

Stetson-Kennedy Wedding

The United Church Manse at Cavendish was the scene of a very lovely wedding at 3 P. M. on Wednesday, June 20th, when Miss Jean Kennedy of O'Leary and Charlotte-town, daughter of Mrs. John Kennedy of O'Leary, was united in marriage to Mr. Clayton Profit Stetson, son of Mr. Henry Stetson of O'Leary. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George Gough and Mrs. Bayfield, aunt of the bride, played the wedding music.

The Manse was beautiful with cut flowers and a young couple stood under an arch of flowers, streamers and wedding bells. They were attended by Miss Beatrice Cameron of Charlottetown and Mr. Errol Stetson, of O'Leary, brother of the groom. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Forbes Kennedy, of Charlottetown. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white satin with long fitted bodice, full skirt and long pointed sleeves. Her full length veil was held in place by a coronet. Her hair was worn in curls, and she carried a nosegay of pink and white snapdragons with baby's breath. The bride's mother wore navy sheer. Her corsage was pink and white carnations.

Following the ceremony Mrs. Kennedy was hostess to a reception at the Manse. A delicious buffet luncheon was served to immediate relatives and a few close friends who were present. The table was centered with a two tier wedding cake topped by miniature bride and groom; and flanked with white tapers. Mrs. Roy Kennedy of Charlottetown poured. Miss Jean Stetson and Miss Marjorie Ellis, both of O'Leary, served. While Mrs. Daniel Ramsay of O'Leary, Mrs. Blair Andrew of Cavendish, replenished. Mr. and Mrs. Stetson left on a honeymoon trip to Nova Scotia. For going away the bride wore a flowered yellow nylon dress, beige coat and yellow straw hat with yellow and white accessories. Her corsage was red roses. Prior to her marriage the bride was receptionist in the office of Dr. Roy H. Kennedy, of Charlottetown. The young couple will reside at O'Leary where the groom is well known as a successful farmer.

Marrow - Yeo Wedding

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at St. James' United Church Manse, West Covehead, on May 2nd, when Rev. Thomas A. Wilson united in marriage Norma Mae, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Yeo, Union Road, and Harold Duncan Marrow of Harrington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Marrow.

The bride wore a street length dress of aqua sheer with navy hat trimmed with aqua and pink flowers, and wore a corsage of Better Times roses. The matron of honor, Mrs. Sterling Yeo, sister-in-law of the bride, wore a street-length dress of pink tulle with pink flower hat and a corsage of Talisman roses. The groomsmen were Mr. Leaman Marrow. Following the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the bride where a reception was held for the immediate family. Those assisting in serving were Miss Marjorie Lamont, Mrs. Earl Livingston and Mrs. Keith Brien. Later in the evening a party of serenaders gathered to extend best wishes to the bride and groom. They will reside in Harrington where the groom is a prosperous young farmer.

NORBORO W. I.

The members of Norboro Women's Institute met for their June meeting on at the home of Mrs. Linway Shantz. With the Vice-President, Mrs. Elmer Stewart presiding, the meeting opened with the singing of the Island Hymn followed by repeating the Creed in unison.

Twelve members were present and two visitors were welcomed. Roll call was responded to by each one buying a new hat. Minutes of previous meeting were read and approved. Correspondence was read and included a receipt for $50.00 from Salvation Army.

A message of thanks was given by a member for a treat received while ill.

Plan was made for the district convention program. Mrs. Elmer Stewart and Mrs. Clark Harding are to attend the Executive Meeting.

A district picnic was planned for the school closing and is to be held at the Experimental Farm.

Mrs. John Andrews and Miss Eilon Buchanan reported the sum of fifty-one dollars collected in the district for Red Cross. Collection was taken and birthday box passed around. Mrs. Elmer Stewart invited the members to meet at her home for the next meeting. Roll call will be answered by each member handing in a Rose.

Programme committee for next meeting—Mrs. Cecil Hughes and Mrs. Wilbert Lawless. Mrs. James Lawless conducted a number of games of Bingo, the winner being Mrs. Wilbert Lawless.

At the close of the meeting a social hour was enjoyed and dainty lunch was served by the hostess.

Closing Exercises Stella Maris School

The eleventh annual Commencement Exercises at Stella Maris School, North Rustico, took place in the school auditorium where several members of the clergy and a large number of friends and relatives assembled. At eight o'clock the graduates of the class of 1951 marched up the centre aisle and took their places on the artistically decorated stage. The most striking feature of the beautiful setting was a lovely stage of the Blessed Virgin, surrounded by roses and carnations, standing against a background of pale blue drapes. The pupils of Grades VIII, IX and X were seated below the stage.

The names are as follows: Joseph Coffin, Eileen Doiron, Norma Doucette, Alyre Gallant, Audrey Gallant, De-mond Gallant, Jean Gallant, Alban LeClair, Ruth Murray, Frances Peters, Isabel Woolner. Miss Norma Doucette, in a charmingly delivered Salutatory, welcome the assembled guests. Grade XI Certificates were presented to the Graduates by Rev. Father Robins, who presided at the Closing Exercises. Grades VIII, IX and X then received Certificates.

Mr. Desmond Gallant, the winner of a scholarship for the highest standing in Grade XI, read the Valedictory. This was followed by distribution of prizes. Mr. Brendan O'Grady, M.A., professor of English at St. Dunstan's University, addressed the graduates. In a masterly speech, Mr. O'Grady stated that the word success is often taken to mean the attainment of wealth, social standing, and worldly renown; but this is really the meaning of success, we must say that Joan of Arc failed; St. Thomas Aquinas failed; St. Francis of Assisi failed; St. Thomas More failed; and even Christ the Son of God failed. The aim of every Christian, the speaker said, should be to attain, not "success," but sanctity; for only in holiness is happiness to be found; and according to Leon Bloy, "The only unhappiness is not to be saints."

Mr. O'Grady's eloquence as well as the earnestness and sincerity with which he delivered his soul-stirring message kept the audience spell-bound during his inspiring address.

The following is the program of the Closing Exercises and the list of prize winners:
