THE DAILY EXAMINER.

JUNE 12, 1895.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

—It is hard to please the Opposition. Now they are fulminating against the Government for being too economical in respect to some of the Ottawa officials.

—The Montreal Gazette states that cheese has recovered from the sudden slump in prices which occurred a few weeks ago, and is regaining a figure which will afford a profit to the makers."

—Mail and Empire: "If $4,000 was too much for Mr. Cockburn to expend as Canadian Commissioner at the Chicago Exhibition, what did Mr. Awrey, the Ontario Commissioner, do with the $11,728 which he drew?"

—The fact that Mr. Laurier and his supporters in Parliament deliberately absented themselves from the ceremony of unveiling the statue of Sir John Macdonald in Montreal, is much commented upon by the papers. It is stated that they wrote Sir H. L. Joly asking him to absent himself, but the ex-premier of Quebec positively refused to abide by Ottawa grit dictation.

—Sir Grant Duff in a recent interview article divides Englishmen into two classes —fools and free traders—and then goes on to deplore the fact that free trade, which Cobden called the "international law of the Almighty," goes back in most parts of Europe. An exchange remarks that Sir Grant is like the self-satisfied juryman who could not agree with eleven fools who had been chosen to try with him the cause at issue.

—A despatch from St. John's, Newfoundland states that one of the Whiteway Government retrenchment proposals is the abolition of the Allan line ocean mails between Philadelphia, Halifax, St. John's and Liverpool, and the substitution therefor a special service between St. John's, Halifax and Boston by local steamers. This, it is estimated, would effect a saving of $25,000 and will largely increase the trade between Newfoundland and New England.

—Montreal Gazette: Signs of reviving trade multiply with revolving weeks and the evidences of permanency in the recuperation are becoming more and more numerous. The period of mere anticipation of better business in the near future has passed and the better business itself has come. It has come in the shape of heavier railway traffics, of expanding bank note circulation, of rising prices of staple commodities, of increasing Clearing house returns, of larger imports of foreign merchandise, of a growing output of domestic manufactures and products, of a decline in the number of insolvencies. Any one of these factors might excite belief that the commercial dullness of the last year or two was drawing to a close, but when all occur simultaneously the conclusion that the upward course has again been entered upon is not strained.

—The statement of revenue and expenditure for May, shows that the revenue of Canada for the month was $434,081 more and the expenditure $242,827 more than for the same month last year. The figures are: Receipts, $3,057,241; expenditure, $3,082,039. Last year the receipts were $2,623,160 and the expenditure $3,324,866. May is one of the months when the expenditure generally exceeds the receipts, as large amounts for interest fall due on the first of May. For the eleven months of the fiscal year the receipts have been $30,506,840 and the expenditure $29,302,832, showing a surplus of $1,204,088. The expenditure on capital account for the eleven months has been $3,415,591, which is $993,503 less than same period last year. The position of the public debt on 31st May this year and last year was as follows:

Gross debt	$304,670,814	$316,029,502
Assets.....	63,846,218	68,635,326
Net debt...	240,844,596	247,394,176
Debt Apl' 30	240,009,928	247,516,223

PERSONAL.

Mr. Hughill, of the Furness line, left for Halifax via Pictou.

John B. Gough, of Summerside, graduated at the Boston School of Theology recently.

E. L. Foster and Thomas R. Flint, of Montreal, registered at the Hotel Davies this forenoon.

Mr. G. Crawford, of St. John, a well-known and popular commercial ambassador, is at the Hotel Davies.

Mr. G. A. Robinson, representing the Massey-Harris Company, Toronto, is registered at the Queen Hotel.

Mr. Flockton, the actor, has returned to the Island and again settled down comfortably for the summer in Flocton Villa, Bay Fortune Cape.

Mr. G. S. Moore, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia at Sussex, is off on his vacation, which he is to spend on Prince Edward Island.

There registered at the Queen Hotel today: Rev J E Tiner, Montague; Mrs Montgomery, Park Corner; Mrs James Ross, Mount Stewart.

There has been a change of ministry in Turkey. Said Pasha is now Grand Vizier. His appointment is said to be due to the necessity for financial reform.

Dr. Macleod, who left here on Monday last, in response to a telegram from the Magdalen Islands, to attend a patient there, returned this forenoon by train from Souris.

About five hundred people attended the jubilee celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the enthronization of the late metripolitan as bishop of the diocese of Fredericton.

Rev. Dr. Carman, General Superintendent of the Methodist Church, will occupy the pulpit of the First Methodist Church on the last Sabbath in this month. The Rev. Dr. Potts, General Secretary of Education in the Methodist, and the leading pulpit orator of the denomination, will spend the first Sabbath in September in Charlottetown. This will be Dr. Potts' first visit to this Province.

