Canadian Declares Russians Interfere With Fishermen

STEVENSON, B.C. (CP)—A Canadian skipper said here Russian fishing ships are preventing other boats from fishing in Queen Charlotte Sound. Captain Arne Selnes of Coquitlam, B.C. said the Russians are preventing fishing by others by sailing into their paths and stealing net lights. "They are ignoring all the rules of the sea," he said. "They have no regard for our property. They sail across our

Idea That Assisted Allies To Be Tried As Fundy Dock

CAPE DORCHESTER, N.B. (CP)—An idea that helped the allies in the Second World War has been enlisted to battle 42-foot tides of the Bay of Fundy, among the highest in the world. The idea is a floating dock, used by the allies in the Normandy invasion of France in 1944 to supply troops ashore. It's being built here by Canadian Bechtel Ltd.—for the New Brunswick Development Corp. It will be used for vessels supplying the Westmorland Chemical Park, one of the major industrial developments in the province.

TO BE FINISHED SOON
Construction of the $2,500,000 floating docking facility began five months ago and the project is expected to be completed about Nov. 15. The concrete dock itself will be at the end of a 1,200-foot-long causeway. The causeway was needed to overcome winter problems caused by ice building up near shore. The wharf, weighing 7,000 tons and held afloat by an in-
