TO THE PROUD OLD LION

A Canadian Tribute to the proud old lion of Britain, a Symposium of the Royal Canadian Englishman of His Time, Sir Winston Spencer Churchill, K.G., on his eighty-third birthday, November 30, 1957.

This strange how destiny guards the cause of chosen ones. Sighting their earnest best efforts powers. On less men than her unfavourable. Until the golden-sounding bugle.

Before the curtain of some scene. When brightly beams the stage in carnation. And prompting history whispers.

Then comes the hero's time, with his hour he speaks. With mighty accents, champion of fettered people, heartening the strong.

With the world's conscience the great voice that wakes Above the tempest, thundering forth his laws. Of God and man, like some great hall-singer.

NATHANIEL A. BENSON

Mr. Benson, Canadian poet, author and teacher, composed and dedicated this sonnet to Sir Winston Churchill. It was printed in the Toronto Telegram.

Hamils Are Feted On 50th Wedding Anniversary

Open house for Mr and Mrs. G. Willard Hamill of 189 Ashcroft, Waltham who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Saturday, November 23rd, was attended by guests from California, New York, Rhode Island and Connecticut in addition to many friends from this area.

Mr Hamill, a machinist for the Comor Company of Waltham has been a local officer in Waltham's Salvation Army Corps for 30 years and served for number of years as secretary on the local advisory board. Mrs. Hamill has been a local officer in the Salvation Army League of Mercy.

Bronze emblems and bronze and white porcelain decorated the Hamill home for the reception. The table was centered with a large cake flanked by gold candles. Mrs. Hamill and her two daughters were present with corsages, and as favors, tiny gold sea shells were given to each guest.

Mr and Mrs. Hamill were born in Alberton, Prince Edward Island, and came to Waltham in 1905. They were married at the Salvation Army Headquarters in Boston by the late G.W. William Evans. Their attendants were Mr and Mrs. Alfred Barton of Moncton, New Brunswick. The only living member of the wedding party; Mrs. Barton was unable to attend, but sent a message of greetings to the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamill have seven children: Willard, Lloyd and Clifford of North Hollywood, Cal.; Robert of Trumbull, Conn.; Arthur of South Sudbury; Mrs. Susan of Laguna Hills of Waltham Hills, Calif.; and Mrs. Joseph O'Neill (Blanche) of Waltham. There are 14 grandchildren.

The couple's daughter came from California and a tape-recorded message from their three

There is a very fine four-column picture of Mrs. Alison MacMillan of Prince Edward Island in a Toronto paper, Mrs. MacMillan is shown in bed at the Sunbrook Hospital but she is smiling and vibrant personality is as forceful as ever.

Quoting her bedside is Mrs. Robert Martin, a beautiful nurse with a smile as gorgeous as God's.

They are both having some fun over arranging a bowl of Christmas World War I. Mrs. MacMillan O.B.K. and holder of the Royal Red Cross, was a nursing sister in World War I. Mrs. MacMillan has also been a prominent member of the Women's Institutes.

Mrs. H. H. Simpson, York Lane leaves next Wednesday to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Warren and their family of Morrisville, Pennsylvania.

Prince Edward Island does not lose any interesting visitors. One of them at present Mrs. Sonia Findlay of Galveston, Texas, was in the city on a business mission, very pretty in face and form. Her arresting black eyes, evincing intelligence. She was chatting with Mrs. Frank at the Queen Hotel and Mrs. Frank is the writer invited for the introduction to the Friday.

Mrs. Sonia Findlay was brought up in New Orleans, Louisiana and received her degree of D.D.S. from Loyola, University of the South. She interned at Forsyth Institute, Boston, Mass. She visited Levant in 1954 and she visited Mrs. Findlay. It was impressed with the dynamic growth of Israel. Two voices aroused my attention — the singing voices of its youth and the constant sound of hammer in rapid rhythm, in contrast. I am returning to visit it again.

Mrs. Findlay sailed from Houston on the 24th November on the Israeli ship S. S. Tapuz. They called into New Orleans and Newport News, where they loaded 43 prized Brahmin Bulls for breeding purpose. The Israeli government sent an Israeli "Kibbutnik" an authority on cattle breeding. A kibbutnik lives in a kibbutz which is a co-operative farm. This particular kibbutz has over 350 head of cattle at its kibbutz.

The S. S. Tapuz is loading seed potatoes in Summerside for Greece and Israel. Mrs. Findlay heard of Charlottetown and after sight seeing in Summerside came by Wednesday morning to Charlottetown. The S. Tapuz arrived in Charlottetown Thursday and will complete loading here.

Mrs. Findlay took a post-grad course in orthopedics at the University of Glasgow. It is called orthopedics. The course included special work in cleft palate service with Dr. Kerr McNeil, an authority on orthopedics.

Mrs. Findlay was visiting the many points of interest in the vicinity of Charlottetown and was kind enough to show a few people over the ship Tapuz.

Miss Ruth Rossell of Montreal will arrive in Charlottetown December 16th to spend the holiday season with her family.

Reminded of it as one said "by a feel of snow in the air" the farmers brought home today, the sleighs that had been stored in the buildings at the other farm, which runs by the far side of Rob's. It would be, as James pointed out, little short a factually, despite the tractor and other wheels of the place, to be caught unprepared to attend to the various fetchings and carryings which belong with the farming, in the event of a snowfall.

On that other mare one of those "times" to allow us if need be to watch the December snowflakes drift down in coconut.

Today's wind was chill, with a keen edge to it, honed we fancied in cold November days. The sunlight was pale and brittle and for the most part, it was quiet gray skies that dipped down to rest on the hills.

"But we'll not get snow — not soon at any rate!" James said, looking out along the reach of the countryside. "The sheep have not come home yet!" he nodded.

Sheep are interesting creatures and pretty now so warmly curled against the winds and the cold. We see them come towards evening from their range of fields and into the barnyard where they drink at the stream below the front meadow. And then in easy stages, but surely, return up the slope to spend the night in higher ground.

However a snowstorm warning will gather them to the barnyard. Where do they find such a token? Perhaps the roving Goodnight. . . .

Until tomorrow — Diary Goodnight. . . .