The Edinburgh correspondent of the London Tablet writes: "The Right Rev. Dr. Cameron, Bishop of Antigonish, and the Right Rev. Dr. Macdonald, Bishop of Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, arrived in Edinburgh on Saturday, 25th May, and assisted at the High Mass in the Cathedral on Sunday. Their Lordships visited the various places of interest in the city, and were received by the Lord High Commissioner, Lord Breadalbane, at Holyrood Palace. They were the guests at the Cathedral House during their short stay."

The station agents along the lines of the Canadian Pacific Railway and Northern Pacific Railway report in very encouraging terms as to the crop prospects in Manitoba and the Territories.

SKETCHES IN THE SENATE.

Parliamentary procedure and terms become familiar as household words to those who live in the Capital as well as to those who frequent it. "Commons Chamber" and "Senate," "Government" and "Opposition," "Speaker" and "Leader," "Hansard and Press Gallery," "Sergeant-at-Arms," "Black Rod," "Mace," "Motions," "Debates," "Adjournments,"—all these terms become veritable A. B. C's. to the frequenters of the House on the hill. But I often wonder whether they convey any different conception to the mass of our people, those who have never had the opportunity of visiting our legislative halls, or looking down with critical eyes from the galleries.

Things that are familiar to us are therefore equally familiar to others,—is an axiom we unconsciously assume, and half the difficulties of life arises from the false assumption.

The rarest art of writing is to make the matter real to those who read, and in order to do this it must be presented with no vague conception, but as a vivid mental picture of the subject.

Take the Canadian Senate for instance. There is probably no official body about which less is known by the people, nor any whose importence is more underrated. Yet the history of this august body past and present is full of interest, and the record of its work endures in the constitution and laws of which Canada is so justly proud.

Looking down from the gallery I have been wondering whether it were possible to give to those who have never seen a legislative chamber some conception of this luxurious Red Room, all aglow with its soft crimson carpets, and stained glass lights. Broad corridors bind it, whose walls are hung with portraits of past members,—fine oil paintings of finer men, whose lives and work wrought nobly in the making of our nation.

It is still and airy within the chamber. Speaker sits below the crimson-draped throne, clerks and reporters surround the table, the Senators are arranged on either side, while the Sergeant-at-Arms and Black Rod sit guard with the brass bar. Without the bar we may come and go, without ceremony, provided we make no noise; but no visitor thinks of ever speaking above breath in the still atmosphere at the Senate Chamber.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell is speaking now on the Insolvency Bill. His throat affection is still occasionally troublesome, but his voice rings out as he proceeds with all its usual vigor. On his left is Hon. Mr. Angers, Minister of Agriculture, while to his right sits Sir Frank Smith. The Senate contains three present Knights, Sir David McPherson making the third; and two Commanders, Hon. Senators Cowan and Pelletier.

Grouped about these are other men of note, scholarly, cultured, of legal acumen, or administrative experiences, whose presence in the Senate is both an honor and a strength to the country.

The fact that the Government leader occupied a seat in the Senate gives the Upper Chamber an interest in the public mind that it has hitherto lacked. Certainly Sir John Abbott was a member of the Senate, but his leading was generally viewed as nominal. The real pilots of the ship of state were to be found in the Commons Chamber.

The present conditions are somewhat different. There is no question that Sir Mackenzie Bowell is Premier in reality as well as in name, and that his will and judgment determined the present course of the nation's voyaging. And whether or not the waters be turbulent or calm, it is distinctly understood that his hand is on the helm. A firm hand it is, too. There was never a greater fallacy than that fostered by certain portions of the press, that the Premier lacks resolution. He is markedly resolute, with a perseverance, zeal and capacity for work that amounts to genius. And above these, he is a man of his word, and his honor is irreproachable.

There are other reasons why the Senate Chamber is more attractive than the Commons' The atmosphere is purer.

This may be true in a figurative sense. I think it is. Certainly it is a literal fact. Whether the ventilation be better, or whether the smaller numbers together with the calm dispassion of discussion tend to modify existing conditions, I cannot say; but in these warm June days, it is a relief to pass from the stifling breath of the Commons into the cool quiet of the Senate.

The material conditions seem to imply a corresponding mental state. One feels instantly that here may be found dispassionate discussion, an absence of prejudice, the calm consideration profitable to fair and wise judgment. Here a question is discussed, upon its merits only; and since there is no constituency to please or displease, no prejudice of race or religion to fear, it receives a fair and impartial verdict.

