THE 192nd
Medical Man, Dr. T. W. N. Baker,
Philips Square
MONTREAL.

SAYS OF M. P. P.:
"Having occasion to test your Porter and Extract of Malt and Taraxacum, I can highly recommend it, supplying a long felt want to the medical profession, as it combines the fat producing qualities of malt with the alterative principles of taraxacum, and from its composition will easily be retained by the most delicate stomach, and consequently prove invaluable in protracted convalescence and all wasting diseases."

OTTAWA LETTER
An Interesting Budget of News.

(Special correspondence of The Examiner.)
I must crave the indulgence of your readers this week and ask them to excuse the very short letter I send. The simple truth has been that I was frozen out. We had been having moderately fine weather, if not warm at any rate no frost, so that in our house the fire had been let out in the furnace. The double windows had been taken off, and we were rejoicing in lots of sunshine and fresh air, when the change came. Saturday evening it was warm enough to go without an overcoat, although there were signs of rain, which is much needed. At midnight, instead of rain, we had snow, with piercing northwester during which the mercury fell to 16 above zero. When I got up Sunday morning the temperature of my room was 48, and higher than that I could not get it all day. At church it was still colder, and as the wind continued very high, there was no alternative but to spend the afternoon in bed, while I sat with an overcoat, although warmth. In the evening we huddled over a soft coal fire in the grate, which burned wretchedly, and I sought bed again at an early hour. It may interest some of my readers to know that the coal in said grate, which we would call poor coal, as it gave a great deal of ash, cost only 88 a ton, being brought from Pennsylvania. Our house has nine rooms and a kitchen, and is heated with hot water. The winter did not really commence until late in January, yet it has taken eleven tons of coal for the furnace, at $6 25 a ton, and four tons for the kitchen, (which has also hot water system for bath room, &c.) at $6 50 a ton, to keep us from freezing to death the past three months with parlor coal, used when required, at $8 a ton. Add this to house rent at $35 a month, and it costs something to go house-keeping in Ottawa.

It, that it was now known as "Tory" Barley, and the six rows were called "Yankee" or "Grit" Barley. Ontario farmers could raise 75 bushels of Tory barley to the acre and get 50 cents a bushel for it, while they could raise only 30 or 35 bushels of Yankee barley and get less than 40 cents a bushel.

Of Friday upon the vote for immigration purposes. The Opposition continued their policy of obstruction the whole sitting, so that when at midnight the House adjourned not a line had been passed, and the chairman reported to the Speaker that the committee had made no progress. The Opposition talked about everything and for the sun except the matter before the committee. Mr. Davies made a blue ruin speech, and Mr. Perry followed suit, and all the Opposition joined in the chorus. The country was retrograding, lands were depreciated in value, the people were fleeing as from a plague, the immigration policy of the Government had been a flat failure and hundreds of thousands of dollars had been expended to bring out emigrants, who had crossed the border and set out for the United States.

In reply, Mr. Carling stated that the Government were not all honest means to attract desirable settlers to Canada, but the greatest obstacle they had to contend with was the unpatriotic speeches of Opposition members, which were unworthy of loyal Canadians. Those speeches were quoted widely in America and in Europe to show that Canada was not a fit country to live in and that everything was going to ruin and decay. As a specimen of this literature Mr. Carling quoted from a speech delivered by Hon. David Mills at Hamilton only a year ago, when he spoke as follows:—

"Trade is stagnant, stocks of many kinds have diminished in price. Agriculture is greatly depressed. Lands have fallen in value. The farmer is overwhelmed with debt. He is no longer the free man he once was. To many there is nothing left but to starve and die. The fences are going to decay, and the buildings are out of repair, for the occupier is giving up the struggle—the land cannot be redeemed. The fires in new factories have gone out; the looms in the cotton mills are silent; the employes have been dismissed, and at every railway station from east to west, machinery and industrial appliances lie rusting—the supply exceeds the demand. What does it all proclaim? Capital misdirected and lost, labor unemployed, expectations disappointed, hopes dashed, hearts sore from pecuniary losses, men financially embarrassed, and urgently calling upon the Government to do something to save them from financial disaster."

Mr. Carling asked whether, in view of such a speech, circulated as it was in England, Ireland and Scotland, and the Western States, it was any wonder that the Government found the immigration question a difficult one.

Horse Notes.
SIR.—After fifteen years of breeding to those imported standard-bred horses, what have the farmers of this county to show? We see buyers here every day looking for good, stylish drivers, but they are not to be found. You would think that after the best service fee that has been paid during all those years we would have a good class of stylish drivers; but the fact of the matter is that our farmers have got the idea that if a horse is not imported he is no good. I think some of them have got their fingers burnt pretty well. They have now a lot of curly legs, bog spavin or low-backed ones that if they happen to go off their feet they will go into a dozen shapes before they can be got on their feet again. We see another sample of those fine bred ones coming here this season. It matters not where a horse is bred if he is a good, big, stylish horse and a good mover you have two chances, one if you don't get a trotter you will get a good, stylish driver. Take the prize list of the last New York sales, where there were Wilkes, Electioneers and all the fancy bred ones, and what do we find. Those great families selling from ten dollars up, and it came from the east as Charlottetown. Even in the States to-day owing to fine breeding you cannot get gentleman's drivers like you could twenty years ago. What the farmers want to breed to is style, fine good standing, value, and if the horse has speed, so much the better. We have very few men in this country who can afford to train a horse as he should be. It is not the ordinary farmer that can do it. What made those fast ones at Palo Alto. It was the millions that we set at their back. If the same were taken of some of our Island horses we would have some flyers.

Another Testimonial.
DR. HAYNES.—Dear Sir: I am sorry you have so much to contend with. No doubt it is caused by jaundice. I shall certainly do my best to contradict any false reports I may hear, both for your own sake and my own. I would be very grateful should I do otherwise, after having derived so much benefit from your medicine. You promised to cure me in six months from the time I commenced taking your medicine, but I am happy to state that I had not been taking it more than three months when a cure was effected; and after having consulted all the doctors in the vicinity without effect, the only consolation I derived from any of them was that my disease was incurable. If this statement will be of any benefit to you, you are perfectly welcome to publish it. Yours very truly,
MRS. C. R. POOLE.
