New Seaside at the Diamond Bookstore. No business at the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court this forenoon. A new supply of Birthday Cards at the Diamond Bookstore. CHRISTMAS IS COMING, but the XMAS cards have already arrived at NEMES. nov 10 21. We omitted to state, yesterday, that extra machinery for operating the Cape Wolfe mine will arrive next week. LEAVE your orders with G. H. HAZARD, South Side Queen Square, for Chinese Primroses, before they are all disposed of. A REGULAR meeting of the Benevolent Irish Society will be held in St. Patrick's Hall, this (Saturday) evening, the 10th inst., at 8 o'clock, p.m.—HENRY FITZGERALD, Secretary.

THE Concert in aid of the poor, under the auspices of Women's Christian Temperance Union will take place on the 29th instead of 19th as advertised.

NOVELTIES FOR INVITATIONS.—Note paper and envelopes, stamped in relief for tea, dinner and evening, English style at G. H. HAZARD'S, South Side Queen Square.

A QUARTER OF A CENTURY.—The Pictou Standard has completed the first quarter century of its existence. The Standard has improved greatly within a few years, and it seems determined to keep pace with the progress of the country. It is a good weekly.

P. E. ISLANDERS IN BOSTON.—A meeting of great importance to Provincials will be held under the auspices of the Maritime Provincial Association, at their rooms, 241 Tremont St., Boston, on Wednesday evening, 21st instant. All Provincials in Boston and vicinity are cordially invited to attend. By order of the Committee.

SCOTT ACT CONVICTION.—At Mount Stewart, on the 20th ult., before James Ross, Esq., and W. J. Logan, Esq., J. P.'s, for Queen's County, Susanna Coffin, at the suit of Thomas Douglas, was convicted and fined fifty dollars and costs or two months imprisonment for vending intoxicating liquors in violation of the provisions of the Canada Temperance Act, 1878.

By private telegram to Mr. C. H. Schurman, of this city, dated Masquidobit, 7th inst., we learn that the schooner "Margaret Ann," Captain William Buckley, had gone ashore in that vicinity, but had been got off again after considerable difficulty. The schooner was loaded with potatoes by Mr. Schurman, and, we understand, her cargo was badly damaged. It was insured in the Great Western Insurance Company, of which Mr. F. W. Hyndman is agent for this city.

It appears that the steamer "Napoleon III." has not capacity for carrying the quantity of freight offered at Pictou. We learn that yesterday twelve carloads were left behind at the landing. This is a hardship to importers who immediately require the goods. This detained. If freight collects, to any extent, at present at Pictou, and if it cannot be carried to this port, serious loss to our merchants will be involved. We hope the authorities will give strict attention to this important matter.

SUPREME COURT.—An important argument was heard before the Court on Tuesday and Wednesday last. The question is, how far a foreign judgment is conclusive in this country on suits brought in our courts here to enforce it. It rests mainly on the interpretation to be given to our Provincial Statute, passed in 1869, and whether such Statute extends to such foreign judgments as have been appealed to by the defendant in the original suit. R. R. Fitzgerald, Q. C., and F. Peters for plaintiff; E. J. Hodgson, Q. C., and L. H. Davie, Q. C., for defendant.

ROWDYISM AT STANHOPE.—We understand that, well on to eleven on the night of the 6th inst., some parties entered on the premises of Mr. David Douglas, of Stanhope, and acted in a most disgraceful manner, violently pounding the doors and windows of his house, shouting at the top of their voices, forcing open one of the outside doors, filling the hall and rooms with tobacco smoke, driving their horse and wagon through his lawn and over his flower beds, and tearing up the borders. This annoyance continued for a long time, frightening the lady members of the family almost to death.

THE second annual meeting of the Maritime Commercial Travellers' Association was held in the Halifax Hotel, and was attended by a large number of the members. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—Adam Burns, president; Robert Taylor, T. E. Kenny, A. E. Mackinlay, George J. Troop, vice-presidents, Halifax; J. McMillan, Hon. John Boyd, W. H. Thorne, W. S. Fisher, vice-presidents, St. John, N. B.; J. W. Allison, James Wallace, W. J. Stewart, Jas. Fraser, T. C. Allen, J. T. Irish, W. Robertson, treasurers. The association is in a flourishing condition, and its good objects are deserving of success.

