AN ANGEL CAN MAKE MISTAKES

California centerfielder Jose Cardenal, right, appeared to have a good thing going as he prepared to take a long fly from New York Yankee's Mickey Mantle in third inning of doubleheader's first game yesterday in Yankee Stadium. Then rightfielder Willie Smith, 35, got into the act: Result was a collision and dropped ball. Smith was charged with an error as Horace Clarke scored from first-base and Mickey held up at first. Cardenal finally picked up the ball to throw it in Yankees won 9-1. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Danny Clark Tops Shooters

Firing under sighting conditions that were far from ideal SSM Danny Clark of Charlottetown topped the field at the weekly prize shoot held Saturday by the P.E.I. Rifle Association at Squaw Point.

Clark registered 47 out of 50 at 200 yards and added a 70 out of 75 at the 600 for an aggregate score of 117 of a possible 125. He edged out his son Tpr Ronnie Clark by one point who with scores of 44 and 72 finished with 115.

In class two Cdt Wilbur Birt of Charlottetown took top spot also with 116 made up of a 47-69.

This event was the final weekly prize meet until August 13 by which time the national rifle meet of the Dominion Rifle Association will have been completed at Commaught Ranges 14 miles west of Ottawa. The Island squad will be headed for the big meet toward the end of this week and the word is that this year's aggregation can be classed as on a par with any other teams since World War Two.

Following are the results of Saturday's event:
