After which, His Excellency was pleased to close the session with the following.

SPEECH.

Mr. President and Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council:

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

The unremitting Attention which you have bestowed on your Legislative Duties, enables me to relieve you, at an earlier Period than usual, from further Attendance here.

After deliberate Consideration of the Terms adopted by the Conference at Quebec as a basis for Confederation of the British North American Provinces, you have refused, on the part of this Colony, to sanction the proposed Scheme.

In accordance with your Request, I shall forward to the Secretary of State for the Colonies Your Address to Her Majesty on that Subject.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

I thank you, in Her Majesty's name, for the Provision you have made for the Public Service of the year.

The Appropriation you have made for Agricultural Purposes is a due Acknowledgement of the Importance you attach to the Cultivation of the soil, and the Improvement of Stock.

Mr. President and Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council:

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

I have given my Assent with great Satisfaction to the Act, which you have passed to assist Leaseholders in the Purchase of the Fee Simple of their Farms.

I anticipate most beneficial Results from this Measure. The Assistance which it offers, cannot fail to be fully appreciated by a large number of the People whom you represent.

I observe that several measures of Law Reform have occupied your Attention, and that you have taken Action with a view of facilitating and simplifying the Procedure in Courts of Justice.

I am glad to be enabled to relieve you from your Legislative Duties, by proroguing this General Assembly.

Holloway's Pills.—General debility, low spirits, and nervous irritation, are the consequences of dyspepsia or indigestion. The Pills soon give tone to the stomach, renovate the digestive powers, purify the blood, and give strength to the whole system. Sluggishness of the body and depression of the mind are succeeded by a cheerful activity of the physical and mental functions. Indigestion is the parent of so many evils, and is so common, so universal a complaint, that is a great blessing that such a remedy as this invaluable medicine should have been discovered. No one need long suffer from indigestion with these Pills at hand.