On opening of the Kent Northern Railway on Wednesday, a grand ball was held at Richibucto. The Moncton Times says it was one of the most successful affairs of the kind ever given in that part of the Province. The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and all the arrangements were on a magnificent scale. The guests numbered over 300, the largest number being from Moncton, though St. John, Fredericton, Chatham, Newcastle and other places were represented. The supper was acknowledged by all the guests to be one of the best spreads they had ever been fortunate enough to sit down at. The credit for its completeness is due to Mrs. E. E. Phair. The promoters of the Kent Northern are to be congratulated on the successful opening of their road, and it is to be hoped that the profits they will derive from it will be in some degree commensurate with the difficulties encountered in its construction.

THE Boston Comedy Company, last evening, appeared in "Black-Eyed Susan; or, All in the Downs," and concluded with a most laughable farce—"A Ghost in spite of Himself." The audience was large, orderly, and appreciative. Miss Edwina Grey, in the role of William, threw much spirit into the play, and was oftentimes loudly applauded for her efforts. Miss Patt, as Black-Eyed Susan, acted her part admirably, while Mr. C. A. Patt, as Doggrass (Susan's uncle) at times convulsed the audience with laughter. Mr. H. Price Webber made the most of Jacob Twig, while the remainder of the support acted their respective parts well. Altogether "Black-Eyed Susan" created a very satisfactory impression on the audience. In the farce the acting of Mr. Patt, Miss Patt and Mr. Farish was excellent, while Mr. Webber was, as usual, exceedingly ludicrous. To-night the Company will produce the "Octoroon; or, Life in Louisiana." The drama is popular and will, no doubt, draw a crowded house.

DR. ROGERS has retained Mr. Dalton McCarthy, Q. C., of Toronto, to prosecute in conjunction with his counsel in the action for $20,000 brought by him against the New Brunswick Medical Council.

FIVE HUNDRED and fifty-three car-loads of freight, inward and outward, were handled at the St. John station of the Intercolonial Railway, during the week ending on the 3rd instant.

A SPECIAL cablegram to the Toronto Globe states that the reply to the address presented at Liverpool to the Marquis of Lorne, referred to the increasing prosperity of Canada and the large interest now taken by England in the affairs of the Dominion, especially in matters relative to the growth and development of the Northwest, in proof of which he mentioned the fact that letters from England to the Northwest had increased from 3,000 to 12,000 during the last two years.

THE annual meeting of the International Railway Company of Maine was held at Bangor on the 7th. The election of officers resulted in the choice of the following:—President, John H. Pope, Ottawa; Vice-President, Noah Wood, Bangor. Directors, John H. Pope, Ottawa; Noah Wood, F. A. Wilson and E. R. Burpee, of Bangor, and W. B. Ives, T. S. Morris and D. E. McFee, of Sherbrooke. Supt. McFee, in his report, stated that a large force of men is now on the railway in Maine, near the Canadian boundary.

It is reported that the schooner "Florence May" capsized between North Cape and Esquimaux during the storm of the 30th, and sank with all hands on board. The "Florence May" was a vessel of thirty-two tons, owned by Mr. Joseph W. Sturdy, of Crapaud, and commanded by Captain Furlong. She left Summerside on the 29th ult., with a cargo of oats shipped by Mr. R. Campbell for Miramichi. As Mr. Campbell has not yet heard anything from her he believes that the report is but too true. The cargo was insured in one of Mr. F. W. Hyndman's Companies.

THE second week in November having been set apart as a week of special prayer for young men and Young Men's Christian Associations throughout the world, the Devotional Committee of the Charlottetown Young Men's Christian Association have made arrangements for the following meetings to be held in their building:— Monday, 12—Opportunities: Used, Luke, 19, 1-10. Rev. Mr. Rice, Chairman. Tuesday, 13—Opportunities: Unused, Acts, 26, 22-29. Rev. Mr. O'Meara, Chairman. Wednesday, 14—Opportunities: Improved, Acts, 8, 26-40. Rev. Mr. Whitman, Chairman. Thursday, 15—Opportunities: Abused, Matt., 21, 33-46. Rev. Mr. McLeod, Chairman. Friday, 16—Opportunities: Lost, Mark, 10, 17-22. Rev. Mr. Wadman, Chairman. Saturday, 17—International S. S. Lesson, Bible Class. Each meeting will open at eight o'clock. The public are cordially invited to attend.

