

From One Cook to Another

Mary Blake
Carnation Home Service Director

ONCE IN A LONG, LONG TIME, a really new and wonderful dessert comes your way. I'm happy to save my share in telling folks about the latest such dessert—Frosted Fondant Pudding. Perhaps you've seen the color picture of Frosted Fondant Pudding at your grocer's, or in color advertisement. The secret of its luxurious smoothness and heavenly rich flavor, is that it uses double-rich Carnation Evaporated Milk in a new way with Jell-O Pudding. That does wonders for the puddings. And this new dessert combines two marvelous flavors of quick, thrifty and wholesome Jell-O Puddings, for a new taste delight. Maybe you already have your leaflet with Frosted Fondant Pudding and with other dessert recipes from your grocer. If not, until you do get it, here's VEGETABLE VARIETY can do so much to make meals enjoyable. One way that I count on achieving variety, is with interesting sauces. And among my favorite sauces, is a Mock Hollandaise that gives a real lift to vegetables. It achieves that smooth richness you look for in Hollandaise, by using double-rich Carnation undiluted milk dressing.

MOCK HOLLANDAISE SAUCE

- 1 tablespoon butter
- 1 tablespoon flour
- 1/2 cup Carnation Milk
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup thick salad dressing
- 1/2 cup butter and flour in saucepan over low heat. Mix Carnation and water. Add gradually to butter mixture, stirring constantly; stir and cook until thickened. Add salt and salad dressing and serve at once.

There is no better proof of Carnation's quality, than the fact that Carnation Milk is used and recommended more for baby feeding than all other brands of evaporated milk combined.

WANT A WHIPPED TOPPING to add the last perfect touch to Frosted Fondant Pudding—or to berry shortcakes? Couldn't be simpler—couldn't be thrifter. Use Whipped Carnation Topping. Here's how:

Chill undiluted Carnation in freezing tray of refrigerator until small crystals form around edges. Or chill unopened can several hours on ice. Chill bowl and beater. Whip rapidly. For each 1/2 cup Carnation used, add 1 tsp. lemon juice after whipping to the foamy stage. Whip stiff—sweeten to taste. (For recipes that call for whipped cream folded in, omit lemon juice and sugar).

IT'S SMALL WONDER if housewives become confused by claims and counterclaims for food products. How can a person be sure which is best? Well, I can speak for milk, anyway. But I'm going to be different. I won't make any claims for Carnation. I'll just let these questions and answers speak for themselves:

1. What milk is double-concentrated for double usefulness—milk for milk purposes, and for cream purposes? CARNATION.
2. What evaporated milk is specially refined for super-smooth cooking results? CARNATION.
3. What evaporated milk is extra rich-tasting, for richer flavor in cooking? CARNATION.
4. What is the world's leading brand of evaporated milk? CARNATION.

At Last, modern science has given me the perfect answer to the "Problem of the Yellow Wash!" Scientists have proved that true whiteness is made up of all the seven colours of the rainbow and if blue is missing, white turns "to dingy yellow. Ordinary washing machine can't make them really white. That's the special property of Blue. That's why washing needs that last rinse with Blue to replace the missing blue rays and restore sparkling whiteness. What's more, Blue is kind to the finest fabrics. It won't harm them in the least—and it costs just a few pennies a month to use. So keep your white things truly white with Blue! Yes, for the whitest wash, use RECKITT'S BLUE.

Though He Can't Say So in so many words, baby likes hot "WHEAT" for breakfast. Look M-mmm-yum!

Sign Your Own Money!... Look at any dollar bill and you'll see two signatures. Without those signatures, the dollar would be worthless. It's the same with BANK OF MONTREAL Travelers Cheques—but both the signatures are yours. You sign once at the bank when you buy them and sign them a second time. If you do lose them or they are stolen, their replacement can be arranged without difficulty. So why take chances with your holiday funds? Change them into BoM Travelers Cheques... They're only good when you sign them.

It's a Lovely Day For A Picnic—so, hurry!... you can whip up a wonderful picnic lunch for two or ten in a jiffy. How about some devilled eggs... and crisp lettuce-with-mayonnaise sandwiches? But be sure the mayonnaise is HEINZ MAYONNAISE. It's "tops" in taste, as are all the Heinz mayonnaise products... Ever tried the Heinz Sandwich Spread? There's something to take along on your picnic—m-mmm!—just the thing for healthy outdoor appetites. So take my tip—remember Heinz for happy picnicking!
