Local and Other Items.

BEAUTIFUL WEATHER.

MAILS arrived at 3.30.

TO-NIGHT.—Entertainment in St. Paul's Schoolroom.

STIPENDIARY MAGISTRATE'S COURT.—Two Scott Act cases were further postponed.

MILITIA DRILL.—No. 3 Company, 82nd Battalion are requested to meet for drill this evening.

QUERY.—Will there be a special train at Souris to-morrow to bring the passengers by Northern Light to town.

NORTHERN LIGHT.—The Northern Light arrived at Pictou from Souris at ten o'clock this forenoon, and leaves on return early to-morrow forenoon.

DON'T FORGET IT.—The programme of the entertainment to be given in St. Paul's Schoolroom this evening will be found in another column. Read it.

EVENING SESSION.—Last evening, both Houses had "evening sessions"; result,—a lot of gas burnt, a lot of gas blown off, and little or nothing done.

POSTPONED.—The Bellevue Hotel Committee not having all their arrangements completed, the meeting called for this evening is postponed until further notice.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICE.—Tuesday last being the anniversary of the death of the late Archbishop of Halifax, a Requiem Mass was celebrated by the Archbishop in St. Mary's cathedral.

ICE.—There is a good deal of ice in Orwell bay and Georgetown Harbor yet. Advices from the latter place this forenoon state that teams are still crossing in the neighborhood of the railway wharf.

WORK OF THE SESSION.—The Nova Scotia Legislature, which was prorogued a few days ago, passed one hundred and fifty-one bills. The Legislative Council rejected the Quebec resolutions and the bill to abolish their own Chamber.

KERMISS.—The ladies of St. Peter's Church will hold a Kermiss on board the steamer Southport on or about the 14th June next. St. Peter's Boys' Band will be in attendance, and there will be refreshments and other attractions.

ACCIDENT.—A man named Neil McKenzie had the third finger of his left hand broken near the last joint while working at the morticing machine in the Railway carpenter shop this forenoon. Dr. S. R. Jenkins dressed the wound.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—The Shippers Guide to lines of Canadian Express Companies, for 1888, has been furnished us by Mr. Theo. L. Chappelle. It is a neatly printed book of some 96 pages, and is very valuable to those doing business with express companies.

SPIRITUALISM.—There are quite a number of spiritualists in Moncton. The Times says that seances are held quite regularly, and among those who have been in attendance are at least two clergymen of an evangelical denomination, and several professional and mercantile gentlemen.

LEGISLATIVE.—Last evening the House of Assembly was in session until shortly before midnight considering the Supply to Her Majesty. This forenoon several bills, among which was one to incorporate the Charlottetown Library Association, were advanced a stage, and some other business was transacted.

CURIOUS CAUSE OF FIRE.—A Halifax despatch says: The sun shining through a powerful magnifying glass at Maplewood, the residence of M. B. Albon, set fire to a window casing on Saturday, and in a twinkling the whole room was in flames. The fire was not extinguished till it had caused about $200 damage.

PERSONAL.—Thomas Handrahan, Esq., has returned from his trip to the Old Country.

Mr. A. C. MacDonald, of Montague, is visiting the city.

Mr. Bruce Findlay, son of W. H. Findlay, Esq., of this city, has arrived home after passing a very successful examination at the Philadelphia Dental College.

MISINFORMED.—THE EXAMINER was misinformed as to the departure of Rev. S. Weston-Jones. It appears that he left Souris with Rev. J. Simpson in the Northern Light this morning. In his absence the services at St. Paul's Church on next Sunday will be conducted by the Rev. W. H. Sampson, Rector of Milton. Holy Communion at 8.30. Morning and evening service as usual.

AN IMPROVEMENT.—Ottawa advices state that the post office department has effected an improvement in the mail service from the Maritime Provinces, by which, for the first time in the history of the country, letters and papers posted in places in those provinces on Saturday afternoon arrive in Ottawa early Monday night. In the past it has always been Tuesday before these mails arrive at Ottawa.

SPRING POETRY.—The following spring poem is going the rounds. It savors strongly of the Diamond Bookstore man:—

The maiden has deffed her sealskin sacque,
For the bright days of spring have come
bacque,
And she wants papa's cheque,
Her person to decque,
If his funds will sustain the attacque.

GOOD WORK.—Mr. C. D. Anderson, agent for the Union Mutual Insurance Company of Maine, looks happy and proud, as he has received the monthly bonus paid by this company to the agent doing the most business, twice in succession. This is not only flattering to Mr. Anderson but to Albuquerque, as the company does business in all portions of the United States.—Albuquerque, N. M. Democrat.

