

Ask your doctor how many preparations of cod-liver oil there are.

He will answer, "Hundreds of them." Ask him which is the best. He will reply, "Scott's Emulsion."

Then see that this is the one you obtain. It contains the purest cod-liver oil, free from unpleasant odor and taste. You also get the hypophosphites and glycerine. All three are blended into one grand healing and nourishing remedy.

For The Children

The wisest child in the village school Was walking out in the evening cool When she spied an owl in a tulip-tree, So a civil "good evening sir" said she. But it gave her a shock (as it might give you) When he solemnly answered "to wit:— to who?"

"Why, to you to be sure!" said the little maid:
"But you've made a mistake, sir, I am afraid.
I don't know what you mean by 'to wit'."

But objective is 'whom,' I sure of it. The story-books say you're a very wise fowl,
But that was a blunder Mr. Owl.

Nice Little Sermons for Boys.

Most boys and girls do not like sermons—they say that they are too long for their highnesses. Perhaps they may like these short sermons. They will give food to think over, and must not be read too hastily.

A Swedish boy fell out of a window and was badly hurt but with clenched lips he kept back the cry of pain. The king, Gustavus Adolphus, who saw him fall, prophesied that that boy would make a man for an emergency. And so he did, for he became the famous General Bauer.

A boy used to crush the flowers to get their color, and painted the white side of his father's cottage in Tyrol with all sorts of pictures, which the mountaineers gazed at as wonderful. He was the great artist Titian.

An old painter watched a little fellow who amused himself making drawing of his pot and brushes, easel and stool, and said, "That boy will beat me one day." So he did, for he was Michael Angelo.

A German boy was reading a blood-and-thunder novel. Right in the midst of it he said to himself: "Now, this will never do. I get too much excited over it. I can't study so well after it. So here goes!" and he flung the book out into the river. He was Fichte, the great German philosopher.

Do you know what these little sermons mean? Why, simply this, that in boyhood and girlhood are shown the straits for good or evil that make the man or woman good or not.—Jewish Messenger.

A Buffalo paper prints the following American poem, entitled

"DAVY AND GEORGE."

We were raised up boys together,
Me an' Dewey; people said
"Twas a hard conundrum whether
George or Davy was ahead,
An' the boys all seemed to o'
Fear us in the schoolday muss,
An' the gals! well, you'd jes' ort to
See 'em sidin' up to us,
Smilin' like they thought that we
Was twin angels him and me!

We was reckoned as the leaders
In the frolics an' the fun—
Two more 'arnal mischief breeders
Never was allowed to run.
Every blessed day a cuttin'
Up some caper deviltry,
But in study hours a puttin'
In our time fur keeps, till we
Got a standin' at the head
O' the school—that's on the dead!

Everybody had an idee
We'd be heroes, up to date,
Fur we both had bony fidy
Symptoms of becomin' great.
Teacher used to of'n tell us,
In a proud, admirin' way,
Mebbe both us smartish fellows
'D be President some day,
An' we thought ourselves we might
Rise to somethin' out o' sight.

But our tastes become divided,
George he hankered for the sea,
Whilst I sensibly decided
Law was good enough for me.
When it come the time for partin'
"George," says I, "take lofty aim!
Here is where we make a startin'
Fur the pinnacle o' fame."
An' he answered; "Davy, we'll
Git there slicker than a' eel!"

Bin a long time realizin'
Of our dreams, but now the bowl
Seems chock full an' still a-risin'—
We have reached the shinning goal!
Both the partners, George and Davy,
Got there slick as axle grease;
He's a' ad'ral in the navy,
I'm a justice o' the peace.
An' there ain't no tellin' how
High we'll git, we're started now!

Mr. Parnham Tells How Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured His Lumbago.

TORONTO, June 19.—The story of the escape of the Globe pressman, Mr. John H. Parnham, from the agonies of Lumbago, by using Dodd's Kidney Pills is unusually interesting.

Mr. Parnham writes to the Dodd's Medicine Co., Limited, thus: "I am proud to testify the wonderful efficacy of Dodd's Kidney Pills. About eight months ago I was attacked by severe pains in my back. I consulted an eminent physician, who said I had Lumbago, and told me to take Turkish baths. This did me no good. "A friend advised me to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. I did so, and one box cured me." My back has never troubled me since.