THERE was quite a heavy blow on Wednesday, and on the following morning the people at Petite Passage, near Meteghan, Digby Co., discovered that a large two-topmast schooner had sunk in the entrance of the passage during the night. She had not been observed from land up to dark the evening before, and nothing was heard during the night. People put out in boats to the place where the vessel lay with her masts two-thirds out of water, and looking down they could see the boat hanging to the davits, but could not distinguish the bodies of the crew or make out the name of the vessel, or what she was laden with. The crew did not land anywhere on the bay shore, and it is feared they have gone down with the vessel. She is, as before stated, a two-topmast schooner of about 140 tons. A vessel of that description is missing from this part of the province, so far as we can learn, and she must have been some craft bound to or from St. John, which sprung a leak and sunk while trying to reach a port. Information received from Meteghan yesterday shows that the masts of the sunken schooner have been got, but the name was still unknown.—Yarmouth Times.

Mr. Hoag, the New York jeweller who disappeared on September 4th, has just turned up again. The account he gives of himself is a strange one. He says that one day, when leaving his store on Broadway, at two p. m., he was accosted by a young man passing. Being well known in the neighborhood, he had no suspicions, and accompanied the stranger to two saloons. After one glass at the second saloon, Mr. Hoag fell asleep, and when he awoke, he was in a boarding house at Highgate, in London, England. His money and jewelry were all right and after spending some time in the metropolis he embarked on the "Canada" for New York under an assumed name. Hearing that his mother was ill at Prescott, Ont., he first went there and relieved her anxiety about him. Mr. Hoag suspects that he knows who the young man was that drugged and kidnapped him, but declines to say. He now intends to resume business in Broadway.

[SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.]

French Politics.

LONDON, Nov. 10. The Standard's Paris correspondent had an interview with Ferry. The latter denied that France had any intention of annexing New Guinea. With regard to them, Ferry entertains the opinion that Chinese diplomatists are neither frank, honest nor ingenious. He utterly disbelieves in the military power of China, and is firmly convinced that there is not the remotest chance of that country going to make war. Ferry did not see any such eventuality as a French blockade of Chinese ports, Tonquin, he said, was not a Chinese possession. France had rights in Tonquin.

A Train Ditched—Passengers Injured

DIED.

At Boston, Nov. 7th, of hemorrhage of the lungs, George McKenzie, aged 21 years, son of Alexander and Catherine McKenzie, Charlottetown. At Charlottetown, Nov. 7th, after a short illness, John Grandie, aged 42 years. At Crapaud, on Nov. 6th, Harold Fade McQuarrie, infant son of David and Alice McQuarrie, aged 14 months. O. Harold dear, This hard to part, With you we loved so well; But Jesus pardoned with His life, That we in Heaven might dwell.

At Long Creek, Lot 65, on 29th ult., Catherine, the beloved daughter of Euphemia and Malcolm McCannell, aged fourteen years, and ten months.

Departed this life, at Orwell Head, Lot 57, on the 15th of October last, 1883, Mr. John Martin, in the 94th year of his age, leaving five sons and one daughter to mourn the loss of a loving father. Deceased emigrated to P. E. Island in the year 1829, from the Isle of Skye, Scotland, and settled on the farm on which he died. In the year 1840 he joined the Church at Orwell Head, under the ministry of the late Rev. Donald McDonald. To this Church he clung without wavering for the remainder of his earthly career. Kind and hospitable to strangers, and the wayfarer never went hungry from his door. Deceased had a fall upon the ice about eight years ago by which he had been confined to his bed ever since; but he never murmured, and his Lord doeth all things well. His chief delight was reading his Bible and Grant's hymns when able to do so. He died at peace with all men, leaving no enemies behind him. Deceased was father of Dr. Hugh Martin, of Fredericksburg, Virginia, U. S.
