CORNET SOLO to-night.

HARVEST CONCERT to-night.

HARVEST CONCERT.—Tasty decorations and choice programme. You can't afford to miss this concert.

TO-NIGHT.—The chorus "Harvest Home," from Root's cantata, "The Haymakers," to-night. God Speed the Plough.

POLICE COURT.—Two drunks—Francis McCarey and Patrick Doyle—were this morning disposed of for $2 or 8 days each.

GOING UP.—The wholesale price of potatoes went up a little to-day. One dealer—Mr. Merrill—paid as high as 21 cents per bushel.

As soon as you discover any falling of the hair, or grayness, always use Hall's Hair Restorer to tone up the secretions and prevent baldness or grayness.

THE SMALLEST YET.—A Halifax despatch says that one of the smallest specimens of humanity alive is to be found at Lockport, N. S. He is seventeen years old, two feet six inches high and weighs 22 pounds.

AT IT AGAIN.—Our inveterate punster, always in touch with the times, remarked upon seeing Beer Bros. for window this morning, that although somewhat "squaw"-mish, it showed a good deal of "injun"-nity.

THE REWARD OF PATIENCE.—The Chronicle says that a lady teacher who recently resigned from the staff of the Morris Street (Halifax) school, has gone to far-away Texas to wed a Methodist minister there, after a betrothal extending over fifteen years.

ATTRACTIVE WINDOWS.—The show windows of Beer Bros. store on Queen Street are attracting a good deal of attention to-day. The north one is particularly well worth seeing. When you stop to examine the window take a good look at the poppoe; you'll wonder where you saw it before.

Y. M. C. A.—The meeting in the upper hall, to be addressed by Rev. Mr. Brewer and others, announced for this evening, is postponed until Monday evening next. For tomorrow, prayer meeting from 12.45 to 1.15. Everybody welcome. Bible Class from 8 to 9 in the evening.

BOTH OLD STAGERS.—The Halifax papers report that Charles Roan, a well-known colored man, and Mrs. Armour, also a prominent brunette, were married at the colored settlement near Richmond a few nights ago. The groom is 89 years of age, is blind of one eye, and has already been married four times. The bride is quite old, and has seen three husbands pass away. The colored people celebrated the event with great eclat.

ATTEMPTED TRAIN WRECKING.—The Moncton Times says: On Tuesday evening, as Fred O'Neill and Harry Trites were returning from their work in the foundry, by the wharf track, they discovered a piece of water pipe, about 18 inches in diameter, so placed between the rails as to throw a train off the track. They barely had time to remove it, when the shunting train came up the track. Investigation shows that the piece of pipe had been rolled from the gas house to where it was found on the track, near the foot of Downing Street.

WEDDING BELLS.—We have much pleasure in chronicling a very bright event, which took place at the residence of Henry Hyde, Esq., West River, on Thursday night, Nov. 14th, in the marriage of his daughter, Miss Mary B. Hyde, to Mr. David W. White, of York Point, North River. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. Davies Moore, A. M. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Lillie Hyde, and the groom by Mr. Frank Nelson. The happy couple left for their new home in Williams, California, by train via Boston this morning. We wish Mr. and Mrs. White every happiness in life.

DANGEROUS AMUSEMENT.—The Halifax Mail says: The thirteen-year-old daughter of J. Ryan, who resides in Margaret's Bay, received a fright of such a nature on Tuesday night, that she was unconscious nearly twenty-four hours from the effects of it. Her young brother met her on the road coming from a neighbor's house. He put a white sheet over himself and appeared suddenly before his sister. The girl fell into a swoon in which she remained up to 11 o'clock last night. This morning Mr. Ryan came to Halifax for a doctor.

PIANO SOLO to-night. Read the programme again.

THE BEAR KING.—The Kentville, N. S. Star reports that David Costly, living on the south road to New Ross has just killed his 148th bear. He has shot or trapped 148 bears to date. He trapped a caribou about ten days ago, and on the head was a magnificent eight branch antler—the finest head in the province. Unfortunately, it was four days in trap before found, and consequently only the head was saved. The animal dragged the trap over five miles, swam the upper end of Salmon Tail river, and was found a quarter of a mile further on, in a dense thicket.

Death of Mr. P. McQuaid.

Referring to the recent death at Toronto of Mr. Patrick McQuaid, the Globe says:—"Deceased was a young man of twenty-seven, though he looked considerably older. Few men of his age were so well known over Canada. From the far Eastern Provinces to Manitoba, and even further west, he was known to three out of four of the more prominent business men, railway and government officials and newspaper men of the country. With all who knew him he was most popular. His bright, cheery face, and sunny disposition made friends for him everywhere, and he kept the friends he made. His abilities were excellent, and peculiarly adapted to the profession of journalism, in which his life may almost be said to have been passed, and to which he was attached with unusual fondness. He came to this city about three years ago, and during the greater portion of the intervening period was connected with the Globe staff, among the members of which he was as popular as anywhere else."

The Empire says:—"The death of Mr. P. McQuaid, a well-known young newspaper man of this city took place last evening at the general hospital from typhoid fever. He was a Prince Edward Islander by birth, and had seen service in Ottawa and Montreal journalism before coming to Toronto. His cheery, jovial disposition made him a great favorite with all who knew him, and "Mac" was never known to be out of temper in his life. A host of friends will learn with regret of the early death of one to whom the world was always bright, and who was no man's enemy."

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER. Friendly Relations Established.

TORONTO, Nov. 13. The following is a special to the Globe from London: "Rumors are current again that more friendly relations have been established between the Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk, but the reports are unconfirmed. The stocks of both lines, however, are distinctly firmer than last week. The Grand Trunk has recovered its recent fall, and the Pacific is still steadily rising. British Board of Trade returns for October show a marked growth in Canadian imports and exports."

UNPARALLELED!

WHAT?

McLeod & McKenzie, Star Merchant Tailors.

MODESTY forbids us (to use a slang phrase) to blow our own horn, and as it is contrary to our opinion (according to the old proverb) when in Rome to do as Rome does, we shall endeavor, as heretofore, to present facts so undeniable as to be beyond the reach of dispute. True, people have gained for themselves a name (not an enviable one) which, to all appearances, served the purpose they had in view. But wisdom dictates, before posing as leaders in the great race, for supremacy, that we should look well to the foundation upon which those assertions are based. To throw the mantle of charity over such people is our motto; and instead of revealing to the public gaze, through your columns, the errors into which they have fallen, we will endeavor to lead them gently into the light. That you will acquiesce in what we say, is a foregone conclusion, namely, as Fathers of the trade in this Province we treat the several branches of the trade in this city with the same consideration as a loving parent would his innocent offspring; and to this end we invite such traders to aim high and co-operate in elevating this, the first profession, to the high status to which it is entitled. In the meantime, call and see our handsome goods, in NAPS, MELTONS, SCOTCH TWEEDS, WORSTEDS, etc., made up in the latest styles and cheap.

McLEOD & MCKENZIE.