The more we consider the question, the more reasonable and wise a thing it seems that this Senate Chamber should exist as a safe guard in the interests of the nation.

It is impossible for a public man however, honorable in intent, to see with clear far-sighted vision, when an election and a possible angry constituency looms in the foreground. Self-presentation is an instinct with all men, and there are few politicians courageous enough to brave the disfavor of their constituencies. Indeed it is perhaps an open question whether they are not justified in sacrificing their personal convictions in the interests of the same.

But the Senate Chamber contains statesmen rather than politicians. The majority are men having experience of long public service behind them, who in the late afternoon of their lives are able to sympathise with the passion and energy of the morning, yet to legislate beyond it.

FAITH FENTON.

DO YOU VOTE, GRIT OR TORY?

Will be a question which before long perhaps, will be put to the people of this country. 'Tis important, possibly, but the daily needs of the citizens are the vital things with which we have to do. And one of these needs in the opening spring; is a Rigby coat. We want rain to break up the ice, but do not want it down the nape of the neck, because we want to live. Rigby Porus Waterproofs are simply the best in the world. Practically Rigby is without serious rival to-day. The best advertisement is the satisfaction which Rigby has given to the thousands who have worn it. Think of it—a perfect character—a perfect waterproof; a handsome tweed overcoat, with unlimited choice of patterns. Nothing clammy about it. Porus, light and warm. Rigby is indispensible.

OBITUARY.

We announce to-day the death of James Ellis Todd Alleyne, a nephew of Edward B. Alleyne, E-q., of Hillsborough House—who has fallen an early victim to pneumonia. From an early age the deceased gave evidence of mechanical genius of a high order. While engaged in a machinery establishment at Boston, where his parents reside, he fell ill. Afterwards he came to Prince Edward Island for the benefit of his health. Here he received efficient medical attendance, and was carefully nursed in the house of his uncle. For a time his health improved. But an attack of pneumonia proved too much for his remaining strength. His death will be much regretted by his friends abroad. His remains were interred in St. Alban's churchyard, Mount Stewart.

GENERAL TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

London, June 10.—The Press Association this evening states that leading English politicians have intimated to the members of the Rosebery cabinet that they, the ministers, will be supported by the public opinion of the country if Great Britain joins with the other powers in a display of force as a reply to the attitude of the Turkish government and the proposals of the powers for the reform of Armenia.

Denver, Col., June 10.—The synod of the Reformed Presbyterian church of North America to-day adopted resolutions in favor of changing the constitution of the United States by inserting: "A clear and explicit acknowledgment of Almighty God as the source of all power and of Jesus Christ's rule in all affairs." Rev. J. C. McFeetore of Philadelphia, Dr. H. H. George and other speakers declared the country's financial troubles were due to the fact that the supreme power of God was not acknowledged in our constitution.

New York, June 10.—A correspondent at Santiago de Cuba sends the following under date, May 20th. The rebels seem to feel themselves very strong, as they frequently come near this city. For the last few days they have been coming to the suburbs and taking cattle. Yesterday about five hundred came and took eighty beeves away with them, without being molested. The insurgents are strong and bold in Guantanamo also. They have again removed the tracks between that city and Baracoa, a very important port on the north coast of the island. Captain General Campos is dissatisfied with Generals Lachambre and Saloodo, and he has ordered them both to Spain. Some of the blood-thirsty Spaniards are beginning to show their colors. It is learned on good authority that some of them had a meeting last night at which a general presided. There was great excitement, many calling for Cuban blood; but while Marshal Martinez Campos is here there is no fear of anything of that kind. The Spanish paper of this city also had an article in which it practically advocated a massacre of Cubans.

Montreal, June 10.—It is stated that Sister Caron of Quebec, sister of Sir A. P. Caron, will shortly join the African missions of the Roman Catholic church. Her brother, Rev. Father Caron, a member of the Redemptorist order, who was for some time connected with St. Anne's parish, in this city, left for the West Indies about twelve months ago to take up mission work there.

Denver, Col., June 10.—On the Hamilton amendment, proposed three years ago at Omaha, declaring women ineligible to membership in the Methodist Episcopal conference, the Colorado conference voted to-day: Aye, none; nays, 60; not voting, 15. The action of the laymen was Aye, 16; nay, 455. On endorsing the Baltimore amendment declaring them eligible: Aye, 66; nay, 3. The Colorado conference is the first that has acted upon the matter.

Shanghai, June 10.—The report of the total destruction of the missions at Chengtu, Kiating and Yochou has been confirmed. The local officials refused protection to the missionaries until the mob had completed the work of demolishing the buildings. The mission stations at those places have been threatened. About twenty adults besides a number of children have taken refuge at Chengtu and Yamen. Viceroy Lin is blamed for the affair.

