EEL EATER

SOUTH OCKENDON, England (CP)—Sammy Page, 52, of this Essex town claimed the world eel-eating record after downing 26 bowls of jellied eels in 50 minutes. The old record was 25 bowls in an hour.

Orioles Nip Yankees 6-5; Philadelphia Blasts Mets

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Baltimore Orioles whipped New York Yankees for the second straight time Saturday, 6-5, on rookie outfielder Sam Bowens' homer in the 10th inning and opened up a 1½-game American League lead over Chicago White Sox.

The Yankees, who led the league three days ago, fell to third, two games back.

The White Sox exploded for five runs in the second inning and coasted to a 9-2 victory over Boston Red Sox. Rookie Fred Talbot had a shutout until the ninth.

In the National League, Philadelphia Phillies continued to feast on the hapless New York Mets with a 12-5 victory.

The Phillies protected their 2½-game lead over San Francisco Giants, who nipped Cincinnati Reds 1-0 in a night game behind Gaylord Perry's two-hitter and Willie Mays' run-scoring triple.

In other American League action, Cleveland Indians trounced Minnesota Twins 16-8 and Detroit Tigers edged Kansas City Athletics 4-3 in 13 innings.

10TH WIN FOR KOUFAX

Sandy Koufax of Los Angeles Dodgers won his 17th victory against five defeats, 5-4, over Milwaukee Braves and set a National League record of striking out 200 or more for the fourth straight season. Sandy struck out nine and ran his total to an even 200 for the year.

Ron Fairly's triple with the bases loaded sparked a four-run fifth that got the Dodgers in front to stay.

Bob Dailey and Gene Freese homered to back up Bob Veale's seven-hit pitching as Pittsburgh Pirates whipped Chicago Cubs 5-2.

Houston Colts snapped St. Louis' winning streak at three with a 4-3 victory over the Cards as reliever Jim Owens choked off an eighth-inning rally and pitched out of a ninth-inning jam.

Aubrey Gatewood and Bob Lee checked Washington on six hits in Los Angeles Angels' 3-0 decision over the Senators.

MacKenzie Leads Amateur Tourney

Merlin MacKenzie, playing on his home Belvedere course, fired a one over par 73 Saturday to hold a one stroke lead at the midway point of the Island amateur golf championships.

Just one shot back of MacKenzie with 74s were Bill Moreside and Bill Beer, both of the Belvedere Club.

The opening 18 holes of the Island Amateur were played at the City club Saturday with the final 18 holes to be played in Summerside this Saturday.

Frank MacInnis, Belvedere, fired a three over par 75 for sole possession of fourth place and Derwin Huestis, Belvedere, has 76.

Summerside's top performer, Otto Furchak, was tied for sixth place with Charlottetown junior, Bob Irwin. Both had rounds of 77.

SHARK RECORD

FALMOUTH, England (CP)—A Mako shark, 11 feet six-inches long and weighing 476 pounds, was landed here in Cornwall by 23-year-old William Rogers. The Shark Angling Club of Great Britain has now confirmed it as a British shark record.

Mets Trade Frank Lary

NEW YORK (AP)—New York Mets traded veteran pitcher Frank Lary to Milwaukee Braves Saturday for Denny Ribant, a young right - handed pitcher from the Braves' Denver farm club of the Pacific Coast League.

In addition to Lary, Milwaukee received a cash payment estimated at about $25,000.

Lary, a long-time star with Detroit Tigers, came to the Mets May 30 on a conditional basis, subject to proving that his pitching arm was sound. The 33-year-old right - hander won two games and lost three for the Mets.

Ribant, a 22 - year - old native of Detroit, has a 91 record with Denver.

Lary spent nine full seasons with the Tigers, and was a 21-game winner in 1956 and winner of 23 in 1961. He was on the American League All - Star teams in 1960 and 1961.

The veteran developed arm trouble after his fine 1961 season and spent part of last year in the minors.

GROOMS CHALK

SWINSON, England (CP) — Wiltshire Boy Scouts are to groom one of the famous historic white horses cut in the side of the chalk downs. Farmers have reported that the chalk horses are steadily turning green because of weeds and grass.

All-Stars Shade Hawks 5-4

The National Park All-Stars shaded Johnny's Flying Hawks 5-4 in the first game of their semi-final playoff in the Charlottetown city softball league, Saturday afternoon.

The Hawks held a 1-0 lead until the bottom of the third inning when the All-Stars tied it up. The Hawks rallied in the fourth frame to score three runs and take what looked to be a commanding 4-1 lead.

Joe Caswell started the rally for the Park boys as he crossed the plate to make the score read 4-2. The All-Stars kept the pressure on and in the sixth inning came up with two runs to tie the game at four all.

Vince Bradley won the game for the National Park in the bottom of the seventh when he reached second on a throwing error and came across the plate for the winner on Ken Fitzpatrick's single to left field.

Harry McGee of the Flying Hawks led all batters as he had a perfect four for four day in the batter's box. L. Misener led the winners attack at the plate as he belted two hits in four appearances.

The series resumes tonight when the same two teams will take to the field at 6.30. The Hawks will be minus the presence of Junior Flanagan in their starting line-up. Junior wrenched his knee in Saturday's game and will be out for approximately 10 days.
