

STRANGE SAINTS

We have every respect for Saints but confess to being more than a little puzzled by rural manifestations on the night preceding the day set aside for All Saints.

In rural areas there is apparently a strong belief that it is disrespectful to the Saints to leave a cart-box on its wheels, the milk-stand on its legs, the gate on its hinges or indeed, almost any piece of farm equipment where it rightfully belongs.

DAIRY CASH INCOME Cash income for the sale of dairy products for Canada in August amounted to $44,828,000.

TWO TO FIFTY It is a generally accepted fact that truly remarkable progress has been made in developing and improving machinery.

Twenty-five years ago there could be purchased for $1.50 a set of two shears which under average conditions would plow sixty acres at an average cost of 2 1/2 cents per acre.

FIRE ON THE FARM Next Monday evening Farm Forum will discuss the unanswerable question of "Fire on the Farm".

Bomber Crashes Amid Row Of Small Homes EAST MEADOW, N.Y. (AP)—A twin-engine aircraft force bomber crashed amid a row of small private homes here Wednesday, heavily damaging one of them.

STIFFER HIGHWAY Penalties in N.B. FREDERICTON (CP)—Stiffer penalties for infractions of road laws will be applied here when New Brunswick's updated Motor Vehicle Act comes into effect.

FIRST IN CANADA New Brunswick is the first province to use the points system, which replaces the present method of classifying highway infractions as major or minor.

ason in granting this assistance. There was first the very evident justice of the potato growers' claims for assistance in a price support way and, secondly, the hope that after having had experience in a pool system of marketing their produce they would be given a trial under favourable market conditions.

KING'S COUNTY AGAIN King's County potato growers would appear to have almost a monopoly on winning the Potato Championship at the Maritime Winter Fair.

DIARY BOOTH A splendid example of Maritime cooperation and a feature which attracted a great deal of attention was the Dairy Booth at the Maritime Winter Fair.

ALBERTA LEGISLATION Following long and intensive effort by the Alberta Federation of Agriculture, and the producer groups represented in it, new general lines of similar legislation existing in most other provinces has been passed by the Alberta legislature.

Next Monday evening Farm Forum will discuss the unanswerable question of "Fire on the Farm".

Mr. Roy C. Marler, president of the Alberta Federation of Agriculture, said of the new Act: "It is not entirely as we had requested. Nevertheless, with the exception of the section pertaining to voting, it is reasonably satisfactory, recognizing that it will be necessary from time to time to obtain amendments to the best of the present legislation."

The family of the late Joseph Wheelock Fitzgerald wish to thank the Queen Hotel, the Charlottetown Funeral Home, Ed's Taxi, and all the wonderful Islanders for their kindness and consideration in our recent bereavement.

MR. EDWARD FALL The death occurred suddenly on Oct. 19th of Edward Fall, Crapaud, in his 75th year.

He maintained a deep interest in his friends and public affairs and appreciated the many acts of kindness shown him.

Card of Thanks The family of the late Edward Fall wish to thank their friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness; also those who sent messages of sympathy during their recent bereavement.
