, if I be returned as your Representative, which, from the liberal assurances of support I have received, seems doubtless. Then, wherever your local interest may require my aid, I need not state that it will be cheerfully afforded.

Be true to yourselves, and believe me to be, Your most obedient Servant, JOHN W. LE LACHEUR.

Charlottetown, 3rd January, 1844.

To the Electors of Charlottetown and Royalty.

GENTLEMEN;—My acceptance of the office formerly held by my late lamented father, having caused the seat which I occupied in the House of Assembly, as your Representative, to be declared vacant, I feel that I would be doing you an injustice, were I not to give you an opportunity of voting for or against me at the ensuing Election of a Member, for the filling up of that vacancy.

I therefore beg to offer myself a Candidate for your suffrages; assuring you that, should I again have the high honor of becoming one of your Representatives, it shall, as heretofore, be my most ardent desire to serve you as I ought, and to the best of my humble abilities, honestly and independently.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen, With much respect, Your obedient humble servant, FRANCIS LONGWORTH.
