

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH ARNOLD BELL

Former Montague Girl Is Wed In Scarborough, Ont.

Our Lady of Fatima Church, Scarborough, Ont., was the scene of a very pretty wedding recently when Maxine Gertrude, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lanigan, Montague, P.E.I., became the bride of Joseph Arnold, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bell, Melrose, Mass.

Rev. D. S. MacLean officiated at the double ring ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass. Rev. Johnston was seated in the Sanctuary. In the absence of her father the bride was given a marriage by her eldest brother, Harold, of Hamilton, Ont.

She chose a full length gown of peau de soie with French lace. The skirt fell from a bustle to a slight train. A matching rose held her tiered veil. She carried a white prayer book covered with one white orchid, stephanolis and streamers with ivy.

The bride's matron of honor was her only sister, Mrs. Leigh Jewell, of Hamilton. Mrs. John Lanigan, sister-in-law of the bride, and Miss Dale McGrath, a friend, were bridesmaids.

The matron of honor wore a street length gown of aqua silk organza, while the bridesmaids wore yellow silk organza. They wore matching headpieces and carried bouquets of yellow and white mums.

Miss Wendy Llewellyn, niece of the bride, was flower girl, and Harry Lanigan, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer. John Lanigan, brother of the bride, was best man, and Burton Peery and Arthur Lanigan were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Lanigan chose a beige sheath with pink accessories, and a corsage of miniature roses. The groom's mother wore an aqua full skirted dress with matching accessories and a corsage of roses. The groom's grandmother wore an off-white suit with matching accessories and corsage of roses.

A breakfast for the immediate families was held at the home of the groom's aunt and uncle. In the evening a reception was held at the Colonial Room. Larry, youngest brother of the bride proposed the toast, with the groom responding. Miss Nora Hutchison circulated the guest book.

During the Mass the altar was decorated with summer flowers and appropriate hymns were rendered by the junior girls' choir.

Immediately after the reception a honeymoon trip through the eastern United States. The bride travelled in a white broadcase dress and matching duster. Her corsage was a white orchid. The young couple are residing in Toronto where they are both employed.
