Drama Presented By S.D.U. Players In Birchwood High

Approximately 350 persons took themselves to Birchwood High School auditorium last night to witness the premiere of St. Dunstan's University players' production of Henri Gheon's 4-act drama "The Comedian".

The director, Rev. Adrien Arsenault, acted as Master of Ceremonies.

Based on an actual historical event, the play revolves around the story connected with the conversion of St. Genesius, patron of actors and actresses.

Genesius, a Roman dramatist who lived near the beginning of the fifth century A.D. is ordered by the Emperor Diocletian to produce a play centered around the beliefs and customs of the Christians.

During the course of the preparation for their command performance, Genesius is so taken with the belief and character of the Christians, he contacts that he embraces their faith.

In the final act of the play he professes his new belief publicly and is immediately put to death. Revealing glimpses of pagan

ROMA are interwoven with the main story.

Tomorrow evening in the College auditorium the student-actors will present this play for the second time. There will be no charge to the public.

Baptist Men's Ass'n. Hears Canon Puxley

Speaking to the Baptist Men's Association last night on his experiences behind the Iron Curtain both in Europe and in Asia, Rev. Canon Puxley said that he was amazed at the love that people of these suppressed countries exhibited for their native land. However, the general lack of hope caused by forced disregard and unbelief in Christ saddened him, he added.

Canon Puxley was introduced by Rev. Harold Milton.

President of the University of Kings College and Canon of All Saints Cathedral, Halifax, Canon Puxley is conducting the week of prayer services now being held in Charlottetown. Canon Puxley spoke at a supper meeting prepared and served by members of the Association Executive. Approximately 60 members attended.

In a very humorous manner, Ralph Rapert thanked the committee for their splendid efforts. Using equal wit, the committee Chairman Ken MacKenzie replied and introduced his three aides, Charles Scramton, Dan Bell and Les Gillespie.

During the meeting it was decided to sponsor a congregation skate. This event will take place at North River Rink Thursday evening January 15th.

Ira Lewis, the new president of the Association, conducted the meeting. Deacon John Lohnes gave opening prayer. Lloyd Archer and Sterling Inman led the singing. The benediction was pronounced by Ross Bethune.
