LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

LEADING FUR STORE.—Best Fur Store. Artillery—No. 2 Co. drill to-night at 7.30.

S. of T.—Meeting of Victoria Division tonight.

OWENWELSH.—The next session of the Owen Welsh Grand Lodge will be held at Dallas, Texas.

BE ON TIME.—Served Committee will meet at St. James' Man-e this (Monday) evening at 7.30 sharp.

A CIVIC HOLIDAY.—Thursday next, from one o'clock in the afternoon, has been proclaimed a civic holiday by the Mayor.

COAL LADEN.—The steamer Elliot arrived yesterday with a cargo of coal for Capt. R. McMillan and Charles Lyons & Co. The Elliot left here last Thursday at noon.

LADIES, clean your kid gloves with Josephine Glove Cleaner. It is not a liquid, it is a powder, and can be used while the glove is on the hand.

THE BIGGEST YET.—A mammoth squash, grown on Warren Farm, was shown in the show window of Saunders & Co's. store, in the Newcomb block.

MISS HEAT.—People who bought coupon tickets for the Johnson-Sullivan and Heat entertainments will have tickets for Miss Heat's entertainment honored on presentation at either Dallas or Rankin's Drugstore, where seats can be had.

STRANGE SIGHT.—A curiosity in the shape of a vegetable marrow is agitating Moncton. The curiosity is a species of squash and very peculiarly resembles a snake's head and even one eye being almost perfectly formed.

FIRE THIS FORENOON.—The alarm this forenoon about half past ten o'clock, was set in because of a slight fire in a barn on the premises of Charles Palmer, Weymouth Street. The fire was caused by hot ashes deposited near the barn.

THE SMITH LAND COMMISSION.—The Commission closed their labors on Saturday afternoon. All the evidence having been in, Mr. Stewart, Q. C. addressed the Commissioners on behalf of the proprietors.

POLICE COURT.—This forenoon Benjamin Byers, colored, was fined $5 or 30 days imprisonment for breaking windows and causing other damage to the residence of John Francis, Spring Park Road.

A SUDDEN DEATH.—Mrs. David Sullivan, of Northam, died very suddenly on Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Outton, of Alberton, were visiting there, and while Mr. Outton, Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan were milking the cows, death took place.

FROM MONTREAL.—The steamer Colan arrived from Montreal this morning about seven, bringing a general cargo and the following passengers: Rev. F. Fraser Draper, Ven. Archdeacon Smith, Miss Bessie Hunter, Mr. J. C. Jardine and Mr. J. Breen.

EXHIBITION NOTES.—The Provincial Exhibition will begin to-morrow and close on Friday. The Directors have made extensive arrangements, and the affair promises to be even more successful than those held in past years.

The gates and buildings will be thrown open to the public at eleven o'clock to-morrow, the admission fee being 25 cents. At three o'clock in the afternoon the Exhibition will be formally opened by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor.

The bicycle races will take place to-morrow afternoon, the first race to be called at three o'clock. There will also be a tag of war between Kensington and Charlottetown teams.

A number of horses arrived on Saturday night from Nova Scotia and New Brunswick to take part in the races on the second and third days. They include Resolution, Minota, Daisy Cunningham, Rampart Jr., Bonnie F., Button and Egmont.

THE WORLD OF SPORT.

The Turf. Mr. W. S. McKie, of Charlottetown returned from New Brunswick on Saturday evening bringing the trotting stallion Provider with him.

Aquatic. Gaudaur, champion oarsman, replying to Wag Harding's offer to row him in England this fall, says he has other engagements which will prevent him from accepting. Instead he offers to row Harding in Texas the week after Austin regatta for $2,500 a side and will allow him $500 expense.

The Wheel. The Ramblers' tourists returned to Halifax on Friday, coming in from Wind-or-The-tour was the best and largest in the history of the club. The total distance covered by the bicyclists was 578 miles.

Mr. Iselin acted like a churl and a gambler, and not like an international sportsman, in forcing a foul with Valkyrie and then claiming the race had sailed and lost. He was bound to win anyway, because he had money on the result.

Mr. Iselin acted like a churl and a gambler, and not like an international sportsman, in forcing a foul with Valkyrie and then claiming the race had sailed and lost.

Cherub Opening.—The church at Stanchell, Lot 67, was opened on Sunday, 15th inst. There was a large congregation present, and the services were of a most interesting character.

A CRITICAL OPERATION.—Miss Edwina Gray (Mrs. H. Price Webber) the well known and popular actress, has had a critical surgical operation performed for the removal of a fibroid tumor.

THE SMITH LAND COMMISSION.—The Commission closed their labors on Saturday afternoon. All the evidence having been in, Mr. Stewart, Q. C. addressed the Commissioners on behalf of the proprietors.

POLICE COURT.—This forenoon Benjamin Byers, colored, was fined $5 or 30 days imprisonment for breaking windows and causing other damage to the residence of John Francis, Spring Park Road.
