IN MEMORIAM

EDGAR S. HARDY

It was with deep regret that relatives and friends heard of the death of Edgar S. Hardy, Cape Traverse, in the Prince County Hospital, Sunday, March 8th., in his thirty-third year.

Edgar was born in Freeland, Lot 11, and was the only son of Wilbur Hardy and the late Mrs. Hardy. When he was only one and one-half years old his mother died and he was brought up by his grandparents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Hardy. There with his six uncles and one aunt, Lois, he was dearly loved and cared for.

He served his Country in the Royal Canadian Navy in World War II.

In 1948 he married Audrey MacCaull, Ellerslie and the following year moved to Cape Traverse, where he served the community as a general merchant.

Although in failing health for the past three years he was able to assist in the running of his business and to take part in community affairs until the last few months of his illness. Each Sunday while his health permitted he dearly loved to attend divine worship with his wife and children.

His faith and trust in God sustained him during those trying days of his long illness and enabled him to meet the end with perfect submission to the will of his Heavenly Father.

He was tenderly cared for by his wife, at home, except for the day previous to his death when he entered the Prince County Hospital.

Left to mourn the loss of a loving husband and father are his wife, three sons: Stanley, Steven and William and one daughter, Barbara; also his father; and one sister, Mrs. H. E. Phillips, Freeland.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon, March 11. A private service was conducted at the home of his sister, by the Rev. L.M. MacNaughton, assisted by Miss Mary McKenzie. Deaconess at North Tryon Presbyterian Church.

Service at Freeland Presbyterian Church was held at 2 p. m., conducted by the Rev. L.M. MacNaughton, pastor, assisted by the Rev. J. Donald MacKay, Summerside and Miss MacKenzie, North Tryon. The hymns sung were: "The Lord is My Shepherd", "Sun of my Soul," and "Sleep on Beloved Sleep."

Pallbearers were Messrs. Hazen MacWilliams, Erwin Dennis, Roland Millar, James Bureligh and Wyman Waddell.

Members of the Ellerslie and Borden Branches of the Canadian Legion attended in a body with Comrade Wendel MacKay performing the Legion Services.

Interment took place in the church cemetery.

The floral tributes were many and very beautiful.

IN MEMORIAM

JAMES E. MACEACHERN

His many friends and relatives were shocked and saddened by the news of the sudden passing of James Edward MacEachern. Cherry Valley on the morning of March 11th., at the Prince Edward Island hospital.

Born at Summerville, March 25th. 1977, he was the son of the late Donald MacEachern and his wife, Catherine Jenkins.. He attended school at Summerville and later the Charlottetown Business College.

In 1909 he was united in marriage to Etna F. Lea, Vernon River and shortly after moved to Cherry Valley where he carried on a retail grocery business until a month before his passing.

He will be sadly missed, especially in his home, which was made happy by his love and kindness; in his church, which was very dear to him and where he was always ready to lend a helping hand and was highly respected among a large circle of friends and relatives.

There are left to cherish his memory besides his wife, one daughter, Hazel, Mrs. Harold Smith, Pownal and two sons namely: Leigh at Tea Hill and Lawson at home. His youngest son, Kenneth, predeceased him sixteen years ago.

Twelve grandchildren also survive, and three sisters, Ida, Mrs. George Sutherland, Laura, Mrs. Peter Stuart, both of Charlottetown and Ethel, Mrs. C. W. Robinson of Accord, Mass; also one brother Charles of Charlottetown.

Four sisters and two brothers predeceased him:: Margaret, (Mrs. Thoday), Mary (Mrs. F. Richards), Isabel, (Mrs. Wendell Lea), Caroline, (Mrs. Alex Campbell), William J. and Almore.

The largely attended funeral was held on March 13th. with a short service at the home, thence to Cherry Valley United Church where a large number of relatives and friends gathered to pay their last respects to one whose memory they will long cherish.

The services at the church and grave were conducted by his pastor, Rev. N. Green assisted by Dr. A. S. Weir and Rev. T. R. Goudge. Dr. Weir paid a very fine tribute to the deceased as a personal friend, a co-worker and a neighbour.

The hymns sung were, "O God Our Help in Ages Past," and "Peace, Perfect, Peace." The pall bearers were: W. J. Mutch, Everett Jenkins, Wilfred Praught, Jack Morrissey, Jack MacRae and Russel Docherty. Flower bearers: Kenneth, Glen and Keith MacEachern, Winston, David and Ian Smith and Roy MacMillan.

The many beautiful floral tokens and messages of sympathy bore silent tribute to the esteem of the departed:

God saw the road was getting rough,
So He took him by the hand
And whispered "Peace be Thine."
The hills getting hard to climb,

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late James MacEachern wish to thank their friends for their many acts of kindness during their recent bereavement; also all who sent flowers and messages of sympathy.