The Mr. Anderson referred to above is an Islander, and was formerly engaged in the furniture business at Souris.

THE M. A. STARR.—By private advices from Halifax we learn that the steamer M. A. Starr is now all ready for her season's work, and is only waiting the removal of the ice to resume her eastern trips. The Starr has been sheathed from stem to stern, with 2-inch plank from three feet below the guards—and covering strips of copper—up to two streaks above guard, and has also been trenailed in every timber. Her engines and boilers have been overhauled under the Inspector's supervision, and some other improvements have been made which will add to the comfort and convenience of all who patronize her. Capt. Ferguson is still in command, and Mr. W. W Clarke continues to act as agent at this port.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT

CHIGNECTO SHIP RAILWAY.

The Time Extended.

OTTAWA, April 19.

In the House of Commons after recess,—Sir Charles Tupper moved the second reading of the bill extending the time for the completion of the Chignecto Ship Railway.

Messrs. Jones, Welsh, Ellis and Edgar expressed regret that the Government continued to countenance the scheme and thought it should be dropped.

Sir Charles defended the bill, showing that the House, six years ago, committed itself unanimously on the scheme, that the bill asked for no money, and that under the charter the Government would not be called on for a single dollar until the railway was completed and in operation for a year.

Sir Richard Cartwright thought that as the time allowed for the completion of the work would expire in July, the Government should take this opportunity of getting rid of the public obligations in regard to it.

The House divided on the motion for its second reading, which was carried by 84 to 52.

THE EMPEROR FREDERICK.

His Condition Less Favorable.

THE WORST FEARED.

BERLIN, April 19.

According to trustworthy information the gravest fears are entertained of the speedy ending of the Emperor's disease. It is apprehended from his present condition that death will ensue within a week

LONDON, April 19.

The following despatch was received by the Exchange Telegraph Company:—

"BERLIN, 2.30 p. m.—The condition of the Emperor is less favorable; he is losing strength and general belief in his approaching death is gaining ground."

BERLIN, April 19, 9.30 p. m.

The Emperor has not left his bed to-day. The accounts of his suffering are distressing. He said to Chaplain Goegle: "You pray for my preservation; rather pray for my release." He perseveres in the transaction of business, and does not cease writing.

On the whole, the Emperor is less feverish than yesterday. In the course of the day a large quantity of pus was discharged. His breathing is now more quiet.

THE SCOTT ACT.

A WATERLOO.

Every County Rejects It

TORONTO, April 19.

The Scott Act suffered a Waterloo today in Ontario. The repeal of the Act was carried in every county in which it was voted upon to-day; and the result is looked upon as a sign that the Scott Act must go. Dundas, Stormont and Glengarry, which had adopted the Canada Temperance Act by a majority of 1,706, to-day wiped out that vote, and gave a majority of 2,500 for repeal. Bruce practically reversed its former figures. In every instance the majority for repeal was a decisive one. The following are the majorities for repeal: Bruce, 1,400; Dufferin, 795; Dundas, Stormont and Glengarry, 1,706; Huron, 1,653; Norfolk, 1,037; Renfrew, 730; Simcoe, 1,183.

THE PEASANTS REVOLT.

Several Officers Killed.

MUCH PROPERTY DESTROYED

BUCHAREST, April 19.

Details of the rising of peasants describe the revolt as widespread. The peasants are destroying houses and property in most of the villages. Landowners and farmers houses have been sacked and wrecked, and granaries pillaged. Local officials have been barbarously treated and a number killed. The territorial troops have joined in the pillage. The peasants fired upon the troops of the line. Since instructions were sent the troops to adopt severe measures for the suppression of the revolt, a host of insurgents have been killed and wounded, or taken prisoners. The prisons are crowded. Fugitives continue to pour into Bucharest

Scandalous.

TORONTO, April 19.

A scandal has arisen here in Methodist circles over charges of immorality against Rev. B. Longley, Pastor of Queen Street Methodist Church. Mr. Longley has tendered his resignation, and will, it is said retire from the ministry. He came here from the Dominion Church, Ottawa, two years ago. He is a married man, about 38 years of age.

Address to the Queen.

FLORENCE, April 19.

A deputation last night presented Queen Victoria with an address signed by 1000 British residents of Florence. They marched in procession to the villa with 4,000 torchlights and six bands. Owing to the grave news from Berlin the Queen will probably leave for that city to-morrow.