Berlin, June 10.—An explosion of fire damp occurred in the mining pit near Antoniechutte, Prussian Silesia, to-day, while 500 men were at work in the mine. Only 40 were rescued, leaving 460 entombed.

Vienna, June 10.—Advices from Wiener, Neuttadt, state recent cloudburst in that section washed away a great number of bridges and houses in the comunes of Schwarzenbach, Schidden and Hochwoltersdof, in some instances carrying away buildings the entire length of streets and submerging large tract of territory. Twelve persons were drowned in the town of Schwarzenbach. It is believed the total loss of life was very great, The damage done in these places, which pecuniarily is over 300,000 florins, cannot be repaired for years.

Augusta, Me., June 10.— Returns from Aroostook county potato dealers to the state board of agriculture show an aggregate loss from the recent slump in prices of $275,000 in that county. The people who held their potatoes for $2 per barrel are selling them to the starch factories for 30 cents per barrel. This means an increase of 300 tons over the starch product of Aroostook last year. The new potato crop is planted to exceed more than one third that of last year, and if it matures all right the product of the county will reach about ten million bushels.

A pleasing agitation will shortly fill the minds of the ladies touching new costumes. Nothing better can be obtained than a Cravenette. In a variety of shades, it makes up as a smart costume or wrap, or cloak, if need be, while it is at the same time absolutely impervious to rain or dust. It is rainproof, and yet as porous as any other dress material, so that it is free from the objections of the rubber goods. Cravenette in Navy, Myrtle, Brown, Grey, Castor and Black, the ideal dress goods for spring and summer. Save money, in wear, while it guarantees as distinguished appearance.

Miss Eliza Wesley, the granddaugter of Charles and grandniece of John Wesley, died recently in London at the age of 76. She was a church organist, as were her father and two of her brothers. Her father, Samuel Wesley, composed his oratorio of "Ruth" a hundred and twenty-one years ago, in 1774, fifteen years before Mozart wrote "Don Giovanni," and while Beethoven was a boy of four.

Crop reports from Winnipeg indicate that throughout Manitoba and the Territories, as a result of the early sowing, the crops are in a very advanced condition. The frost of the last month had rather a beneficial effect, strengthening the roots of the wheat plant and so helping on its later growth.

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL

Government Charged With Being Too Economical.

Ottawa, June 12.

The Minister of Finance had to defend himself and the Government yesterday against the charge of too great economy. A petition lately presented to Parliament by the Auditor-General, protesting against the action of the Government in refusing to provide means to promote two of the Auditor's clerks to a higher class, and for declining to increase the Auditor's office contingency account, was supported by Mr. Mills, who brought the matter up, and by Sir Richard Cartwright. The attack and defence cover a good deal of ground.

The Fredericton Jubilee.

St. John, June 12.

The Reason Why Carter's Hazzard's Improved Turnip Seed is the Best:

Our supply of Hazzard's Improved Turnip Seed is grown exclusively for our own trade by Messrs. James Carter & Co., the Queen's Seedsmen, London, England. This is the leading seed growing establishment of Great Britain. We supply to this firm yearly a few pounds of the true genuine stock of Hazzard's Improved Turnip Seed, contracting for the growth from this stock of a certain specified quantity, and when harvested we take the whole of it. No other firm in Canada can buy a pound of this seed except from us.

OUR HAZZARD'S IMPROVED COSTS US MORE THAN ORDINARY STOCKS. A firm of world-wide reputation, such as James Carter & Co., of London, does not need to contract at low prices; their prices are high but they are experts in seed growing, and we can depend on having the best that can be produced.

We cannot risk our business reputation by handling doubtful seed, however cheap; and no farmer can afford to risk his valuable acres by sowing doubtful seeds, however cheap. Buy Hazzard's Improved Turnip Seed in our sealed packets, and you have the best in Canada. The price is 45 cents per lb.

HOME GROWN HAZZARD'S IMPROVED.—We have had grown for the past two years near Charlottetown some choice seed of the true Hazzard's Improved, and we believe it is better than even our English stock. We call it "Carter's Home-Grown Hazzard's Improved." It is sold only in sealed packages at 50 cents per lb.

The above named strains of Turnip Seed, and also Carter's Prize Winner Swede (40c. per lb), are put up only in sealed cardboard packages, ¼ lb., ½ lb. and 1 lb. sizes, and each package bears our name and address.

For sale by our authorized Agents in all the leading trade centres of P. E. Island, and at our Seed Store, or will be sent by mail, postage paid, on receipt of price.
