

Aerial View Of The Canso Causeway

KENSINGTON W. M. S.

The Kensington United Church W.M.S. meeting was held in the Y. P. Room on Dec. 1, and opened with the Candle Ceremony with parts taken by Mrs. Patterson Walker, Mrs. W. F. Taylor and Mrs. P. J. Kennedy. Mrs. J. Y. MacFadyen, president, conducted the Christmas Worship Service which consisted of verses of Scripture and the singing of hymns. Assisting in reading the verses were Mrs. Inglis, Mrs. W. L. Johnston and Mrs. R. MacKay. The study period took the form of "Missionaries Reporting" with Mrs. L. M. Murray reporting for Educational Missionaries, Mrs. J. Davidson, Medical Missionaries and Mrs. Alexander MacKay for Evangelistic Missionaries. Roll call was responded to by 23 members. Thank offering amounted to $88. The Community Friendship Secretary, reported that 51 calls had been made to homes and hospitals, 31 cards and 26 boxes sent to shut-ins and also four banquets. The Supply Secretary reported sending a box to Dr. Florence Murray, Korea. It was decided to remember the sick at Christmas. The result of the Nomination Committee reported by Mrs. Horace Glover was accepted. Mrs. J. Y. MacFadyen, retiring president thanked the members for their support and help with the meeting and asked the same cooperation for the new president.

Mrs. Alexander MacKay. Mrs. D. MacKenzie moved a vote of appreciation to Mrs. MacFadyen for her splendid leadership during the three years she was president. Mrs. W. C. MacLeod seconded the motion. The next meeting will be held at 2:30 on Jan. 5, with an executive meeting at 2 o'clock.

UNION STARTS FUND TORONTO (CP) — The United Automobile Workers Union (CIO-CCL) Tuesday announced each Canadian working member of the union will be asked to contribute $1 to a special fund to give striking Ford workers a happy Christmas.

Georgetown

Master Robert MacDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace MacDonald, has returned to his home in Georgetown after treatment in the King's County Memorial Hospital in Montague.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Boudreault were recent visitors to Charlottetown.

Mrs. Booth Scott, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Donovan, left on Dec. 10 on return to her home in Ottawa, Ont. She was accompanied as far as Charlottetown by her mother, Mrs. Maurice Donovan and Mr. Chester Walker.

Mrs. Frederick Allen was a visitor to Charlottetown on Dec. 11.

Miss Peggy Johnson, who is employed in Charlottetown, spent the past weekend at her home in Georgetown.

Leading Seaman Harold Dicks of the staff of H.M.C.S. Queen Charlotte, Royal Canadian Navy, was the weekend guest of his parents, Captain and Mrs. Nelson Dicks.

Mrs. J. A. B. MacConnell was a visitor to Charlottetown on Dec. 11. On her return she was accompanied by Mr. MacConnell, school teacher at Savage Harbor, who spent the weekend at his home in Georgetown.

Mr. Joseph "Sonny" Johnson, Canadian National Railway, relief station agent, who is employed at Royalty Junction and Charlottetown, was a weekend visitor to his home in Georgetown.

The many friends of Captain John Jerrior are pleased to hear that he is improving steadily from his recent serious illness, which has confined him to his home for some time. Captain John is one of Georgetown's well known and highly regarded citizens and all will be looking forward to soon seeing him once again resuming his daily walks to the waterfront, which is dear to his heart.

Friends of Christopher Hartman, who was taken suddenly ill on Dec. 11 and who is now a patient in the King's County Memorial Hospital in Montague, are hoping for a speedy and satisfactory return to normal health for Chris.

On December 10, when attending the Charlottetown Islanders-Moncton Hawks hockey game in the Charlottetown Forum, Master Charley Fitzgerald of Georgetown was successful in guessing the correct time of the scoring of the first goal in the second period. Charley's financial remuneration was considerable, despite the fact that the prize had to be divided with another patron, who also successfully guessed the correct goal time.

The many friends of Captain John Fitzgerald are pleased to hear that he is feeling much better following a recent illness at his home in Georgetown. Captain Fitzgerald is well known throughout the Province and has been retired for quite a number of years, following an eventful and distinguished career as a master mariner of the seven seas.

Mr. H. F. MacPhee, Q.C., of Charlottetown, accompanied by his sister, Miss Isabel MacPhee, were guests on Dec. 12 of the Misses Nellie and Sarah MacPhee.

Friends of Mr. Howard S. MacLean, who is a patient in the King's County Memorial Hospital in Montague, wish him an early return to good health.

Mrs. Guy Beebe was a visitor to Charlottetown on Dec. 11.

Mr. Cyrus Shaw, life insurance agent of Montague, was a business visitor to Georgetown on Dec. 11. —A.C.
