At high noon Tuesday Miss Ruby Aubrey Delahunt, only daughter of Mrs. and the late Charles Delahunt, Moncton, and Mr. Ellis Roy Wasson, son of Mrs. and the late Captain C. D. Wasson, St. John N. B., were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. A. Ramsay at the home of the bride's mother, 230 Cameron Street, Moncton in the presence of friends and relatives.

As Miss Florence Wasson, sister of the groom, played Lohengrin's wedding march, the bride entered the drawing-room on the arm of her brother, Mr. Lloyd Delahunt. R., where she was for some time employed, and a chest of silver from the groom's staff in the head office of the New Brunswick Telephone Company, St. John. The groom's gift to the bride was a substantial cheque; to the flower girl, a gold piece and to the pianist, an opal ring.

The couple left by motor for St. John, from where they will proceed by boat to Boston and New York. After a month's honeymoon trip, they will reside in St. John, N. B.

The bride is a well-known and popular local young lady, having been employed for some time with the C. N. R. The groom is in the employ of the head office of the New Brunswick Telephone Company, at St. John. He was for three years in the employ of the local office, leaving here about one year ago.
